COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 26, 1937. No. 66.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26, 1937

The Senate met at 1:00 o'clock p. m.
The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee for another day. It brings us trials; yet it is brimmed with opportunity. Much has been accomplished—much is yet to be done; and we appear to have come to the kingdom for a time such as this yet if we altogether hold our peace, deliverance may come from another place. Give us strength for the journey to the Journey's end.

Keep us free these days, representing a free people, seeking a higher freedom. We would follow the counsel of reason, and obey the voice of conscience.

Make us quick to discern flitting shadows that fall upon our paths, strange faces that appear and vanish. May we be keen to detect the voice of Jacob and the hand of Essau. Our God, give us a vision of the glory of right. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. McGinnis, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this body has learned from experience in providing funds for institutions of learning, medical care and attention throughout the Commonwealth and by our Constitution a great many worthy institutions who are performing activities of merit to a wide extent are prevented from receiving State aid because of the fact that they are engaged in sectarian work, notwithstanding the fact that the work is of equal ability and extent, and I think the Senators know that five institutions of that kind are being deprived of State aid or are activities of others along certain lines who are receiving State aid. I received a communication, or rather a copy of a letter from a Congressman of the United States, which he forwarded to me. It emanates from the Pennsylvania Hospital, at Eighth and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, and is included in one of the hospitals receiving State aid. I think the letter is its own condemnation and without saying anything further about the letter I offer it for the purpose of having it read into the records: Pennsylvania Hospital, Eighth and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. I prefer not to read the name of the addressee because it is unimportant except to state that the letter is addressed to Texas State College for Women:

"Thanking you for your interest in making application for our course in dietician intern. We do not accept students of Jewish nationality and I am therefore returning at once your photograph so that you may apply elsewhere.

Very cordially yours,

Julian E. Gelson,
Director of Dietary Department."

I ask that this be spread upon the records of the Journal.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be received and spread upon the records of the Journal of the Senate.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution on the death of Mrs. Catherine A. Earle Mather.

Mr. PYTKO offered the following resolution, which was twice read considered and agreed to:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 26, 1937.

Whereas. It has pleased Almighty Providence to take from this life. the beloved sister of the Governor of this Commonwealth. Mrs. Catherine A. Earle Mather, who died at her home in Haverford on May 17th; therefore be it Resolved. That. the Members of the Senate offer their sincere sympathy to the Governor and to Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., the mother of Mrs. Mather. in the loss they have sustained in the death of this sister and daughter, and direct the Chief Clerk of the Senate to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor and to his mother.

Suspending Rule 21, for balance of 1937 Session.

Mr. HUFFMAN offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, May 26, 1937.

Resolved, That Rule 21 of the Senate, to wit: "That the vote on concurring in bills amended by the House or on adopting reports of committees of conference, shall not be taken until said bills and reports have been placed on the files of Senators, and particularly referred to on their calendars", be suspended for the balance of the 1937 regular session

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, do I understand that this is suspending the rule for the balance of the present Session, requiring Conference Reports and House amendments to be mentioned on the Calendar? Is that the purport of this resolution?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, Yes.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, is that all the farther it goes? Of course this would not then, Mr. President, I take it, and I would like the Senator from Monroe to inform me if I am not correct, this would not permit the consideration of amendments or conference reports unless they were printed on the calendar of the Senate.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, Oh, no, they would be put on the desks.

And the question recurring

Will the Senate agree to the resolution.

It was agreed to.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-five) entiled "A supplement to an act approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and eighty-four) entitled 'An act to provide revenue by imposing a mercantile license tax on vendors of or dealers in goods wares and merchandise and providing for the collection of said tax" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cities of the first class on or before the [thirteenth] first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and [quadriennially] on or before the first day of June of each year thereafter the Auditor General [and the city treasurer] shall appoint five suitable qualified citizens as mercantile appraisers for [terms of four years each] a period of one year Not all of said appraisers shall be members of the same political party The powers duties and compensation of said appraisers shall be as now provided by law

Section 2 The terms of mercantile appraisers in cities of the first class in office immediately prior to the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven are hereby terminated as of that date

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is an interesting commentary on the statesmanship of this bill, and now that our new Auditor General will appoint the mercantile appraisers in cities of first class, and that the former Republican leader of the Eighth ward has become a Democrat, and that one of the rising Republicans in the House from Philadelphia has also become a Democrat, because he comes from Mr. Cook's ward and Mr. Cook has now signed up with Mr. Kelly and the Auditor General, this is a very effective bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows. viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I arise to a question of personal privilege for about three minutes.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Woodward, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President,

SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Harrisburg, Pa., May 26, 1937.

Mr. President:

I rise to assert our Bill of Rights right to a free press, free assemblage and free speech. Even the Philadelphia Record is free to record one day Senator Dent's report upon the flight of industry from Pennsylvania, and the next day to record the Senator's change of heart. The Senator had to choose between the martyr's stake or recantation. He chose to recant. What burns me up is "why." Free speech, even in Washington and Harrisburg, means you can go into the street and yell against the President or against the Governor without fear of arrest. Free assemblage is illustrated by myself assembled with myself in a minority of one.

That is the Bill of Rights. There is also a bill of wrongs. There always has been. It used to be the unholy alliance of the Republican Party with Wall Street and big business. Now it is the unholy alliance of the Democratic Party with John L. Lewis's C. I. O. Labor supports Earle because Earle supports labor (see note). I understand that in the House it has reached the point that in Committee Mr. Cohen calls up a bill and says, "This is a labor bill". The Committee say, "Shush, Shush", and out goes the bill. Administration bills have a deadly pink cover; labor bills are no longer under any cover.

Imagine Mr. Lewis being summoned to testify before the LaFollette Committee! It simply is not done. The C. I. O. having won in the steel industry is now the spoiled darling of government and business. In the world of nature, little animals have little fleas, and big animals have big fleas. We, the General Assembly, the little underdogs of government, are called to the front of Messrs. Earle and Lawrence who put fleas in our ears. We may have amended chain stores or full crew or workmen's compensation to make them decent but we are ordered back to scratch, which is where we started. We salute the front and say, "Aye, aye, Sir"!

The next question for an inquiring mind is who are the big fleas, who or which bite the big dogs? The biggest flea in the jungle seems to be organized labor and the queen flea seems to be Mr. John L. Lewis. When Mr. Lewis bites, you can see our mighty President and our mighty Governor begin to scratch. If organized labor were well organized it might easily deserve a high place in the seats of the mighty. It is not well or at least wisely organized. Organized labor very properly fought organized big business. We all recognize the hard won rights of labor. With so many assets on labor's side why does it seek unfair advantages? Granted it was exploited, it is a pity for so great a movement as organized labor to be moved by a spirit of revenge.

As a liberal who wishes to see American organized labor develop into the higher forms it has achieved in Great Britain and the Scandinavian countries, I advise two things:

1. Incorporation
2. Public accounting of all funds.

We have on our calendar Senate Bill No. 441 which would accomplish one of these two things. S-441 is a "p. p. c.," bill which means postponed calendar also "paying party call."

Respectfully submitted.

G. Woodward.
6th Dist. (to be emasculated and deleted).

Section 9 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 10 This act shall become effective thirty (30) days after its final enactment

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, this particular bill, (House Bill No. 904), has a peculiar history. It started out as a bill relating to peace officers, providing for powers and duties of sheriffs and deputy sheriffs and prohibiting industrial police from being employed or serving as industrial police. The bill had a very laudable purpose, as originally written, it struck at a most recognized evil, and anyone who is familiar with conditions in Pennsylvania must recognize, whether he is wedded to labor or capital, and that is the importation of the so called strike-breaker, and then calling for industrial police and permitting them to commit outrages upon the public, upon the persons of their equal, and we had a chaotic condition, a condition that was indefensible. I think it is a bill which, as it originally came through, had much merit in it and then it got to third reading on the calendar and suddenly it changed its entire complexion. The only word in the bill that was not in the original bill was the word "that," on page 2, the title was changed, the contents were changed, and it is an entirely new bill.

Now I want to say in all fairness to the Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Government, Mr. Kilgallen, of Pittsburgh, when I discussed it at the time he very generously gave us a hearing. The bill as rewritten would have ripped out the sheriffs in Pennsylvania, it would have taken out a time honored institution. There are abuses in the carrying out of the duties of that office in Pennsylvania, but that was not the intent of the sponsor of the Act to correct abuses in the office of sheriffs. After the public hearing, instead of returning the bill to its original form, we have proceeded to delete certain objectionable features, but we still have a bill striking at the efficiency of the office of sheriff in Pennsylvania. I maintain that it is too general in its scope and in its attitude. We have here a specific wrong and we tried to right that wrong and in trying to right that wrong we have a cure worse than the disease. We have an opportunity, in my opinion, but if we pass this bill in its present form we will endanger the lives of these people. For instance, you have a different situation in the rural communities and in the boroughs in Pennsylvania, where they depend upon our sheriff, they do not have available as many deputies as you do in cities. We have surrounding us in my particular county many miners, and those men strike. Our people need protection. We do not need protection from so-called industrial police, our people need protection not for the miners. You will have a quarrel in the labor union if you pass this bill. I want to point out some of the inconsistencies in the bill. For instance, under the bill a sheriff cannot employ special deputies—get this—anyone who has acted in labor troubles during the past two years. Now that would mean: here is the incoming sheriff, the old sheriff had labor troubles, necessarily all his deputies have had to be in service, and under the provision of this Act the new sheriff could not hire a single deputy that had been employed by the former sheriff.

Another provision, is that all deputy sheriffs must be photographed and they are listed there, in fact they are marked men, they fire their names publicly, they file their photographs. They are marked for whom? For law-breakers, they will be known, their habits will be known, and I ask you what man's family would want him to be placed in a position where he would be easy prey for any law-breaker, or any potential law-breaker. We have a provision, for instance, in my opinion, there is a reasonable doubt as to whether the sheriff could, under this Act, collect any of his fees.

Now the matter of posse comitatus. You have a situation where the sheriff has to go out and pick up his deputies on a moment's notice. Originally as the Act was amended, a posse comitatus was done away with and again, while the Chairman of the Committe consented to have that provision stricken out, it was only by inference. You have the sheriff and all these restrictions as to his deputies, and he finds the need for a posse comitatus. He has been told that he can have no deputies unless they are photographed and so on and so on. Is he to take that chance? Will he not be responsible? An actual posse comitatus cannot be procured in cases of emergency. The Act is poorly drawn in my opinion, it may take care of a situation that everybody knows exists, but there are positive situations in Pennsylvania that are very serious and the law will require officials to be placed under unnecessary danger ifthis law were enacted, I ask you to vote it down.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, three or four times on this floor, perhaps more, different of my colleagues have referred to my fairness, but still when it comes to a proposition that they are to vote upon my fairness and my reasonableness, they throw it out of the window and they vote against what I suggest. I want to take up the suggestions of the Senator in order, and show to this group that there is no merit in them, that they are not founded on good sense. He undertakes to say that an evil exists in this State that should be cured, but offers no suggestions to cure it. For years the people have had that evil and no attempt was ever made to cure it, and if this bill is not passed today, it will not be cured and we will go through several more years before anything is done.

The Senator first objects because, as he says, any man who has acted in a labor dispute within the past two years will not be eligible for appointment as a deputy sheriff. That is not true, my fellow Senators, the bill goes on to say that any person acting for himself or as the agent of another in a labor dispute shall not be eligible for appointment as deputy sheriff. I say to this group that a deputy sheriff does not act for himself or as an agent for another but he acts for municipalities through the official, the sheriff, representing that municipality, and there is no doubt at all that will be the construction placed upon the section to which the Senator objects.

The Senator goes on to say in the second objection, that is a very grievous thing to have made known to the public those men who are to be made deputy sheriffs; and he used some language to the effect that those applicants for the appointment of deputy sheriff will be a shining mark for bandits and so on. The thing is entirely silly, my fellow, Senators. We all know men who are officers — police officers —, whether they be policemen, constables, or deputy sheriffs, or of any form of police officer, and to my mind, it is just nonsense to say that any man who is known in the community is a marked man.

The Senator said something about this bill preventing the sheriff from collecting fees. He did not amplify the statement, I can only say as to this, that is not a fact. This bill, by no stretch of reason, no stretch of the phraseology in this bill, can be construed to apply to the acts of the sheriff. He is heading toward a proposition that is nowhere in this bill.

Now as to a posse-comitatus. This bill, when it comes before the judges for judicial interpretation, will be construed according to the legislative intent. Originally in the bill we did have a clause providing for the use of a posse-comitatus, and when it was drawn up it was called to our attention that we could not interfere with the duties of the sheriff, one of which is the posse-comitatus. I go on to say that this bill does not prevent the sheriff from calling upon a posse-comitatus in case of an emergency. The bill has been amended. Originally the bill does with peace officers, today it deals with officers and a principle. There is no difference between the bill now and as it was when it first came to us. The only controversial thing about this bill is this: This bill sets forth that hereafter — and the bill is effective within thirty days after passage — no person shall be appointed to deputy sheriff unless he has first made application for the job, and also that the applications come into the sheriff and a list is prepared, and that list is a public record; and it remains on file in the sheriff's office for ten days and after those ten days have passed the list is transferred over to the office of the prothonotary and there it becomes a public record. Now, accompanying the application for the job is a photograph of the applicant, and there was some objection to that. There is objection to anything in this bill to stop its passage, but I want to say to you Senators that in very many departments of the State and Nation a photograph is required. I never heard an objection from any person as to that. A civil service requirement of the nation is that the applicant shall present a photograph, and I do not understand this objection, why some decent honorable citizen, who wants to be a deputy sheriff, I do not understand why that sort of man objects to having his photograph publically recorded. I can understand why a man who is called a strike breaker, one who is here today and gone tomorrow, who is doing dirty work, and comes from other cities, I can understand why those men do not want their photographs on a public record.

Now, understand, gentlemen, we are dealing with a thing that has been an evil in Pennsylvania and it will be well for industry to recognize that evil and to help us cure it. One great political party is committed in its platform of 1934 to the elimination of privately paid peace officers, and this is the bill that I ask you to vote on, it is for the redemption of that pledge. The bill has been thoroughly considered in committee and this is the first public attack made on it. The Senator from Indiana, nor any other Senator ever raised serious objection to this bill. As I said before, it was a case sitting down with the Senators, both Republicans and Democrats, to discuss this thing and to do it right, and, as I said before, this is the first frontal attack on the bill.

Now, in the application of these prospective deputy sheriffs, they are required to give this information, first, their names and their resident address, and their age; second, that he is a citizen of the United States, 21 years old or over; third, that he has resided in the county two years immediately preceding the filing of his application; fourth, that he has never been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude, and then fifth, following the question that I have already discussed, that he has not been involved in any labor disputes for himself or as agent of another, within two years of the filing of this application. Is there anything wrong in those overments, the things that he is asked to say in the application? There is nothing in that application that you or I might say shows red, and that the photograph is so ridiculous. If there is, point it out to me. What else is there contained in that application? That application is made out and the sheriff keeps it for ten days, and then it goes to the prothonotary. I cannot see anything wrong with that. It is true that the sheriff is restricted to those conditions, but you are confronted with an evil here and something must be done. You have lists of men who desire to be appointed as policemen in every municipality of the State. No man is appointed policeman in cities or any municipality in this State except from a list, and that is what it is, a civil service list, if you want to call it that, and in principle the same kind of a list that is used when a city appoints a policeman.

Now, in the bill we give ample protection to public grounds, public buildings, and to banks, and to every industry and phase of commercial life where protection is needed, this bill takes care of it. It is a good bill and I hope it passes.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I would just like to clarify two points: in the first place, that there has been no attempt in this bill to make any vital changes. I opposed this bill in committee and out of committee and since it was changed. I would like to call your attention to a rule of the Senate, Rule 37, under Prohibited Legislation. I explained to you that the bill was rewritten by taking another House bill that was pickled in committee in the lower house. It was taken from there and rewritten into this bill.

This rule 37, provides that "no bill shall be so altered or amended on its passage through the Senate as to change its original purpose." This bill started out to regulate industrial police and now it includes the sheriffs insofar as it includes labor, let us be practical about this. Suppose you wanted to organize a group on account of labor troubles and you had a public list of all available deputies, would it not be easy then to tie the hands of the sheriff? Would it not be easy to approach many of these deputies and tie the hands of the sheriff? Under the present law he was allowed to get his deputies anywhere in the county but under this law he is limited to whom he could use.

Now, the Senator has said that he was elected by the Democrats on the platform that made promises to labor. I was not elected by the Democratic Party and I did not make the many promises, so I am privileged to use my good judgment, but I would like to help them. You have seen this Act labeled as a 'Labor' act. Now with all of its potentialities of evil as this applies, who will be expected to carry the blunt? No one can say that we will not have to bear the blunt of that.

The Senator has said here it is a 'labor' bill. I say I do not think Labor should be placed in the position of wanting to have anything to do with this policing matter, and I say it is a dangerous bill.

The Senator has said that it does not interfere with the hiring of deputies of a previous sheriff. I will read that section of the Act which refers to that: "No deputy shall for a period of two years immediately proceeding the filing of such affidavit either for himself or as agent or employee." It does not say any active employees of the county or state, it says agent or employee of another. Obviously the deputy is either the employee of the sheriff or the employee of the county, he could not under any construction possible under this Act employ any deputy that has been a deputy under a previous sheriff if you have labor trouble. I think the bill should be voted down. Of course, the Senator said that we cannot get a bill at this late day. That is the fault of the gentleman who has been looking out for these matters or to cure a real evil, we could not take a chance to destroy the powers of our sheriff. I think the bill should be defeated.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I sat in committee during the discussion of this bill and I am just as much surprised at the position of the Senator from Indiana today as is my colleague from Allegheny. This bill when it came to us from the House was, in my opinion, a very poorly drawn bill, and a rather silly bill in its efforts to correct an important condition. The Senator from Indiana sat in while we discussed every section of this bill, and while we changed every section of this bill, and this is the first time that I have heard the Senator from Indiana say that this bill is, in the form as prepared by the committee, a bad bill. I am surprised to hear the Senator say that this bill should not be passed, because everybody in that committee room, and we spent several hours, I think, in working on the bill, and in carefully going over each branch of the work, even to discuss the questions which have been raised here on the floor as to whether or not this prevents the sheriff from employing people who had been employed by a previous sheriff, and we came to the conclusion that the bill did not disturb that part of his activities, we also came to the conclusion that the important matter in this bill was to see to it that the people who act as deputy sheriffs will be people of decency and people who believe in law and order and law enforcement, so we took up all of the provisions of the bill and laid particular stress on being able to adopt a plan which would enable us to choose only those types of people who could be depended upon, to favor no one in the performance of their duties, and it seems to me at this time, when it is too late to even correct or clarify the situation which the Senator referred to, or which may be a wrong interpretation of this bill, I think it is very unfair to raise that question.

I am glad that this bill is before this Senate, because I have been very much troubled by a question which is being agitated all over the country, and it is a question of "sit-down" strikes. I have been wondering what attitude of mind we would have toward that situation, and I hesitate to express an opinion, because I do not think that there is time here, nor is there full knowledge enough of the situation to enable anyone, or to justify anyone in taking the time to listen, but I do believe, with the Senator from Allegheny, that this is an important bill, and a good bill, because when labor, which, as everybody must admit, has been denied of many rights, when it has been prevented from enforcing many of its rights, and when it has been thwarted by violations of laws in its effort to find a place for itself in the world and a profitable living, a future for its children, and all of those things that happen to labor, it is no wonder that it is difficult to control the men of labor, and when we enact a law, and more laws, which will guarantee and insure to labor the right to bargain and deal with employer on an equal basis, with the understanding that the employer when he is bargaining and dealing with labor is dealing with human beings, and that is not customary yet, when they are not glad to deny labor all the rights that it can get through legal methods and procedure and without any violation of those rights, then we can justly say to labor," now do not take the law in your own hands, when we are establishing a full and fair board for labor to by lawful means protect itself, then we will be justified in taking a position on the question as to whether or not 'sit-down' strikes are justified, and can be excused or warranted.

When we pass these laws, we can say to labor, "now you have asked us to pass laws which would compel industry in a lawful manner to settle differences that could exist between you, and establish the right that each that you may have, now we say to you, do not violate these laws which are on the statute books," and if the members of the Senate will recall that they are citizens of a great commonwealth, a great nation, and will pass these laws and enforce them, industry will be grateful to them, and then and only then can we take the same position with labor when labor violates the law.

and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1026, (House Bill No. 563), as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 912) entitled "An act to protect the public health defining and providing for the licensing of bakeries and regulating the inspection maintenance and operation of bakeries and premises stores and shops connected therewith defining and regulating the manufacture sale and offering for sale of bakery products conferring powers on the Department of Agriculture and providing penalties" further regulating bakeries and the importation of bakery products providing for injunctions in certain cases and changing the penalties prescribed

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 912) entitled "An act to protect the public health defining and providing for the licensing of bakeries and regulating the inspection maintenance and operation of bakeries and premises stores and shops connected therewith defining and regulating the manufacture sale and offering for sale of bakery products conferring powers on the Department of Agriculture and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Annual License and License Fee It shall be the duty of every person whether a resident or non-resident of this Commonwealth operating a bakery to apply to the Department of Agriculture for a license to do so and to register with the department all bakery products baked prepared manufactured or compounded in such bakeries before the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-four and annually thereafter before the first day of January of each succeeding year and pay to the Department of Agriculture at the time said application for registration and license is filed an annual fee as follows For bakeries using less than one hundred barrels of flour per week five dollars ($5.00) for bakeries using one hundred barrels and less than two hundred barrels of flour per week ten dollars ($10.00) and bakeries using two hundred barrels or more per week twenty dollars ($20.00) Provided however that any person operating a bakery in Pennsylvania who does not use more than fifty pounds of flour flour substitute flour mixture or potatoes a week in the preparation of bakery products shall not be required to register such bakery products pay a license fee or obtain a license [Provided however That any person operating a bakery in Pennsylvania who does not use more than fifty pounds of flour flour substitute flour mixture or potatoes a week in the preparation of bakery products shall not be required to register such bakery products pay a license fee or obtain a license]

The application for a license and registration shall be made on a form to be supplied by the department and shall show trade names of all products and principal address of bakery The application shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person applying for the license that the facts set forth therein are true and correct

From and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a bakery for the manufacture of bakery products unless said bakery is duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of this act

Upon approval of application for registration and license and payment of required license fee and also upon approval of sanitary conditions in a bakery and every store or shop connected therewith the Department of Agriculture shall issue to each applicant a license or certificate of registration which shall expire at the end of each calendar year and which will authorize the operation of said bakery and the baking compounding manufacturing and sale of said bakery products for the calendar year or portion thereof for which a license or certificate of registration shall be issued

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Chairman of this Committee whether or not this bill, now up for passage, was reported from his Committee on Agriculture?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, it was.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to ask whether the definition of a bakery was considered in the passing upon this bill?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, it was.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, may I ask the Senator from Delaware what is the definition of a bakery?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I suppose a fellow who does baking.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, In section 6 of this bill, under sale and importation of bakery products. This bill provides "It shall be unlawful for any person" and so forth.

And in Section B "To import into this Commonwealth for sale within this Commonwealth any bakery products manufactured in a bakery in another state that is not licensed according to the laws of this Commonwealth."

If there is some other interpretation that can be put upon this clause, I would like to know it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Delaware, if this bill would prevent housewives from baking bread and cakes and selling along the roadside, and conducting that method of making a living, without getting a license from Department at Harrisburg?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, that is stricken out, the part about bakers who use less than fifty pounds of flour, that is stricken out.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask if this bill includes pretzels as bakers' products.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I suppose it does.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 1370, as follows:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section one Article eighteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof

That section one article eighteen of the Constitution of Pennsylvania is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives and if the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each House such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals with the yeas and nays taken thereon and the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general or municipal election in at least two newspapers in every county in which such newspapers shall be published and such proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State in such manner and at such time at least three months after being so agreed to by the two Houses as the General Assembly shall prescribe and if such amendment or amendments shall be approved by a majority of those voting thereon such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution When two or more amendments shall be submitted they shall be voted upon separately

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand that this bill, as I read it, it is a method of amending the Constitution so that it only requires one sesion of the Legislature, is that intentional or inadvertant?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it is very much intentional.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Fayette state the purpose he intends to accomplish, the basic reason for such amendment?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, because we are seeking a method of amending the Constitution consistent with the method of progress that this modern era makes necessary. The system of amending the Constitution was originally put in the Constitution at a time over one hundred years, or more ago, and that was sufficient for the people under the conditions under which they lived at that time, but today with our radios and the progress that we have made, there are good minds in this Commonwealth who feel that the method of amending the Constitution should be made easier, so that the people may amend the Constitution oftener than the Constitution now provides. Of course I may add this, that when the resolution was introduced. I knew what was in it, but since that date my friend, the constitutional authority of this Senate,

Senator Law, from Mercer, has made some very substantial amendments to it, and I do not know whether I am stating the exact contents of that resolution now.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I know that we are all anxious to get rid of the calendar, but I am quite sure we are not anxious to get rid of the calendar at the expense of an orderly and correct system of changing our form of government. I see nothing in the changing conditions of the world that would cause us to make any change in the basic reason for requiring two sessions of the legislature to pass an amendment to the Constitution. I am not so sure that we want to move any faster than we are moving now, particularly in the amending of the Constitution, which requires that both Houses shall be given an opportunity to be heard, so that the views of both sides may be given on the important question of amending the Constitution. Now we have a five year's time-lock that is being eliminated, and with that elimination I see no reason why we should hurry and change the Constitution every year.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I arise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his point of order.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the bill is not on my desk.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not want to raise a technical question.

The PRESIDENT. Is the bill on the desk of the Senators?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. PRESIDENT. The Sergeant at Arms will see to it that one of the bills is placed on the desk of the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson. The point of order is not well taken.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to express my grief and amusement at the reactionary tendencies of my distinguished colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro. There are two arguments in favor of this Constitution amendment. In the first place, when we have two sessions, you will find, as a rule, that the Legislature pays very little attention when the bill is going through the first session. When it goes through the second session, number two, the conservatives, not reactionaries, are always afraid of a constitution convention, and when the Republicans were in power they would not even listen to it. This, in my opinion has a virtue of avoiding that issue, because if we open the door to amendments, and make it easier to amend our Constitution then we can do it whenever we find it necessary to amend it.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am happy to find something in which I am in accord with the Senator from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro. I think the Senator from Fayette County has misunderstood the real purpose of a Constitution. A Constitution is merely an agreement by the people as to how they shall be governed. It is intended as a protection against the Government; it is intended as a protection for the minority against the majority; it is intended as a protection of the people against themselves: and for these reasons we have endeavored in the past to make our Constitution relatively hard to change. We have seen here in this session of the Legislature (and it has been admitted by them) that members have been compelled to vote for propositions against their better judgment.

This amendment if passed, would permit the administration in the State to pass an amendment to the Constitution—an amendment which had not been discussed at the prior election by the people. The administration might, through its power, force a resolution through a single Legislature, and then, in a moment of hysteria submit it to the people, and a mere majority of those voting on the question of the adoption or rejection of the amendment, would be sufficient to secure its passage. Out in Illinois they have a clause in their Constitution which, I believe, provides that three fourths of the members of the Legislature can propose an amendment which may be submitted then to the people, but the adoption of that amendment requires a majority of all the people voting at the election, not merely a majority of those voting on the amendment; and you can see some reason for that, because if a proposition is not of sufficient importance to obtain a majority of votes of those who vote at the election, it is hardly of sufficient importance to put into the Constitution.

Now, perhaps that is a little to restrictive, but our present Constitution provides a method of amendment which, I think, is sufficiently satisfactory, especially if a recent proposed amendment, which will be submitted at the next election—in 1938—is adopted—that is that an amendment may be submitted in any year. Under a decision of our Supreme Court, the submission of an amendment was permitted only every five years, and I personally think that is a bad provision, but under the amendment which has now passed I believe, two sessions of the Legislature, and will be submitted to the people, the Constitution may be changed in any year, and with that modification of our Constitution certainly it is not too much to require the resolution for a new amendment to go through two sessions of the Legislature. Do not take away the protection of the minority against the majority, possibly a minority of the same party, or the protection of the Legislative branch of the Government against the executive branch. I urge the members of this Legislature, before they pass this amendment, to consider it most carefully. In removing the ancient landmarks of our fathers. I fear that you are destroying the bulwarks of our liberty.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the statements of the gentleman from Somerset are the lamentations of an ultra conservative at bay. The Senator from Somerset has for years sat in the halls of the Senate like an immovable rock of Gibraltar against any chance in the Constitution, regardless of whether public sentiment or the rule of the people at the polls indicated that it was their desire that some change should be made. These ancient land-marks that he talks about are land-marks that were surveyed and laid out and measured by people who are now dead, but who laid these land-marks out in all sincerity and honesty, being prompted and moved by the enviroment that they lived in and the conditions that at that time beset the society of which they were a part, but I feel sure that the founders of the Nation who did lay those cornerstones, in their sincerity and honesty never intended that what they were doing should govern the generations yet to come, if the system that they were then devising did not meet or would be inconsistent with the enviroment and conditions of these generations that were yet to come, and this amendment is not like the Senator from Somerset says it is, that it will require not only a majority of those elected to the Senate, but it requires a two-thirds majority of those elected to the Senate and it will permit more readily the people of this Commonwealth to amend their Constitution consistent with the enviroment and the conditions that we now have, no far different and inconsistent with the conditions that prevailed at the time that our ancestors wrote this provision in the Constitution.

I also wish to state this: this resolution bears my name but I want to reiterate a statement made by the Senator from Centre, when at the time he introduced certain bills in this Senate, he stated that the bills were not his own but they had the blessing of the Administration, and that is what I wish to state in regard to this bill, that it has my name, but it has the blessing of the administration and was handed to me to introduce, and I introduced it because it was consistent with my ideas of government, and because I too say that this principal, the principle involved in the resolution is an important one.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Fayette.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, Have I not often heard the Senator from Fayette say that he was against the piece-meal method of amending the Constitution?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I have made that statement repeatedly and I am still of that opinion and at this point, I may inform the Senator from Centre that I have probably entered into a one-man consipracy to this effect, but since I believe in a consititutional convention to revise the Constitution, and because of the opposition that we constantly have, I in my mind, have thought that the more resolutions we pass at this session proposing Constitutional amendments, the more it will have the effect of calling to the minds of the people the imperfection that we admit exists in the Constitution, and thereby urge them to create a public sentiment in favor of the constitutional convention. I say it is a one-man conspiracy.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette is mistaken if he thinks that I said that this amendment requires for a passage a mere majority of the Legislature. It does provide for two-thirds of the members. However, the amendments which are submitted to the people may pass by a mere majority, and those voting on the amendment, which may be only one-fifth or less of those who voted at the election. Now the statement that the Senator made here illustrates the point that I have tried to make, that the passage of this amendment will help the Executive branch of this Government dominate the Legislative branch of this Government. If the mere statement that this is an administrative measure will cause two-thirds of this Senate to vote for a majority, it is about time that we members should think for ourselves.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I just want to say that I do not believe that the provision making two-thirds instead of the majority will move in the direction of permitting the Executive branch to dominate over the Legislative. I think it will work the other way.

And the question recurring,

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, before the Senator from Fayette makes a real speech on this bill, I simply want to say that owing to the historic efforts of the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, Mr. David Lawrence and myself, the civil service features of this bill have been preserved and we all love civil service, and we will all vote for it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the remarks I am about to make about this bill, in making them I want the Senator from Pittsburgh, or Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, to appreciate that I am aware of the fact that he did not draw up the bills himself. Am I right, Senator?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette is dead right.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, then I also wish my colleagues to know that I am certain and positively certain as to who did write the bills, and who were interested in having the bills introduced and it is one of the most voracious grabbing, greedy, grafting instrumentalities we have in the State today, and I say that advisedly, and what I mean is really a greedy and voracious grasping for power, I am not referring to money. Yesterday, on the question of personal privilege I spread on the records of this Senate a pamphlet, or a piece of literature that was printed by the Liquor Control Board, it had their approval, was financed out of the finances of the public, the liquor fund, and disseminated money from the purchaser at the liquor stores of this Commonwealth, and in that piece of literature there is a label directed at all the judicial systems of our Commonwealth. Now that literature, approved by the liquor board, was an indictment of the Courts of this Commonwealth that they were protecting he liquor law violators of our Commonwealth, and that because the courts of this Commonwealth were so protecting law violators, the board was having difficulty in administering the liquor control laws, and as I stated yesterday, I can condone and I can grant a private citizen of this Commonwealth, or a private newspaper ,the Constitutional right of free speech and of the press because they pay for it, the public press pays for its privilege, they disseminate their ideas themselves in newspapers written by them and paid for by them, but I stated also that I was not going to sit still when an agency of our Government which was created by this Legislature. To use public funds to propangandize this State, with libelous literature against the courts of our Commonwealth, a major department of our Government, and I call upon the decency of every one of my Democratic colleagues, if they believe as I do, to say that an agency of the Government should not be permitted to use the public's money in order to stigmatize, to indict and to stultify a major department of our Government, the Judiciary Department, and the records will speak for themselves, and if you do not believe what I say, go to the liquor stores and make a purchase, and if you don't want to make a purchase ask them for a copy of their 'State Store News' and they will give it to you and you will find just what I stated in that State Store News. Now they are a grafting bunch, or a board, for power.

You read the provisions of this bill as originally introduced, that board would set itself up as a dictatorship in the administration of liquor laws, so grafting, so greedy, where they sought power that in their lust for it, they even inserted in this bill that any rule or regulation passed by them should have the force of an act of Assembly, and no sensible man who knows anything about law knows that under our form of Government this Legislature should not legislate and confer these legislative powers upon the liquor control board.

Now, gentlemen, we turn to Section 202, here of this bill, and I want to call your attention to page 15 of the bill, line 10. I just want the members of this Senate to turn to that because I want to point out something to them. When this bill was originally introduced, Section 202 read: "General Powers to make Regulations"—The board from time to time may make such regulations not inconsistent with this Act, as it may deem necessary for the efficient administration of this Act. The Board may from time to time make such regulations not inconsistent with," so and so—mark the words, those words were then striken out by the Senate Committee so that the Section then read "The Board may from time to time make such regulaions as it may deem necessary for the efficient administration of this Act. The Board shall cause such regulations to be published and disseminated throughout the Commonwealth in such manner as it may deem necessary and advisable." Originally the bill had these words: "Such regulations adopted by the Board shall have the same force as is found in part of this Act." Wisely did the Senate Committee strike out that provision as unconstitutional and it inserted this: "And shall be furnished to all licensees," and added this other section: "All such regulations shall be reasonable and inconsistent with this Act, and shall not be discriminatory," a very reasonable provision, that the other regulations were not to be inconsistent with this Act, and were not to be discreminatory.

Now, My friends, under somebody's pressure, the Committee of this Senate struck those words out so that this Section now reads as follows: "The Board may from time to time make such regulations not inconsistent with this Act as it may deem necessary for the efficient administration of the Act," and I say, irrespective of whatever those regulations are whether consistent or inconsistent with the Act, that the way that they have now sent this bill out, it gives that board the power to pass regulations that they deem necessary to enforce this Act, and if in their judgment without any restriction, they think that a licensee should not be permitted to drive an automobile while wearing a red hat, they can make that regulation, because there is no restriction upon them that they must make the regulation consistent with the Act, but it merely says that they can make any regulation that they may deem necessary for the efficient administration of the Act; nowhere does it say they may make regulations imposing penalties.

As originally drawn up this bill created a board which should function as the judge, jury and prosecutor of every licensee under that Act; and an amendment inserted, on this floor, does not do a thing,—after a subcommittee had worked two long weeks, night and day, to correct this bill, with a due regard to the public welfare,—for those who pay their licenses to this Commonwealth.

Another very glaring argument is this: On pages 9 and 10, under the "General Powers"—we who have been here for some years, and even those who have not been here, know that the other departments of our government, like the Highway Department and the Department of Education, when they spend money it must be with the approval of the fiscal officers of our Commonwealth elected by the people, the Auditor General or the Treasurer of this Commonwealth; but now, under the present system, and as it has been going on, they have a clean sheet, there is no check up on them; they gather in the money and then there is no check up on them; they can spend that money how they want, they can buy from whom they want, under any conditions they want to buy, and there is no check on them, nobody needs to approve their purchases. And that is a matter that demands our serious consideration.

On page 9 of this bill it reads: "Section 201. General Powers of the Board. Under this act the Board shall have the power, and its duty shall be, (a) To buy, import or have in its possession for sale, and sell, liquor and alcohol in the manner set forth in this Act." That is in the original, and we have added to that, "Provided, however, that all such purchases shall be made subject to the approval of the Auditor General or his designated deputy."

My friends, the Board objects to that check; and follows along with the same thought with regard to search and seizure, on page 12 of this Act, line 7 and down that section. The Board came in and asked this Senate to give their investigators and their enforcement officers the power to search and seize without a warrant except in private homes. That means this: That these enforcement officers would be able to do the same thing that enforcement officers did under the old prohibition law; that is, they would stop you and me on the public highway, when we were driving along in our automobiles; and, whether they had proper cause or not, they would stop us and search us, and if they found anything in our cars they would hold us and take away our cars; and the Supreme Court said that the finding of liquor was sufficient to justify the confiscation.

Now the Board says that you have that power because the decent citizen driving along the highways of our Commonwealth in his automobile, if he is an honest, decent citizen, ought not to object if the officers stop him and search his car. Now, that is a logical argument, but they have not advanced this argument when we ask the right to have the Auditor General check on their power to buy—that if the Board is honest, if that Board makes its purchases honestly, decently, and without any discrimination, they ought to be willing to submit their purchases to the supervision of the Auditor General, who is a capable man, and elected by the people of this Commonwealth.

Now, those are the most damnable features of this bill. This bill as it now stands shows a desire to conform with the ideas of the Liquor Board, whom I accuse on this floor of being prompted by the bootleg liquor interests in the proposal of this law. They have created in this bill a dictatorship in all these matters; and it is something we ought not to tolerate. This board ought to be like all other boards; they should not hesitate to submit to a checking on their conduct by the Auditor General or the Treasurer of this Commonwealth.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

The President. Will the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, this bill is a bill for regulating the manufacture, importation, sale and trafficking in alcoholic liquors?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Yes, Mr. President, it covers all of that. I can just answer in this way: This bill, if passed, will creat a dictatorship of all records and things used with them, and also will give the Board control of anything that smells like liquor. It goes beyond that.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Fayette think this bill is a good bill for regulating the importation and sale of liquor, and otherwise controlling liquor?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Fayette think that the conditions encountered are ideal in his district.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I beg the Senator's pardon; I did not hear that.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I asked the Senator from Fayette if they have regulatory measures to control liquor in Fayette County.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, we would better not be confused in regard to this. I believe in a law to control and regulate, but I do not believe in placing the control and regulation in the hands of a body that does not want to be subject to the judicial and legislative departments of our State.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, this liquor board has had the full force of the law behind it since it was first established. I understand, by the Drys in my district, also by those interested in enforcement, that these bills do control the liquor; and that is the reason why I shall support the bill.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, there is just another provision of this bill I want to call attention to, and that is on page 5 of the bill, lines 16, 17 and 18. Now, as originally drawn for the Board, the Board was asking the members of this Assembly to give them the power to control the clubs of our State; and in that definition of clubs are included clubs like the Elks, the Eagles, the Moose, and other clubs of that nature. The Board was asking , in their bill, that they should have the right to say that the clubs were to "maintain such records as the Board shall from time to time prescribe": that they were going to go into these clubs and tell the secretaries how they should take care of their minutes, what they should write in those minutes, what system of books they ought to keep, and nose all though the private affairs and the confidential affairs of those organizations; and the subcommittee thought there was no necessity for nosing into the private business of these legitimate clubs(that it was not right, and they struck that provision out and said the clubs were to keep proper records of their activities.

This Board came back into the Hall of this Senate yesterday and had this provision put back where they want it, and has it read "and maintain such records as the board shall from time to time prescribe." That puts the bill back to where it was formerly; so they can walk into these reputable clubs of Elks and Moose, and others, and tell the secretaries what kind of minutes to keep, what kind of books to keep; can look through their bank accounts, so how much booze they drink.

Now, if the members of this Senate want to give them that kind of power, of course they can do so.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I agree with much of what the Senator from Fayette has said. What he said about this bill as it originally came into this Chamber is correct; the sub-committee made a number of changes, after working for weks, but the full committee cut out some of the changes that the sub-committee had made.

However, on the question of the board making regulations, as the bill was originally written the board asked for the authority to make regulations and have them as of the same effect as law. As the bill appears before us now, it gives the board the right to make regulations consistent with the Act.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it does not say so.

Mr. McGINNIS. The bill has been liberalized, since it was first written, by giving the licensee the right of appeal; the right to have its case heard de novo.

The search and seizure section as originally written allowed the agents—investigators—to search, seize and confiscate liquor which they saw used improperly and illegally. The committee, in the bill before you, gives the right of search and seizure by these officers, on this authority, but does not give the right to confiscate.

We must realize that they is a great deal of complaint about the one-man clubs in this State, and about certain restaurants or "holes-in-the-wall" that we hear about; and there has been a great public demand that the board be given authority and power, consistent with the law, to curb these violations or curb this mismanagement or conduct of these places, so long as it is done within the law. And therefore it may seem that in some sections the board has asked for, and has been given, more power than they should have in a republic; yet I feel that we can, for the next two years, give these powers which have been cut down by the committee. While they may be, apparently, in certain cases, rather drastic and give more power to the board than that board should have, we must realize they are up against a tough proposition also.

It is felt, throughout the State, that unless the liquor business is managed better, or conducted better, by licensees, that we shall not have liquor very long in Pennsylvania or any other State; and therefore I feel, Mr. President, although there are some of the things I object to still existing in this bill, that on the whole it is an improvement over the old bill and should pass.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether or not in his opinion, this bill liberalizes or restricts the sale of liquor in Pennsylvania.

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, Mr. President, I do not know what the effect would be. I think it regulates it better.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, would the Senator from Allegheny call this a wet bill or a dry bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, neither.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, how would the Senator describe the bill,—what the purposes of the bill are?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the regulations are more strict; the provisions for conducting the man's business are more strict than under the old bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the Senator from Allegheny has any fear that the board—if this bill be passed—will become drunk with power.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, not in its present form.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny feel it is necessary to give this commission, or any other commission of our government, the powers given them under this bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, of course, Mr. President, in regard to liquor our Federal laws have always been very, very strict, giving the right to search, seize and confiscate a man's property. All our liquor laws, Federal and State, have always been very drastic along those lines; and perhaps necessarily so.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, as the sponsor of this bill, whom he considers was the motivating influence in having him present the bill,—whether the Liquor Board, whether it is the Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association, whether it is the State Administration or whoever it may be.

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, Mr. President, I am the sponsor of the bill, but I will say very frankly the beer interests, the distillers and the Board and our Administration have all divulged to me the liquor business in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am speaking of this bill,—who promulgated this bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, all of those forces or people I have just mentioned; and notably the drys—the drys were heard two or three times, and in many cases approved what this bill provides.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Allegheny once more whether he considers this bill a wet bill or a dry bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, neither.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, does this bill in any way affect the civil service provisions that were in the original Act?

Mr. McGINNIS. Yes, Mr. President, it does,—on page 24. Two years ago this Legislature enacted a civil service provision in connection with the bill at that time. We put every employe of the Liquor Board on civil service except the Board itself and, I think, perhaps attorneys and maybe one secretary. That bill has been in effect for two years. As this present bill came to the committee the committee amended it and provided that all heads of departments, chief clerks and secretaries should be exempt from that provision. As the bill is on your desk today it provides this;—it cuts that out,—those provisions, but provides this on page 24: "Any person appointed under the provisions of this Act may be removed by the personal action of the Governor whenever he deems the same to be to the best interest of the public service."

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny if he thinks that will make a political dictatorship.

Mr. McGINNIS. No, Mr. President. The Liquor Board in Pennsylvania conducts a business not unlike that of any mammoth department store or big business in Pennsylvania; it is a mammoth business. Most every civil service law I have ever read exempts heads of departments, chief clerks and secretaries from civil service. In other words, they are the employes that promulgate the policy or the management. To me, I think it was a mistake to put heads of departments, chief clerks and supervisors under civil service in any business—in this business especially.

Mr. GELDER. But, Mr. President, in correcting that evil have they not also made it so that they must get the lowest priced employe as an assistant?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I did not get that question.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, have they not made it so that they can discharge anybody, whether an executive or the lowest priced employe?

Mr. McGINNIS. Yes, Mr. President, under this Act the Governor cannot appoint but can dismiss. We had a situation a few weeks ago where the employes of the Liquor Board combined in some way and came down to Harrisburg and threatened to strike. It was a most unusual situation—something unheard of heretofore in Pennsylvania. But this is the first civil service law ever in the State of Pennsylvania; and the Governor was confronted with this situation: Here were two or three thousand employes that can stop, or have threatened to stop, work if their wages are not raised—or perhaps some other complaints. I know last Christmas time it was very commonly heard around Pittsburgh that the employes in the liquor stores were going to shut down, going to close, all the stores—just a few days before Christmas.

Now, I feel that while under this bill they are protected by civil service, and their work is performed under civil service rules, there ought to be some power somewhere, inasmuch as they are working for the government, and conducting a business for the government, that the government at least should have the power to say that these men, or any one of them, should quit the service.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny believe that the employes under this Act should have the same rights that other employes have under the Wagner Act .

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, Mr. President, of course that is rather—the Wagner Act does not apply to governmental employes.

Mr. GELDER. Or, Mr. President, the Labor Relations Act introduced by the Senator from Allegheny himself?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I should say that the Wagner Act or the Act I introduced does not apply to any governmental employe.

Mr. GELDER. Then, Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny agree with the impression of some members of the Senate, that the Civil Service provision put in by the Senate four years ago, when the Liquor Control Board was organized, has practically gone out of the window—by this Act?

Mr. McGINNIS. Oh, no, Mr. President. No, the first bill—there was a provision in it that all employes should be examined by the Department of Education. After that they were just exactly the same as every other employe in the State of Pennsylvania, and could have been fired the next day—without hearing or anything else. In other words, there was no Civil Service in the Pinchot Act, all they had to do was to get in, and then they were the same as any other department in this State.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, can the Senator inform us whether the Democratic State Committee approved this bill in its present form?

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, Mr. President, we do not ordinarily discuss committee happenings on the floor here.

Mr. GELDER. But, Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny will not deny that, I take it?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, will state his point of order.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, the Senator from Susquehanna is not discussing the merits of the bill.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I am trying to discuss some of the demerits of the bill; and also to find out whether or not this has the sanction of the Democratic State Committee.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator may proceed.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am not a member of the committee.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I think the question is very pertinent. On page 24, lines 3, 4 and 5, is subsection D, an amendment inserted by the Senate Committee, which reads: "Any person appointed under the provisions of this Act may be removed by the personal action of the Governor whenever he deems the same to the best interests of the public service."

In think the question is very pertinent to that paragraph; and I want to know why that is in.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, would it make any difference where that idea come from?

Mr. GELDER. Mr President, I think it would make a great difference in the vote of the Senate.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I think it was the consensus of all the members of that committee that that was a proper amendment.

Mr. GELDER. I want to say, Mr. President, that in my 16 years' experience in this body, if the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee was participating in the discussion it was the first time that I have ever known a State Chairman to be in that particular position. Of course, it may be he is just as effective outside the door—or outside the rail. Primarily, however, I am interested in the question of whether, under the provisions of this bill, the sale of liquor will be restricted or expanded. Can the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, inform us?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, it was not intended to promote or discourage the sale of liquor; its sole purpose is to regulate.

Mr. GELDER. To get it under control? Is there any provision in there by which you can get it under control just before election?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, not at all,—not that I can see.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have spoken once on this bill, and I want to tell the Senator from Susquehanna that it was through the efforts of Lawrence, Thompson and Woodward that we got civil service restrictions in this bill, and I would like to remind him that when they got it, they felt they were not satisfied; therefore, the Governor ought to fire them, and I am going to sustain the administration.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, it was the Republican majority that put civil service into the bill, and we are just interested to know whether or not the Administration is taking it out, and it certainly has opened the door so that they can do some shooting at the system notwithstanding the statement of the Senator from Philadelphia.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I am the Chairman of the Committee on State Boards. I have not had much experience in the liquor business, especially in the dissemination of liquor, and I do not intend to get a great deal of experience in that line as long as the water supply holds out.

I think I am giving away no secret of the committee, because it is not a secret that Chairman Lawrence sat in with the committee yesterday. There probably is a secret, however, that I asked him to judge. Not having a great deal of experience in liquor—while I am a lawyer, I have never been engaged in that kind of law practice. I was almost driven crazy by distillers coming here with their views, by brewers with their views, by consumers with their views, by drys with their views, by church people and so on. While I welcome, as Chairman of the Committee, the opinions and views of any person, I welcomed to the Committee Senators who were not on that Committee; I felt the need of assistance, and so I asked Chairman Lawrence to come in, to give what I thought might be the Administration's view on the question. And I want to say that neither the Chairman nor the church folks nor the distillers nor the brewers nor any other group got all they wanted; but I do think, from an examination of the former law and an examination of this bill, that I believe it is a great deal better liquor bill than the present liquor law. The buyer, I might add, did not get all they wanted either—we had to more or less give and take; so that, if there is any great disgrace or any great fault along that line to be attached to the fact that the State Chairman of the Democratic administration of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was consulted, you must lay that to me—I asked him.

And the question recurring,

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 488, (House Bill No. 99), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 930, entitled:

An Act to repeal the laws relating to the Lancaster County Prison and relating to the election of a board of inspectors to manage said prison

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President I move to

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO GO INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE FOR THE PURPOSE OF SPECIAL AMENDMENT

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment to this bill.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion

QUESTION OF LEGISLATIVE INQUIRY

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, will state his question of legislative inquiry.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, am I correct in that if this motion is adopted it automatically carries the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, may we have the amendment read before we vote on the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The special amendment will be read for the information of the Senate.

The special amendments were read as follows: amend Senate Bill No. 930 by adding "Section 2. Providing however and excepting that the provisions in said acts so far as they relate to the election of the prison inspectors shall not be repealed by this act"; Title so as to read: "An Act to repeal certain acts and parts of acts relating to the Lancaster County Prison".

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I just want to call attention to the fact that the adoption of these amendments by a favorable vote on the motion to go into Committee of the Whole will carry the bill; inasmuch as these amendments are not simply strike-out amendments, it will have the effect of killing the bill—preventing it from going to the House in time for the House to act upon it. Therefore, I would ask that the motion to go into Committee of the Whole be defeated.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I beg to differ with the Senator from Centre. I took this method of bringing this before the Senate so that I might have the opportunity to explain this bill and the affect of the amendments upon it, and have a roll call on the question.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering special amendments to this bill, which amendment has been read. The adoption of this motion carries with it the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill No. 930, has a title that reads as follows: "An Act to repeal the laws relating to the Lancaster County Prison, and relating to the election of a board of inspectors to manage said prison" it contains, among the many other Acts that relate to the management of the Lancaster County Prison—there are nine Acts and parts of Acts mentioned in this Act to be repealed, which include the repeal of the laws under which the prison inspectors of Lancaster County are elected.

Mr. President, we were at first at a loss to think how anyone outside of a county would have interest enough to go into that county and advertise and introduce into this Senate a bill to repeal the Acts under which we elected our Board of Prison Inspectors. And later we were lead to believe, I think, I suppose, that probably some may think that parts of these Acts might interfere or conflict with some of the provisions of the Acts that are going through this Legislature at this time for public assistance.

In conjunction with able attorneys of Lancaster, who have perfect familiarity with these Acts and other Acts under which this prison has been managed, I am assured that this amendment will save to Lancaster County the right to elect its own directors of the prison, and not interfere with any of the other provisions of the other Acts that are being proposed, that enter into the centralized assistance law.

And I might incidentally mention at this time that for eighty-seven years these prison inspectors have managed the affairs of the prison of Lancaster County, and during all that time it has been managed to the satisfaction of the people of the County. And I might further say that of the two prisons in the State of Pennsylvania that hold the highest rating, like the County above.

I hope that this Senate will not go so far as to destroy local self government, as to go to Lancaster County and repeal an Act under which we have for eighty-seven years—more than half of the life of this nation—elected and conducted our prison inspectors in a manner that gets from our State Department of Welfare the very highest rating that it is possible for it to give.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I do not profess to know a great deal about prison laws in the County of Lancaster; in fact, I know very little or nothing about it; but I do know this: I know that the people of Lancaster County believe in a representative form of government. They have elected this grand old man to the Senate of Pennsylvania for upwards of 30 years, and I call upon this Senate to stand by him and not to put through legislation which he does not advocate. We owe that to him. We owe that to the people of Lancaster County, as long as we believe in a representative form of governement. I have never known, in all my experience, of an attempt to go into another man's County and advocate laws ,or the repeal of laws, that were not advocated by the legally elected representatives of that County; and I ask the members of this State to stand by Senator Homsher, the dean of this Senate, in whatever he wants.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President. I think it is very unfair of the Senator from Bucks making the Senator from Lancaster Mr. Homsher. the issue on the vote on this bill. I think there is not a man in this Senate who does not entertain the very highest respect for the Senator from Lancaster County. However, a word of explanation with regard to this bill is in order.

This bill is a bill which has been advertised throughout Lancaster County, and, is according to the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of this State to repeal special acts relative to these prison boards, which special acts were passed by the Constitution of 1874* and the only thing that this action does is to bring the prison management an administration in Lancaster County up to the same basis that the present administration in other counties of the State at the present time declared.

Now, why the people of Lancaster, who have asked for this legislation for a quarter of a century, have not been able to get it before the Legislature of Pennsylvania, I cannot explain, because I am too new here; but the fact remains that there has been a large element, if not the larger element, in Lancaster County, which, for a quarter of a century, has been trying to get this proposed legistlation before the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and this is the first time they have succeeded; and I know of no one from Lancaster County who will take issue with me when I say that the two largest papers in Lancaster County are asking for this bill, and that there is a very considerable portion of the constituency of Lancaster County which favors this measure.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I merely want to add that the first we kne wof this bill was when someone from outside the County came and advertised it, and introduced it without any consultation with the membership of this body from the County; and I am assured by our own attorneys in Lancaster that this bill, if passed with these personal amendments, will save to the County the right to elect the managers of this prison, and will not in any way interfere with any of the other laws that are to be passed for centralized assistance at this session.

We highly resent anyone coming into Lancaster County and interfering with the conduct of our local affairs; and from what I have, in fact, heard members of the Senate speak of here, and from the fact that our prison holds letters showing that it stands as one of the two of highest rating among prisons in the State of Pennsylvania, I think that goes far to renounce the claim that there is such opposition in Lancaster County to the management of this prison as the Senator from Centre mentioned it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Homsher and Mr. Buckman and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—22.

Bean,	Heyburn	McGinnis,	Salus,
Buckman,	Homsher,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Howell,	Pierson,	Sones.
Deitrick,	Jacobs,	Rankin,	Wolfenden,

Dent.	Henney.	Pytko,	Sipe.
DiSilvestro.	Jaspan,	Rice,	Stiefel,
Eroe.	Kahle.	Rodgers.	Thompson.
Frey,	Kilgallen.

The PRESIDENT. On the question, the ayes are 22 and the nays are 22. The Chair votes "No" and the motion is not agreed to.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this being a motion for the Senate to resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, I understand it requires a majority of those present to sustain the motion; and a majority of those present not having voted, the Chair is not entitled to a vote. I have a deliberate reason for making that objection. I ask for a ruling on that point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senate has not resolved itself into Committee of the Whole.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is the reason I raised the point of order. The Senate did not by an affirmative vote of the majority of those present having resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, the Chair is not entitled to vote.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair disagrees with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, because, the Senate was voting not in Committee of the Whole. However, it is immaterial, as under the Constitution the Chair is obligated to break a tie vote whether there is a constitutional majority or not.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of this bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to postpone.

The PRESIDENT. Does the seconder agree to the withdrawal?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Barthold,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Rodgers,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	McGinnis,	Ruth,

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1088, entitled:

An Act to repeal Article XIX as amended, and section six of Article XXII of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I note that this Act apparently repeals an Act for the better government of cities of the first class, and I would ask the sponsor to explain what the bill does.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, will the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, please repeat his question? I did not quite hear the question, because of the noise in the back part of this Chamber.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, as sponsor of the bill, what the bill does.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, has the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, a copy of the bill there? I do not have one.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I do not either; that is the reason I am asking the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, to explain what the bill will do.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, a civil service bill was passed by the Senate a few days ago, and this simply sets an effective date for the civil service bill—simply meets the civil service act and fixes an effective date.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Jaspan, permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia has explained that this is an Act to fix an effective date for another Act; and it has a very short section, that is all there is to it; and it says (section 1) article 19 as amended, and section 6 of article 22 of the Act, and so forth, are hereby repealed. That is all it does, and does not fix any effective date.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a companion bill to a bill passed last week for civil service, which was prepared by several groups of citizens in Philadelphia to amend the Charter Act of 1919, relating to the government of the City of Philadelphia.

At the time when that bill was passed they did not provide for the repeal of the present civil service provision of the 1919 Charter Act. This bill takes care of that, and repeals the existing law when the other act goes into effect.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42

Barthold,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Rupp,
Bean,	Heyburn,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
Cavalcante,	Huffman,	Mundy,	Scarlett,
Deitrick,	Jacob,	Owlett,	Shapiro
Dent,	Jaspan,	Pierson,	Sipe,
Ealy,	Kahle,	Pytko,	Sones,
Erce,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,	Stiefel,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Reed,	Thompson,
Gelder	Lamms,	Rice,	Wolfenden,
Gilson,	Law,	Rodgers,	Woodward,
Haluska,	Mallery,

NAYS—3

Buckman,	Chapman,	Homsher,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1097, (House Bill No. 1462), entitled:

An Act providing for and extending the time during which taxes on seated lands for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and previous years shall be liens and during which the county treasurer shall have the right to sell the lands on which such taxes are liens for the payment of such taxes reviving such liens and restoring the treasurer's right to sell such lands in certain cases and saving the rights of intervening purchasers mortgagees lien holders and other encumbrance holders.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, this bill would establish a permanent lien on real estate for all unpaid taxes for the year 1934 and prior years without any procedure or notification to the present owners of real estate; it would be simply by making a return of such unpaid taxes to the County Commissioners; and I submit to the members of the Senate that it would be a very dangerous precedent to permit the creating of liens by making an exemption to the general lien Act, which requires that such liens can only be filed by notifying the present owners of the real estate and giving them notice of the filing of the lien, as well as filing it in the Prothonotary's office, where the judgment records are kept open for inspection of any prospective purchasers of real estate.

For that purpose I am asking unanimous consent to offer amendments, which would take out from this bill that clause permitting the county treasurer to sell the lands on which such taxes or liens, until such time as the expiration of such liens, and have it certified therein. And I appeal particularly to the members of the legal profession, that the establishing of a precedent by this bill would make it unsafe to buy any real estate. I ask unanimous consent to offer these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I object.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President. I move that House Bill No. 1462 (Senate Bill No. 1097) be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, this bill is sponsored by one of my colleagues in my county. I would like to ask the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp, whether he would be willing to pass the bill over in its order for half an hour, until I contact my colleague and get his thought on it.

The PRESIDENT. Is the motion withdrawn?

Mr .RUPP. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

The PRESIDENT. Does the seconder of the motion withdraw his seconding of it?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion to recommit and I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. RICE. I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 488, (House Bill No. 99) on third reading, on page 8 of today's Calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 488, (House Bill No. 99), entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation hereunder" by changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending clarifying and changing the provisions of said act

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

(1) One who is able to read and understand the time tables of the carrier by whom he is employed and read ordinary hand writing in the English language and who is able to speak hear and understand the English language and to see distinguish and understand the signals required by the book of rules of the carrier governing the operation of the locomotive and trains of such carrier When defective sight can be remedied by the use of glasses or other means such defective sight shall not thereby render an employe incompetent under this act

(2) As applied to an engineer one who in addition to being possessed of the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof shall have passed the regular examination prescribed by the carrier concerning rules and regulations governing the position of an engineer

(3) As applied to a conductor one who in addition to being possessed of the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof shall have passed the regular examination prescribed by the carrier concerning rules and regulations governing conductors

(4) As applied to a fireman a brakeman or a yard brakeman or helper one who in addition to being possessed of the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof shall have passed the regular examination prescribed by the carrier concerning rules and regulations governing fireman or brakeman or yardman or helpers

(5) As applied to a yard conductor or foreman one who in addition to being possessed of the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof shall have passed a regular examination prescribed by the carrier concerning rules and regulations governing yard conductors or foreman

(6) As applied to a baggageman one who in addition to being possessed of the qualifications prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof has before being so employed as a baggageman passed the regular examination prescribed by the carrier concerning rules and regulations governing the position of a baggageman

Section 2 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate or permit to be operated any passenger train in this Commonwealth consisting of less than five cars unless said train shall be manned by a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman on conductor and one brakeman When any passenger train consists of five cars or more any one or more of which carries passengers or consisting of ten or more cars none of which is carrying passengers such passenger train shall be manned by one additional brakeman When baggage is received cared for handled and transported on any such train at least one baggageman shall be added to the members of the crew above described in this section Except a single motor unit carrying passengers shall be manned by not less than three men

Section 3 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate or permit to be operated in the State of Pennsylvania any freight train consisting of less than fifty cars without a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman one conductor and two brakemen

Section 4 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate or permit to be operated any freight train consisting of fifty cars or more without a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman one conductor and three brakemen

Section 5 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate or permit to be operated any local freight train doing any switching or unloading of any freight of any nature whatever without a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman one conductor and three brakemen

Section 6 All other trains not specifically referred to hereinbefore shall be manned by a crew of not less than one engineer one fireman on conductor and two brakemen

Section 7 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to use operate or permit any locomotive to be used or operated in any railroad yard or on any railroad track to handle or switch cars or to transfer cars from one railroad to another or from one railroad yard to another railroad yard unless each and every such locomotive while handling or switching cars shall be manned by a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman one yard conductor or fireman and two yard brakemen or helpers When any such locomotive is so used or operated over or upon a highway or street within the corporate limits of a municipality such locomotive shall be manned by one additional yard brakeman or helper No such employe shall be detailed to more than one locomotive at the same time or be assigned to any other service unless his place be filled by another competent employe or the locomotive laid up while short-handed except that in case of the sudden disability of a member of such crew through sickness accident or death the carrier shall have three hours to replace such member during which time such locomotive may be operated short-handed

Section 8 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate or permit to be operated on its main track any single locomotive unless said locomotive is manned by a full crew of competent employes which crew shall consist of not less than one engineer one fireman one conductor or brakeman Provided however That where two or more locomotives are operated under their own power on any main track and coupled together there shall be provided a crew of one engineer and one fireman for each locomotive and in addition thereto one conductor or brakeman

Section 9 It shall be unlawful for any carrier to operate as a locomotive or permit to be operated as a locomotive on its main track any self propelled crane pile driver brown hoist or other self propelled engine or machine not used for the transportation of passengers or freight or property for hire which has sufficient power to draw or propel itself and one or more standard railroad cars unless such engine or machine shall be manned by a full crew of competent employes consisting of not less than one engineer one conductor and one brakeman

Section 10 In the case of the disability of a member of a full crew between terminals the carrier shall have the right to operate the locomotive or train short-handed until such locomotive or train arrives at the next terminal or other intermediate place on the line where men of the same class as the person disabled are available when such carrier shall fill the vacancy on such crew This act shall not apply to relief or wrecking trains where sufficient men are not available

Section 11 Any railroad company its officers or agents officers of the court receiver or any person or persons operating a railroad violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each and every such violation to be recovered with costs as debts are now by law recoverable by a suit in the name of the Commonwealth for the use of the county in which such violation takes place Provided however That nothing in this act shall apply or relate to trains owned or operated by manufacturers made up of hot metal ladles ingots slag or table trucks

Section 12 It shall be the duty of the Public Utility Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any other agency empowered to enforce the law to execute and enforce the provisions of this act and for such purposes shall have all the powers granted to it under the laws of this Commonwealth

Section 13 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

Section 14 The provisions of this act shall not apply to any railroad of fifty miles or less in length or any railroad in the hands of a Receiver or in process of reorganization under any Federal Law or to any railroad operating without profit at prevailing scales of wages or unable to pay dividends upon its common stock

Section 14 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 15 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, this bill, as we all know, is what is called the Full Crew Bill, and is on the calendar without the amendments I submitted the other night. I think the members of this Senate should decide this measure first from the standpoint of a labor-creating device; and if they decide that it is a labor-creating device, then, in my opinion, this bill should be passed without any amendments as it stands on the calendar this evening—without any regard to its affect upon the railroads and without any regard to the length of the system or the particular necessity for the measure.

If, on the other hand, we should decide that this is a good bill, and a bill that should be passed from the standpoint of a safety measure, then, of course, we look at it in an entirely different light as it stands on our calendar this evening.

Frankly, I am for a Full Crew Bill if it is necessary for the safety of transportation of people and merchandise over our railroad system. I do not believe anybody in this Chamber would admit any argument as far as that is concerned. But I submit to the members of this body that it is entirely unnecessary for us to pass two Full Crew Bills; and I point out to you, as I did the other night, that we are called upon tonight to pass a Full Crew Bill setting forth certain mesaures, certain provisions which are fixed by this proposed Act, and then we will be called upon before the end of this session to pass House Bill No. 851, which, in Section 419, also provides Full Crew Bill.

Now, looking at it from more or less of a labor standpoint, let me just say this:—that I received, and I presume all the other members of the Senate received, a copy of the message signed by John Phillips, president, and Lester Thomas, secretary, of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. They set forth a labor program that is incomplete, and they address themselves to the members of the General Assembly, saying, "The following is a list of the bills before the General Assembly which have the endorsement of the Federation of Labor and which should be passed before the end of this session." But on that list of provisions no mention is made of the Full Crew Bill, and I do not believe that the Federation of Labor of Pennsylvania would have omitted the Full Crew Bill unless they were convinced that it was absolutely necessary as a labor-creating device; and it seems to me that all the arguments of the proponents of this bill, as far as I have heard,—all their arguments have been based solely upon the safety elements of this measure, and, indeed, the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania has made the same statement, and asked that the General Assembly pass the Full Crew Bill solely upon the ground that it is a safety measure.

Going back to the difference between the Full Crew Bill now on the calendar and the one as set forth in Section 419 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act, let me say this—let me ask why it is necessary at all to pass this bill if we are going to pass Secton 419 of House Bill No. 851, in which it is stated that as to full crews, after reasonable notice, and hearing had before the Utility Commission, upon its own motion or upon complaint, the Commission may by order require any common carrier to employ such number of men upon any of its facilities as in the judgment of the Commission is requisite for the safe and efficient operation of such facilities.

The Democratic majority of this Senate, a short time ago, established a Utility Commission. If we have any confidence at all in the Commission which we ourselves established, certainly we should have sufficient confidence to place in that body the power to administer a good Full Crew Bill; and not, after having established the Commission, say, "Now, we put you in office but we will not permit you to use your own judgment; we, as legislators, are going to tell you what your judgment must be in all cases, whether the circumstances demand any other measure or not this is the one that you must accept."

Now beforehand I am going to ask for unanimous consent—or I will withdraw that—I am going to offer two very short and simple amendments which, before I offer them, I will read, so that everybody may be convinced that there is no joker but that I am offering this in all sincerity, with the sole purpose of improving the railroad bill; and, let me add, I am told that these amendments have the approval of the brotherhoods.

The first amendment creates an exemption to any railroad whose entire line does not exceed twenty-five miles in length.

The second amendment is that instead of this Act becoming effective immediately it will take affect on the first day of September 1937.

If we are going to pass a Full Crew Bill, and suddenly make the railroads employ anywhere from five hundred to a thousand men to comprise these crews, we cannot expect them to go out in the highways and byways and pick up anybody and everybody from the street and put them on as members of the crew. I think everybody will agree that is a very reasonable provision—that this bill, instead of becoming affective immediately—that the railroads will have an opportunity to fill the number of their crews by September 1937.

I offer these amendments in line with my argument that if we should pass this Full Crew Bill now, under the terms of this provision we are exempting the railroads of twenty-five miles in length, which roads will be regulated by Section 419—the Full Crew provision—of House Bill No. 851.

In other words, while we are exempting them, the short railroads, from this bill, we are not exempting them from the provisions as set forth in House Bill No. 851, which permits the Public Utility Commission to govern the question of full crews on railroads of twenty-five miles or less.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SENATE BILL No. 764 (HOUSE BILL No. 76)

Mr. PRESIDENT, in view of the statements that I have made, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed second reading.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I am heartily in accord with the amendments suggested by the Senator from Lehigh, but the amendments do not quite take care of the problems that I have to consider in part of my district. In Huntingdon County, we have two railroads, one is a narrow gauge, fifty-three miles in length, the other has a mileage of some twenty-five or twenty-six miles. The major business of these railroads is the hauling of coal from the coal mines located in the western part of Huntingdon County and the eastern part of Bedford County to the Pennsylvania Railroad where it is transported to the port of Philadelphia and other points in Pennsylvania. I am informed that if the Full Crew Bill passes in its present form it will undoubtedly seriously hamper, if not put these roads out of existence. If the bill should put these roads out of existence, that in turn would seriously interfere with the operation of the mines in Huntingdon and Bedford Counties and would thus affect the miners in that district. I do not believe that any member of the Legislature realizing the dire need, as my colleague from Clarion County well stated from the floor a day or two ago, we who are concerned in enacting legislation to better conditions, will intentionally do anything to cause anyone the loss of employment. I believe that every member of this Senate is concerned in devising ways and means whereby the good people of this Commonwealth, the laboring people, may earn an honest livelihood. I do not believe that we want to do anything that will be a handicap to our people in working for their money instead of having it given to them by way of relief. The people in my district and throughout the State do not want relief if they can obtain employment. Therefore, in all earnestness I do urge that we do nothing during this Session of the Legislature that may probably cause people who now have employment to lose their jobs. Of course, I do not know of a certainty what effect this legislation will have on the mining companies and the railroads if this bill passes but I am advised by those who should know, that it cannot help but seriously and adversely affect these small railroads and thus too affect the mining industry and those who work in and about the mines. I am in favor of the amendments but as I have stated, I do not believe the amendments go far enough. I would, therefore, ask the Senate to agree that action on the amendments be temporarily deferred in order that further amendments temporarily deferred in order that further amendments may be offered to exclude from the operation of the bill what can be reasonably termed small railroad or railroads.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, we are only going to be here temporarily.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I know that and only ask for a short postponement. I do not mean a day or two, simply time enough to prepare proper amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, we want to get rid of it some how or other.

The PRESIDENT. May the Chair call the attention of the Senator to Rule 18. The Chair understands the general purpose of this Act is safety. Rule 18 provides that no amendment shall be received by the President which destroys the general sence of the original section. This does destroy safety on the small railroads.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I ask for immediate consideration of this measure. I want to say that the Senator from Allegheny has on several occasions taken all my thunder for being in opposition to this bill; and there are two primary reasons; for on, I believe a bill such as this deprives management of industry of what rightfully belongs to management; and it will be disastrous, I feel in the future, if we deprive our industries of what rightfully is theirs.

Secondly, I beleve we have created the official body to which the railroad men can apply—and receive, probably much more consideration in the future than this Legislature is privileged to give them at this time.

I ask for immediate consideration of this bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, since the matter of safety is brought up, I want to state that I do not believe that I want to yield to any member of the Legislature in the consideration and thought that I have given to the matter of safety. I want to express my approciation to all members of the Senate at this time for their splendid cooperation and support of the bill I introduce creating a safety Commission. Every member of this body approved of that effort towards safety so I think I can fairly say that I am concerned about the safety of the men who work on the railroads. I also feel that I am qualified to speak on this measure because I come from Altoona where I presume there are as many railroaders residing as in any other community in the State, nothwithstanding the fact that there are other cities that have a much larger population. Many of these men, hundreds of them, I know personally. Many of them are my friends and neighbors. I care not about their politics, whether they are Democrats or Republicans, but I am interested in their work and I am interested in the safety of those men. I never rode on any railroad that I did not pay for riding. I have never been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad or of any of the roads in my district. I am not saying that out of a desire to be sarcastic or on account of anything that has been said as to the influence of lobbyists. I am inclined to believe that every member of this Senate is above being wrongly influenced, that they are here, just as I, to enact laws that are fair and just to everyone.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I want to make this statement in repudiation of a statement which appeared in a paper to which I subscribe, "We the People". In an issue of "We the People" there was cast an aspersion upon me which at this time I feel I should refute: In that paper it was stated—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, will state his point of order.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, is not talking on the question.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, in that paper, "We the People" it was stated I am an undercover attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad. The fact is I am not and never was. I just simply wanted to correct that error in That paper, it being unfair to me.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I second the motion of the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is that we reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 764 (House Bill No. 76) passed second reading.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, inasmuch as the Chair has ruled.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has not ruled on anything, but has called the attention of the Senate to the Chair's opinion of the amendments, which, the Chair thinks, destroy the original intent of the bill.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, it is my error.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON, and Mr. RUPP.

and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20.

Bean,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Salus,
Buckman,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Sones,
Deitrick,	Howell,	Rodgers,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,	Kahle,	Rupp,	Woodward,

NAYS—28.

Barthold,	Haluska,	Lanius,	Reed,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	Law,	Rice,
Dando,	Huffman,	McCreesh,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jacobs,	McGinnis,	Shapiro,
Eroe,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Pytko,	Stiefel,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Rankin,	Thompson,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as has been stated by the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp, this bill is a safety measure and its sponsorfs so certified. As a matter of fact, the only basis upon which a bill such as this could be sustained by the courts is that it is a safety measure. During the period from 1926 to 1935, inclusive, the Class I railroads of the United States have spent a total of $623,000,000, in maintaining, operating and improving their signal systems for the safety of passengers, employes and traffic while moving on railroads. These expenditures varied from a low of over $30,000,000. in 1933, when the depression reached it greatest depth, to a high of over $91,000,000. in 1927. The expenditures for these purposes in 1935 were $39,000,000., and the average for the period works out to over $62,000,000. per annum.

During the period 1926 to 1935, inclusive, the Class I Railroads of Pennsylvania spent a total of $258,000,000 in maintaining, operating and improving their signal systems for the safety of passengers, employes and traffic while moving on the railroads. These expenditures varied from a low of $13,000,000. in 1933, when the depression reached its greatest depth, to a high of $37,000,000. in 1930. The expenditures for these purposes in 1935 were $14,000,000., and the average for the period amounted to over $26,000,000. per annum.

Now, Mr. President, I take it that no one will deny that if there is any occasion, any place, for this Full Crew Bill, which I do not believe, in face of the provisions of the Utility Act (House Bill No. 851), there certainly is no need for this measure as to that part of the lines covered by the block system, for which the railroads have spent, as I say, in the last nine years an average of $26,000,000. a year in Pennsylvania.

Now, I want to make it clear, Mr. President, that I propose to vote against this bill regardless of what amendments are adopted therein; and I do that, not because I am not interested in safety but because I believe there is no good reason for this bill, I believe that the safety provisions of the Utility Regulatory Act amply provide for it; I believe it is not labor legislation; it does not have the support of the great majority of railroad employes, because it is class legislation; it deals with groups which compose only ten or fifteen per cent of railroad employes in the State; it benefits no one who is now in regular railroad service, not even the men in the train-and engine-service groups; it will replace men now employed on railroads with men who are not now in railroad employment.

The bill, if made law, would cost the railroads ten millions. The railroads have furnished complete, detailed proof of this that would be convincing to any fair-minded, impartial body. The two and one-half millions claimed by the proponents is a mere statement for which no proof has been offered.

At present freight rates 57 per cent of the railroads of the State would have operated at a loss in 1936.

From some place must come the ten millions if this bill is passed. The majority of the railroads have not got it.

There are only two ways of securing it:

1 By increasing rates (and it is not certain that this could be accomplished as higher rates would divert traffic);

2 Decrease in operating costs by both—

(a) Decreased use of materials

(b) By reduction in the pay-rolls.

The additional trainmen forced in by this bill are in the highest paid group, and to meet that expense would mean a reduction of greater number in the lower paid maintenance groups.

How to keep the railroads solvent is a problem of national concern. It ought to be of equal concern to the government of this State.

Impoverished railroads, that cannot purchase needed materials or finance needed improvements, will work injury to industries of the State and its citizens, of whom many are railroad employes or depend on railroad purchases for employment.

Only a compelling and sound reason could justify any group of men in harming the majority to help a small minority. The fact that a small minority is highly organized and threatens reprisals is not a sound reason for this legislation.

The only justification for this legislation is that it is necessary to save life, and this it will not do.

The bill was introduced as "An Act to Promote the Safety of Employes and Travelers upon Railroads.

Its justification rests on the assumption that the number of men specified is necessary to insure the safety of railroad operation. No attempt has been made to prove that this assumption is a fact.

There has been a lot of oratory designed to leave the impression that the provisions of this bill would promote safety, but not in a single instance was any evidence offered that additional members on a crew would have prevented or lessened the effect of an accident.

Railroad accidents are thoroughly investigated and the causes are carefully analyzed and tabulated by the railroads, by the Safety Section of the Interstate Commerce Commission and by the Public Service Commission of the State of Pennsylvania. In none of these tabulations do there appear and cause for accidents attributable to an insufficient number of men on the cerw; although the analysis of the Interstate Commerce Commission is so complete that it covers almost every conceivable cause.

A successful drive to decrease the hazard of accidents to employes has been under way for a number of years, but at no time during this period have the men come forward, either to the railroads or to the Safety Section of the Interstate Commerce Commission or to the Public Service Commission of this State, with the claim or assertion that the lack of additional men on crews was a potential hazard to the safety of train operation,. Could this be because they know that it is not a fact, and that such a claim could not be supported by any investigation by men familiar with railroad operation?

Railroad operation is intricate and cannot be intelligently governed by arbitrary legislation. "Full Crew" laws are cumbersome and awkward and a foolishly expensive way to accomplish something which a commission can do much better.

The railroads are positive that the trains and locomotives in the State are adequately manned, both from the standpoint of safety and efficiency. They might be wrong with respect to some particular operation or in some particular place. If such situation exists, the wrong way to correct them is by arbitrary legislation the right way to correct them is through an agreement between management and employes.

These two groups have settled much bigger questions than this. As a matter of fact, one of the provisions of this bill has just been settled nationally by an agreement between these groups. The application of power reverse gears to locomotives, the construction of cabins on the rear of tenders for the front brakemen, the protection of employes deprived of employment through consolidation of facilities of two or more railroads, and the matter of pensions to railroad employes, to which railroads and employes both contribute, are outstanding examples of handling controversial questions without resorting to legislation. This program has been followed out at the suggestion and with the full support of the President of the United States, who has expressed himself in no uncertain terms about the fallacy of arbitrary legislation as a substitute for intelligent agreement.

Beyond all this, there should be a place where any employe or group of employes may go to protect their interests if they cannot reach a satisfactory agreement with the railroads. This should be the Public Utility Commission of the State, who can furnish all of the protection which any reasonable person could desire.

So I say, again, I do not believe there is any occasion for passing this bill; but if it is going to pass, certainly Mr. President, as to that part of the railroad lines which are protected by block signal systems, installed at a cost of $26,000,000, a year over the last nine years, this Act should not apply.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER THE VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 764.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 764 (House Bill No. 76) passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. BUCKMAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—19

Bean,	Gelder,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Buckman,	Heyburn,	Pierson,	Sones,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Rodgers,	Wolfenden,
Deitrick,	Howell,	Rupp,	Woodward,
Ealy,	Mallery,	Salus,

Barthold,	Henney,	Lanius,	Reed,
Cavalcante,	Huffman,	Law,	Rice,
Dando,	Jacobs,	McCreesh,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Shapiro,
Eroe,	Kahle,	Mundy,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Pytko,	Stiefel,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Rankin,	Thompson,
Haluska,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I have always been for a full crew; I was for this bill in committee every time it was up; I voted to bring this bill out on the floor every time it was before our committee on vote to bring it out. I have been approached by railroad men for the last several weeks—brotherhood leader—and every single one of them, except one tonight, either advocated, or said they were perfectly satisfied with a twenty-five or fifty mile exemption.

Every State in this Union has an exemption of twenty-five to fifty miles except Arkansas; and so, last week when this question came up for an exemption, in view of the fact that not a single railroad brotherhood leader asked me to vote for this bill without an exemption, I felt that if they were satisfied, the brotherhoods themselves, to have a Full Crew Bill here with an exemption, I was doing the right thing by voting for an exemption of fifty miles, the same as New York passed a bill during the last week raising the exemption from twenty-five to fifty miles.

We have plenty of time to consider or reconsider, and during all these weeks the first man, of the brotherhoods, that spoke to me and said that he was not satisfied with any exemption was our grand old man out here Mr. Rowan. He was the first man of all the brotherhood leaders that ever questioned any bill here with an exemption. Some were satisfied with fifty miles, some were satisfied with thirty-five miles, some were satisfied with twenty-five miles; and not a single one of these brotherhoods that I talked to but what were willing, or, at least, advocated an exemption; but tonight, speaking to this grand old man out here right now, he tells me that he does not want any exemption.

There are some roads in this State, that are represented by Senators here, that only carry one car—according to the statements in the committee—a train that runs with one car.

There are other railroads in this State, especially is the northern part of this State, that used to be lumber roads, and made lots of money, that today are not making anything—and, in fact, the people along the road have to contribute in order to keep it going, to serve a little factory or something of the kind; and I felt that it was perfectly proper and fair to these little roads, where they could not—a fifty mile road or twenty-five mile road certainly never hauled more than twenty-five cars; and the arguments we heard in committee were that these long trains now require large crews; and so, I felt last week, to exempt roads that fourteen other States exempt is a fair thing. And that is what the brotherhoods asked—until tonight.

I am also advised that when this bill was in affect in Pennsylvania before, while there was no exemption yet they did not bother, or did not enforce the law on the little roads. And I am advised that that will not be done again; and in view of the opinion of Mr. Rowan, that the reason he objects to the exemption is that he is afraid it will affect the constitutionality of the Act—he does not believe it is wrong to have an exemption; at least, he did not say so; but he objects to putting in anything any exemption or anything that will jeopardize its constitutionality; and at this stage of the game, at this stage of the session, I am not for any further delay. We have the Utility Bill that, while it has not passed finally, does have provisions that provide for the safety of railroads, and adequate crews; and therefore I am going to vote for this bill as it stands.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I have listened for quite some time to a discussion of this Full Crew Bill. I think that there was a reasonable solution of this whole matter. I have come to the conclusion, however, that it is utterly false when you know in advance that you cannot get accord, or a meeting of the minds, and that there is a predetermination that a certain event shall transpire—that it is utter folly to try to get a consummation of something that cannot be done, and will only create a lot of hard feelings. And I believe that none of us is absolutely satisfied with what is going to transpire, but I say this: we would not be satisfied with anything else that would transpire; and, in view of the fact that we are at an impasse, I feel, as Senator McGinnis has stated, that we ought to move on and move on rapidly—for I, for one, would like to spend Decoration Day some place else than in Harrisburg.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and member of the Senate, we have come at last, tonight, to two questions that I, as Chairman of the Committee on Labor and Industry, have tried to give every bit of study and every ounce of intelligence that the good Lord granted me.

During the past three or four weeks there have been numerous things said, and, at times, I suppose, certain faults were attributed to me, and I may have been blamed for certain things that happened; however, tonight we passed the Workmen's Compensation Act in a form that the committee thought was the proper form for such a bill to be in at this Session.

Now we come to another important piece of labor legislation. I say to the members of this Senate, and to all others who care to listen, that the Committee on Labor and Industry, in the Senate of Pennsylvania, has tried to give this question, and other questions, a careful, conscientious study, and tried to make decisions in line with that study.

We took up this bill in committee on numerous occasions. Some men have been brought into the argument who are not at present in the official family, administrative or legislative, on the hill. I stand here to say that what that committee did, how it acted, how it performed, was a matter of the committee's own judgment; and any credit, any blame, that may be attached to the action of that committee must, of necessity, be attached properly to every member of the committee. and, probably, more so to me. We will probably be out of here this week, and I want to think that the recommendation of the Senate.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I believe that this bill, more than any other bill that has come before this Senate, if passed, will most vitally affect my constituents. It may be that I am disclosing a secret when I state that for quite some time it has been my desire to become a Member of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I have felt that no greater honor could be paid a citizen of this State by his fellow citizens than to be elected a member of this body. When I reached that conclusion it no doubt was because of the fact that I considered that the Senate was a truly deliberative body, that it was as the name Senator implies, a body of Seniors, composed of men not given to act hastily or inconsiderately, that the members of this body were people who would listen and consider and decide according to what is right and sound. This may appear like a valedictory oration but it is my conception as to the manner in which such matters of vital importance as the bill before us should be considered. I have confidence and respect for every member of this body. I believe, at least I hope, that I have made a friend of every member of this body. I consider you all my friends. I trust you will, therefore, believe I am sincere and that I am really apprehensive as to the effect that the passage of this bill will have upon my constituents. I know what it is to labor. Everything that I have accomplished has in the main come through my own efforts and there is every reason why I should be interested in labor and see that labor gets a square deal.

I do not want to take up too much time of this Session, but I want to reiterate that I have no personal concern in the matter other than the welfare of my constituents. To that end and I want to state again that I have never been in the employ of any railroad, that I do not own stock in the Pennsylvania Railroad and never did, and I never rode a mile without having paid the fare, yet, during the winter months when I was called to Harrisburg and wanted to be certain of being delivered here safely, I chose to ride on the railroad, as most every one else in the Senate did, because I believed that I would be delivered here safely. Now just a few months ago, when I was at the station at Altoona waiting for the train to deliver me here at Harrisburg—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre will state his point of order.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, my point of order is that the Senator from Blair is not talking upon the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands he is delivering his farewell address. The point of order is well taken. The Senator will confine himself to the bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I hope the Senate will indulge me in a few more remarks. A couple months ago I was at the station to take a train down here and was accosted by a stranger who inquired about the shops which he stated stretched for miles along the railroad. I told him: "They are the Pennsylvania Railroad Shops", and he replied: "You ought to be proud of those shops". The fact is, Mr. President, we in Altoona are proud of those shops. Every member in this Senate and everybody in Pennsylvania should be proud of the fact that we have the finest and best railroad shops in the world. We have in Altoona the largest railroad shops in the world. They do not have shops like them in Germany and they do not have shops to compare with them in any other country. They come to Altoona from all parts of the world to learn how to operate railroads and to build locomotives. The shopmen of Altoona are opposed to this bill and there are thousands of them. While there are a number of lobbyists here for the bill, they do not represent the majority of the people back home. I have many friends among the railroaders as well as among the shopmen and while you may think that this is a farewell address, it is not intended so. I am opposed to this bill because the great majority of the people in Altoona and in my district are opposed to it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Barthold,	Haluska,	Kunkel,	Rice,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	Law,	Ruth,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE.

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at to-day's session.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call on this motion to suspend the rules for immediate confirmation. The rules of the Senate provide that a report from Committee on Executive Nominations must lie over one day.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, raises the question that this motion requires a two-third vote. On the question, the roll will be called and the Clerk will proceed. This motion requires two-thirds of those present, not of those elected.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Buckman and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—34

Barthold,	Henney,	Law,	Rodgers,
Cavalcante,	Heyburn,	McCreesh,	Rupp,
Dando,	Huffman,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jacobs,	Mundy,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Pytko,	Sipe,
Eroe,	Kahle,	Rankin,	Sones,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Reed,	Stiefel,
Gilson,	Kunkel,	Rice,	Thompson,
Haluska,	Lanius,

NAYS—13

Bean,	Ealy,	Owlett,	Scarlett,
Buckman,	Gelder,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Salus,	Woodward,
Deitrick,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. RICE.

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—48

Barthold,	Gelder,	Lanius,	Rodgers,
Bean,	Gilson,	Law,	Rupp,
Buckman,	Haluska,	Mallery,	Ruth,
Cavalcante,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Salus,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	McGinnis,	Scarlett,
Dando,	Homsher,	Mundy,	Shapiro,
Deitrick,	Huffman,	Owlett,	Sipe,
Dent,	Jacobs,	Pierson,	Sones,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Pytko,	Stiefel,
Ealy,	Kahle,	Rankin,	Thompson,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,	Reed,	Wolfenden,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Rice,	Woodward,

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1097. (House Bill No. 1462).

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1097 (House Bill No. 1462), entitled:

An Act providing for and extending the time during which taxes on seated lands for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and previous years shall be liens and during which the county treasurer shall have the right to sell the lands on which such taxes are liens for the payment of such taxes reviving such liens for the payment of such taxes reviving such liens and restoring the treasurer's right to sell such lands in certain cases and saving the rights of intervening purchasers mortgagees lien holders and other encumbrance holders

And said bill having been read at length the third time, on the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 2, lines 7, 8 and 9, after the word "act", by striking out the following [and the county treasurer may sell the lands on which such taxes are liens at any time until the expiration of said lien] and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: "provided that any such lien be filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county within one year after the effective date of this act and thereafter the revival preservation and enforcement of said lien shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of the Act of May 16, 1923, P. L. 207"; also amend Section 2, page 3, lines 1, 2 and 3, by striking out these lines, as follows: [and the county treasurer may sell the lands on which such taxes are liens at any time until the expiration of said lien] and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: "provided that any such lien be filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county within one year after the effective date of this act and thereafter the revival preservation and enforcement of said lien shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of the Act of May 16, 1923, P. L. 207".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered that the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1267, (House Bill No. 1282), entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 46), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining the licensing of Osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," by changing the preliminary educational requirements for licenses to practice osteopathy and operative surgery; further defining osteopathy; providing for issuing licenses to perform operative surgery to licensees of other states; requiring annual renewals of osteopathic surgeon's licenses; fixing fees; extending the functions and authority of osteopathic physicians and surgeons; and prescribing additional penal provisions.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, who is Chairman of the Committee on Public Health.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Clarion to explain this bill and tell us whether or not it is satisfactory to the medical profession of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, this bill is known as the Osteopath's Bill. This bill was in my committee, considered and reported out, and, so far as I am concerned, and I believe I speak for the medical profession—this bill is a standard-raiser. The osteopaths are asking for one more year of pre-college work. They are also asking for one more year of surgery. They have raised their requirements so far as registration fees and so forth are concerned. Otherwise, I cannot see anything that needs explanation, and I would say, "Vote as you please."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not believe the Senator has answered my question—whether this bill has the endorsement of the medical profession of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I would not say it has the endorsement of the medical profession of the State of Pennsylvania, no; but I am giving you my consensus of opinion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I ask if it has the endorsement of the medical profession of the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, there is some difference; and, as I say, I am giving you my opinion. The profession here—I know there are certain doctors in the Senate that are agreeable to what I am saying. There may be some that are not agreeable, and they can answer for themselves.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, do I understand the Senator to say that if we who are not physicians were to vote for this bill we would not be offending the medical profession of the Commonwealth?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I do not think they would be offending the medical profession of the Commonwealth.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, does this bill in any way change the composition of the board before whom the osteopaths are examined?

Mr. KAHLE. No, Mr. President, it does not.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, does this do anything except raise the standards in accordance with the requests of the osteopaths?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, that is all the bill does, so far as I can see,—insofar as my judgment is concerned.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, does it affect the standing of any osteopathic hospital or any osteopath now licensed?

Mr. KAHLE. No, Mr. President, it does not.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I would like the Senator to inform the Senate why the osteopaths have to come to the Legislature to ask that their standards be raised. Why can they not raise their own standards without the assistance of law?

Mr. KAHLE. Well, Mr. President, the medical profession have a certain standard set up by law. The osteopaths also have a board set up by law, but the standard of the board—of their requirements—as it is now does not come up to the standard of the medical profession; and they have come to the place where they realize that they should be up to a par or near a par with the medical profession, and they, of their own free will, have come here and asked for this.

Now, there was another bill, osteopathic bill, introduced in the Senate whereby there was a certain group of osteopaths asking to have a bill passed where they were weak, where they lacked in qualifications; but that bill, after due consideration by the committee, was not reported out.

This bill, as I told you, is a standard-raiser; it merely brings the standard of pre-college work up to two years in place of one as it now is. Now, that is the same as the medical profession's requirement by law, although a young man entering the regular medical school cannot get in unless he has had three years' requirement. That is, the other, extra, year is put on by the schools.

Then, they have also asked for a year in surgery. It is their request, and, so far as I am concerned,—and I am satisfied, after talking with Dr. Palmer and others, I am satisfied there are no objections by the medical profession if you vote in favor of this bill. Now, vote as you please, gentlemen.

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, like the Chairman of the Committee on Public Health, I am a physician. While I am a member of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, I am speaking as an individual and not for the medical society or for the medical profession; but I would like to say that the medical men of the State of Pennsylvania are not in sympathy with this bill as presented. It seems rather strange that a bill should be brought forward to do something for the osteopaths and be sponsored by the medical profession. Looking through the bill you will notice the fee being charged the osteopaths for the right to take the examinations to practice osteopathy and osteopathic surgery in Pennsylvania is one hundred dollars.

At home I am a friend of the osteopaths and have no crow to pick at all with any branch of the healing art. At various times I have taken care of the families of osteopaths, in a professional way, at home, and have nothing but the kindest regards for them as a whole. I know, personally, that some of the older osteopaths are perfectly satisfied with conditions as they exist today, and are not looking for new legislation. It seems rather unfair, if somebody wants to help the osteopaths, that they should charge them ten dollars for a yearly license, instead of the one dollar that the members of the medical profession themselves pay for a yearly license. Again, for them to take the examination they are required to post one hundred dollars, which, in itself, is greatly in excess of what is required of the graduates in medicine to take the Pennsylvania State Board examination.

It looks to me as though instead of helping the osteopaths they seem to want to penalize them, because their yearly fee is ten times that of the members of the medical profession, and they pay for the privilege of taking an examination considerably in excess of what we of the medical profession have to pay.

Again, I feel that the older osteopath, who is practicing osteopathy in our Commonwealth, is not being treated squarely, because it is the right of the osteopathic surgeon who is licensed in any other State of the union to come into the State of Pennsylvania and, by paying a fee of two hundred dollars, be given the right to practice surgery in our State, whereas the man who has practiced osteopathy here for years is denied that privilege.

The Commonwealth at the present time does issue licenses for osteopathic surgeons, and by this new Act it will give the privilege to osteopathic physicians who have practiced operative surgery in our Commonwealth for a period of seven years—give them the right, without examination, to practice osteopathic surgery in this State. I know that there are some who claim, although they are not licensed as osteopathic surgeons, that they have practiced surgery, as osteopaths, in Pennsylvania for over seven years, and that they have consulted legal authorities and have been told that they were privileged to practice surgery. These men will undoubtedly claim to have practiced surgery; and, under this Act, will automatically, without examination, become osteopathic surgeons.

This measure strikes out on page 11, line 20, the provision that "certificate involving operative surgery shall be valid only when issued by an osteopathic surgeon duly licensed to practice operative surgery," which would give the right to an osteopath to issue a certificate as to any case involving operative surgery when he does not have any operative experience since he does not receive any interneship; only an osteopathic surgeon receives interneship and clinical experience.

On page 11, line 15, there are added the additional words "of the state or of any of its political subdivisions," so that any boards, bureaus, or departments of the State or municipalities are compelled to accept all reports and certificates issued by osteopathic physicians. If this applied only to osteopathic surgeons, who receive more training, and especially, interneship, we could find little objection; but as this will compel every bureau or department of the State to accept their certificate, the measure is objectionable. This is a serious matter, since pensions and other important questions are involved; and the bureaus or departments should be given the right to use their discretion as to whether they should accept certificates of osteopaths, and not be compelled to do so. In some instances it might be satisfactory and in others it might not.

The raising of the standards by requiring two years of pre-osteopathy instead of one year is only a guise to put this measure across. This new standard would not go into effect until 1941. If the sponsors were sincere, then the standard could go into effect within one year or so.

Therefore, the measure is not necessary at this moment. The raising of the standards could be provided for in a new measure, if there is time; and if there is not sufficient time then it could be done at the next Session. Since the desire seems to be to raise the standards in 1941 it would make no difference I should make the observation that medical schools today raise their standards without legislation. For these reasons I am opposed to the above measure and feel it should be defeated.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, we all read in the movies "Time Moves On." All that this signifies, so far as I can see, is time moving on. This is a bill for advancement. We talk so much about safety this is a bill about safety. Here comes before this legislative body, a group of men that twenty years ago, through ignorance on my part, I fought. As the years went on I learned to my sorrow that I had made one of the biggest mistakes in my life. They are a valuable factor in the health producing or creating activities in the State of Pennsylvania; and all they ask is that they be given an opportunity, among themselves, to raise a higher standard, to come as near to the old allopathic and homeopathic physicians as it is possible for them to come. I know many of these osteopaths, and their arguments; and their sincere hope is that the day will not be far in the future when they will be leading the profession and the old school will be following them; and it is my ardent hope and wish; and I believe the day is not far away when they will lead and the others will follow; and it is our duty to give them a helping hand.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I cannot escape the conclusion that if the osteopaths generally want to increase their standards— I cannot escape the conclusion, I say, that if they want to do that, why do they not do as the allopaths have done and broadened the course of their studies, take up the same course of studies that the medical men do? Then, after they are graduated, they can specialize in their special field. I am not very favorably impressed with any groups that want the Legislature to increase their standards; if the standards are to be increased, the desire to do so should spring from them. However, at the same time I would not want to vote against this bill if its affect will be to increase the standards of osetopathy.

I am glad that Dr. Kahle has expressed his view; and, inasmuch as we have some other doctors in this august body, I wish they would help us laymen, who, conscious of the fact that we are charged with a mighty responsibility, would like to hear what they have to say.

And the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL NO. 199 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to call up at this time Senate Bill No. 199, which is not on the calendar but is on the desk of each member of the Senate.

I move that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, not knowing what the amendments are, I vote "Present".

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I shall vote "No" on this bill, because I do not know, and nobody seems to know, what the amendments are. There are no copies of this bill on the table.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands that they are on the desks.

Mr. SALUS. The Chair ought to come down here and find out that they are not on the desks. We cannot vote on legisation we have not before us.

The PRESIDENT. Let us clear this up. The Chair understands that these amendments are on the desks. They are either on the desks or they are not on the desks.

Mr. BUCKMAN. What is the Printer's number, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. The Printer's number is 762.

The Chair suggests that the Senators wake up, instead of asking that the Chair wake up.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, on loking over the desk I do find that that bill was somewhere mixed up with other bills on the desk, and maybe we did not look hard enough for it. It is not on the calendar but it is scattered among the other bills on the desk.

The PRESIDENT. You know, the rule was suspended today, and they are not required to be noted on the calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments.

SENATE BILL NO. 759. RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 759, Printer's No. 761, for concurrence in the House amendments, which bill is on the desks.

I move that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, to avoid confusion, and for the protection of the Senators in their voting, and realizing that the rule, requiring that amendments be noted on the calendar was suspended, I think the least the sponsor of the bill could do would be to explain the purpose of the bill and give the Printer's number. We cannot digest a large bill in a few moments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair believes that would be the proper procedure, and would facilitate the business of the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the only amendment made to the bill by the House is by bringing under its terms the farmers, wood-choppers and so forth. If you will listen a minute, I will read it. Page 2, line 22.

"'Boilers used on farms' shall mean any boilers used for threshing grain baling hay or straw, filling silos and shredding fodder, grinding feed, sawing wood, crushing or pulverizing stone, operating dairy equipment or other similar agricultural operations, except boilers owned or operated by any person regularly engaged in such business."

That is the only amendment put into the bill.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL No. 1121 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1121,

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1121, entitled

An Act providing for the erection, construction and equipment of a new Pennsylvania Industrial School to take the place of the present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon; designating the manner of acquiring or setting aside of land for the erection and construction of the new school by The General State Authority; authorizing the Commonwealth to lease the new school and its grounds from the General State Authority, upon its completion, and the Department of Welfare to manage and operate the same; providing that the cost of maintaining inmates therein be borne by the Commonwealth and the counties, to the extent, and in the manner, provided by law in the case of inmates maintained in the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon, and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments, boards, commissions and officers.

which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I suggest that the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice explain what the amendments are.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will ask the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, to explain the amendments.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, on page 5, line 11, it is changed from "fifty" to "thirty years." That is the extent of the change.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that may be all that is—from thirty to fifty, but in my opinion that is an important change. This is in an institution against the debt for the creation of which bonds will be issued, for the abatement of which you can look to the particular income from the property. Now the question arises whether or not those bonds will be worth anything, or saleable if the term is changed from thirty to fifty years. I do not know what the amortizing rate will be, or if over that period of time the property will be able to carry these bonds. If it is not, it will mean, of necessity, the rates will be increased. Now, some more consideration ought to be given to this amendment than can be given at this time.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I understand the change to be in the reverse order from what the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, designated. It is from fifty to thirty.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is right, you are reducing the time for paying and amortizing the bond issue, and if you do that you must of necessity increase the burden on the State to pay those carrying charges and amortization; and I think more consideration, on a matter of this kind, should be given than is given at this time to the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL No. 1122 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1122, returned with amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1122, entitled:

An Act providing for the erection, construction and equipment of a Maximum Security State Penitentiary for the detention, care, maintenance and employment of maximum security prisoners, transferred thereto from the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries; designating the manner of acquiring or setting aside of lad for the erection and construction thereon of the Penitentiary by The General State Authority; authorizing the Commonwealth to lease the penitentiary and its grounds from the General State Authority upon its completion, and the Department of Welfare to manage and operate the same providing that the cost of maintaining convicts therein be borne by the Commonwealth and the counties to the extent and in the manner provided by law in the case of convicts in State penitentiaries; and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments, boards, commissions and officers.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Harvey Huffman) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 60 (House Bill No. 64) passed the House after a long struggle. It came to the Senate, and was referred to the Committee on County Government, on March 29, and a hearing was held on April 13th. This bill is known as the Holland Bill—introduced by Representative Holland, of the City of Pittsburgh—and it makes real estate of Public Service Companies subject to taxation.

This bill, in that committee—of which I am a member—has been considered several times; there was no attempt made by anyone to stifle a hearing or prevent anyone from having his say or voting as he pleased and although the bill was called up several times by the chairman there were never enough votes to report the bill out; and I want to say this for the chairman—that every time I asked him to consider this bill he very fairly called it up, although he might have delayed it; so that, on every occasion when I asked that this bill be considered in committee it was fully considered, and never had enough votes to get out; and what I am doing tonight I am doing most reluctantly, I have waited until the very last day, I had hoped that this committee would see its way clear to let this very important bill—especially to my County and my City—come on the floor.

I might state that in the City of Pittsburgh alone, if this bill were in effect in the City of Pitstburgh, and the schools, would receive a revenue annually of $420,000. I know it is argued that this bill provides for the taxation of real estate of utilities and that the utilities sell their product outside the place where the real estate is located; and the people outside might eventually have to pay the taxes; but I want to remind the Senate that the Jones-Laughlin Company in the City of Pittsburgh pays an annual tax in the City of Pittsburgh of over $400,000; that one company pays as much, practically, as all of the utilities would pay on their real estate if this bill were in effect; and the other day the Supreme Court decided—in deciding the Wagner Act—that the Jones-Laughlin Company were engaged in interstate commerce; that its products—the distribution of them, rather, was so far flung that although it was engaged in manufacturing in the City of Pittsburgh its activities could be regarded as being interstate.

The State of Louisiana, the State of Idaho, the State of Delaware, the State of Connecticut, along with New York, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Indiana, Maine and several other states—all these do exactly what this bill proposes.

These Public Service Companies during the depression, practically everyone of them, made money; they are protected by the Public Service Commission, and their income is almost guaranteed; and on account of the heavy taxes on the home-owners of the City of Pittsburgh, and on account of the interest that the people of Pittsburgh have had in this bill, and the discussion they have had in campaigns, and the very serious fight they had in the House, Mr. President, I now offer the following motion and move its adoption:

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

I move that the Committee on County Government be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 760 (House Bill No. 64), Printer's No. 169, so that the same may be returned to the floor of the Senate for consideration according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am about to second the motion of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, and I want to give my reason therefor. I want to record my emphatic endorsement of the motion to discharge the Senate Committee on County Government from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 760 (House Bill No. 64), the so called Holland Bill; and in so doing I am not unmindful of the reason and implications of that motion—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that a motion to discharge a committee is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I now rise to a question of personal privilege. There is no seconding of the motion; there is nothing before the Senate—

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator pay some attention to the Chair? A motion to discharge is not debatable—

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, this motion has not been seconded—

The PRESIDENT. Just one moment. Will the Senator content himself until the Chair has expressed his opinion?

A motion to discharge is not debatable on the merits of the bill. He may talk on the reason for the discharge.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object. I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, is out of order; he may not talk on a question of personal privilege at this time.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny state when was the last date upon which this bill was acted upon by the Committee on County Government?

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, Mr. President, it was acted on today.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when was the last time before today?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, about two weeks ago.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny state why it was he waited, after this bill had been turned down—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I insist that the point of order be enforced.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I know of no question of order being raised at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thinks that the Senator from Philadelphia is in order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, state why, after the committee upon several occasions since April had refused to report this bill favorably, he waits until the last day before adjournment, when we are in the midst of dealing with important measures, to present this motion?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I stated that the reason I waited was, I hoped this committee would change its mind; and I at least every other day, or every two or three days, talked to the chairman and asked him if he did not think that there was some way of getting these bills out; and on every occasion he told me he did not think that the committee would change its mind, that the bills had been up several times and were voted down in the committee.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, did not the Senator from Allegheny know that this bill was indefinitely postponed at least three weeks ago?

Mr. McGINNIS. Yes, your Honor.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Allegheny for the compliment, but I am going to stay in the Senate for awhile.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am glad the Senator from Philadelphia mentioned that motion to postpone, because that further shows the fairness of the chairman of that committee; notwithstanding that motion, after the bill had been indefinitely postponed, he brought the matter up again and it was voted down again.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President I move that the resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. JASPAN, and were as follows, viz:

REQUEST FOR RE-CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1085

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I wish to call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1085, Printer's No. 538, which was noted on the calendar of Wednesday, May 19th, on page 16.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as that is the only time I may do it, I ask the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, to defer his request for the moment, so I may state my reasons for voting to lay this motion on the table.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, yield the floor to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Pittsburgh, Mr. McGinnis, had no consideration for the time, or for the other members of the Senate, when he made his motion at this late date for the discharge of the Committee on County Government from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 760 (House Bill No. 64); and I think it comes with bad taste for them to make a laughing matter of what is a serious matter to me and to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and I rise to place on the record my reasons for voting against the motion, and, secondly, to express my resentment that a matter of such great importance, and requiring such great discussion, should be brought up at this time, so that my reasons may be understood very clearly.

I voted against this motion to discharge the committee because there is important business of the Senate to come up and no time to discuss a bill which would tax industry thousands of dollars, and at a time when the Public Service Commission is called upon to fix rates; and I resent anyone, any member of this Senate, after we have been struggling here day and night to clear the calendar, presenting legislation or trying to pass legislation of importance so that local political constituents shall be able to say that certain gentlemen who come from a certain district in the State, have satisfied their constituents by going through the form of a protest, in the hope that the motion which they made would not carry. And that is the reason I voted to lay this motion on the table.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I say that the statement of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, does not come with good grace when he is perfectly aware that this Senate for three or four weeks of this Session has ben doing nothing but considering Philadelphia bills. If the Senator from Philadelphia had, at the beginning of the session, given more thought to legislation pertaining to the entire State of Pennsylvania, instead of only the City of Philadelphia, we probably would have been further ahead.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his point of order.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, there is nothing befor the Senate, and therefore debate is out of order.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken, there is nothing before the Senate; and we will proceed with the calendar, the next bill in order being Senate Bill No. 1295 (House Bill No. 2115), on third reading.

The PRESIDENT. The next bill is at the top of page 14 of today's calendar, Senate Bill No. 1295.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1295 (House Bill No. 2115), entitled:

An Act relating to criminal prosecutions limiting the effect of demurrers by defendants at the close of the cases of the Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1085.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1085 was defeated be reconsidered. I have seen the light of day, and I want to make my peace with the barbers—in case I do not do anything else.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I voted "No."

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I voted "No."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the maker of this motion, the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, tell us what this bill goes on to state, if anything?

Mr. MALLERY. Well, Mr. President, I would like to say that happy days are here again, but unfortunately the barbers are not sharing in these happy days back in my home, in Altoona; at least, I have gotten word from back home that the barbers think this is a good bill; and, as I am not able to shave myself, and unhappy things are liable to happen to me if I am not for this bill, I feel I should support it; and, further more, I, like the sponsor of this bill, feel that we Irish must stick together.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I say Amen to that.

and the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1331 (House Bill No. 1305), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-nine of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effort of judcial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" by providing that under certain circumstances a municipality may purchase for the sheriff's costs subject to the lien of taxes and municipal claims property sold to satisfy a judgment on a tax or municipal claim and providing for the management and disposition of said property after said sale.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

An Act to further amend sections two hundred forty-six, two hundred fifty-six, and two hundred sixty-two of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "General County Law" fixing the salary of the district attorney, and providing for the appointment and compensation of assistant district attorneys, stenographers and clerks, in counties of the sixth and seventh classes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, the action taken by the caucus was due to the fact that it was impossible for the printer to complete his work in time to adjourn this week, the House and Senate would meet tomorrow and then adjourn until 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, hoping that we can finish on Wednesday, and with that thought in view, I believe that several appropriation bills which I believe are necessary, should be taken up tonight and I would like to call these bills up at this time and put the rest over until tomorrow. There are about five or six bills on the calendar that I desire to call up.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1359 (House Bill No. 1787).

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I Move to

Amend sec. 5, page 4, line 24, by inserting after the word: "Commonwealth" the following: "but such rules shall not include any provision regulating the admission of attorneys to practice before any of the trial courts of this Commonwealth."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion,

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I understand that the arrangement was to call up certain bills that were agreed upon. Now this bill, as I understand, was not one of the bills that was to be called up. I believe that it would be far better to allow the bill to go over and I ask the Senator to withdraw his motion.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, the sponsor of this bill, Miss Brancato, asked me to make this motion for the reason that this bill had come out of committee unbeknown to her and had been amended. She wanted an opportunity to look over the amendment and, perhaps, offer another amendment. I did not think there was any objection. I do not know what Senator Frey's objections are but if he has any legitimate objection, I will withdraw the motion and ask that the bill go over in order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn and the bill will go over in its order.

ACTION ON BILL DEFERRED

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I move that all remaining bills on the Calendar go over in order.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The motion was agreed to.

The Clerk read the message as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 557.

An Act making an appropriation to the Water and Power Resources Board for payment into the Flood Control Fund for flood control purposes

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, by striking out in lines 4 and 5 the words and figures "eight million dollars ($8,000,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "five million dollars ($5,000,000)"; also by striking out at the end of line 10 the word "Provided"; also on page 2 by striking out all of lines 1 to 5 inclusive as follows: "however That not less than four million dollars ($4,000,000) of the sum appropriated by this act and paid into the Flood Control Fund shall be used and expended only for flood control work and improvements on and along the Susquehanna River and its tributaries."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides for an appropriation to be given from the General Fund to the Water and Power Resources Board for payment into the Flood Control Fund for flood control purposes. This bill provided for an appropriation of eight million dollars, and four million dollars of that sum was to be used and expended only for flood control work along the Susquehanna River and its tributaries. The bill has been amended in the Senate to strike out the eight million dollar provision and substitute in lieu thereof five million dollars, and to remove from the bill that part of it which provided that four million dollars of that sum should be expended upon the Susquehanna River and its tributaries. The amendment raising the amount from five million dollars to eight million dollars, originally was put in by the House. We felt that this sum was to be spent upon flood control, partly along the Susquehanna River and partly elsewhere. If we allow this amendment to stand we feel that over four million dollars of it, or approximately ninety percent or more will be used entirely in the western part of Pennsylvania and practically none of it would be used in the Susquehanna Basin. We know the suffering that has been caused along the Susquehanna and its tributaries in the last year. We felt that we were entitled to some of it, and we felt that a larger amount should be used on the Susquehanna Basin. If this sum is to be spent for flood control then the Susquehanna Basin should have its share and should have a more complete participation in the program. For that reason I object to the concurrence in the amendments of the Senate and I ask the members of the House to vote "no."

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask the membership of the House to vote "aye" on concurrence in the amendments inserted by the Senate. My friend on the other side of the House knows that the Governor in his budget set up five million dollars to be appropriated by this House for flood control. If the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, knew how we could get the other four or five million dollars we might be in a position to appropriate a specific amount of this sum for the Susquehanna River Basin, but due to the fact that this money was given to the Flood Control Fund to be used by the Water Power Resources Board throughout the entire Commonwealth, not for any specific section, he cannot complain that we should appropriate the four million dollars for the Susquehanna River Basin. There are sections in and around Cambria County, Johnstown, Pa., and other sections of the Commonwealth that have suffered just as severely and more so than the Susquehanna River Basin. Due to the fact that we have not the means in this House to raise the money to appropriate to the Board eight million dollars' it is foolish for us to pass on appropriation bill and let the administration find out where to secure this money. The people have been taxed enough and I do not think that we are in a position to levy any further taxes for the purpose of raising money for flood control purposes. With the money we are going to get from the Federal Government, with the fifty million dollar bond issue for flood control work, I believe that within the next two years we will be able to use this money for the purpose of curbing these floods.

I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" in the concurrence of the amendments inserted by the Senate.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 1 Short Title Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same That this act shall be known and may be cited as the "Pennsylvania Labor Relations Act"

Section 2 Findings And Policy

(a) Under prevailing economic conditions individual employes do not possess full freedom of association or actual liberty of contract Employers in many instances organized in corporate or other forms of ownership associations with the aid of government authority have superior economic power in bargaining with employes This growing inequality of bargaining power substantially and adversely affects the general welfare of the State by creating variations and instability in competitive wage rates and working conditions within and between industries and by depressing the purchasing power of wage earners thus (1) creating sweatshops with their attendant dangers to the health peace and morals of the people (2) increasing the disparity between production and consumption and (3) tending to produce and aggravate recurrent business depressions The denial by some employers of the right of employes to organize and the refusal by employers to accept the procedure of collective bargaining tend to lead to strikes lock-outs and other forms of industrial strife and unrest which are inimical to the public safety and welfare and frequently endanger the public health

(b) Experience has proved that protection by law of the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively removes certain recognized sources of industrial strife and unrest encourages practices fundamental to the friendly adjustment of industrial disputes arising out of differences as to wages hours or other working conditions and tends to restore equality of bargaining power between employers and employes

(c) In the interpretation and application of this act and otherwise it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State to encourage the practice and procedure of collective bargaining and to protect the exercise by workers of full freedom of association self-organization and designation of representatives of their own choosing for the purpose of negotiating the terms and conditions of their employment or other mutual aid or protection free from the interference restraint or coercion of their employers

(d) All the provisions of this act shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of this purpose

(e) This act shall be deemed an exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the protection of the public welfare prosperity health and peace of the people of the Commonwealth

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2356, (Senate Bill No. 1122), as follows:

An Act providing for the erection construction and equipment of a Maximum Security State Penitentiary for the detention care maintenance and employment of maximum security prisoners transferred thereto from the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries designating the manner of acquiring or setting aside of land for the erection and construction thereon of the penitentiary by The General State Authority authorizing the Commonwealth to lease the penitentiary and its grounds from The General State Authority upon its completion and the Department of Welfare to manage and operate the same providing that the cost of maintaining convicts therein be borne by the Commonwealth and the counties to the extent and in the manner provided by law in the case of convicts in State penitentiaries and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments boards commissions and officers

Whereas The Eastern State Penitentiary located in Philadelphia is antiquated and many hazardous conditions exist due to deferred maintenance of more than a decade anticipating the removal of inmates therefrom and

Whereas There is urgent need for the erection of a new State penitentiary for the segregation of maximum security prisoners transferred from both the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries thus accomplishing one important step in the development of an adequate penal institution program for the Commonwealth and

Whereas It is the desire of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that The General State Authority construct such new penitentiary and lease the same to the Commonwealth therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Department of Welfare with the approval of the Governor shall select for acquisition either by the Department of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth or by The General State Authority with funds of the Authority a tract of land of not less than five hundred acres centrally located well supplied with water and capable of being properly sewered and drained for the erection and construction thereon by The General State Authority of an institution to be known as the Maximum Security State Penitentiary for the confinement of not less than six hundred convicts to be transferred from the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries The title to the lands so acquired shall be approved by the Attorney General If it shall be found that the Commonwealth owns State forest lands or other lands suitable in whole or in part for such use such lands may be designated by the Department of Welfare with the approval of the Governor and the department board or commission having possession and control of the same and used for the aforesaid purpose and any additional lands necessary may be selected and acquired as aforesaid

Section 2 Upon the acquisition of any land in the name of the Commonwealth or designation of any land of the Commonwealth as provided in section one the Department of Property and Supplies shall have authority to convey the same to The General State Authority for the purpose of having such Authority erect and construct thereon and equip the Maximum Security State Penitentiary The plans and specifications of the penitentiary whether erected on land acquired directly by The General State Authority or by conveyance to it from the Commonwealth shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Welfare and shall provide for suitable buildings and an adequate water supply system sewage treatment works heat and electric power plant or plants service lines and other necessary equipment structures and improvements The buildings shall be of modern design plain and substantial and capable of extension as the needs of the institution may require

Section 3 The Department of Welfare may enter into an agreement with The General State Authority for the use of convicts in the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries in improving the site of the new penitentiary the preparation of building materials the construction of any buildings and improvements pertinent thereto or to engage in farming or dairying work In the case of any such agreement the Department of Welfare shall have power to transfer from the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries such convicts as it may deem necessary for these purposes provided that a suitable building or building are available for the custody of such convicts Such agreement shall require that The General State Authority shall pay to the Manufacturing Fund in the State Treasury for the labor of such convicts such wages for each convict so employed as may be agreed upon in accordance with the laws regulating the employment of prison or inmate labor The expense of maintaining such convicts at the site of the new penitentiary shall be borne by the respective counties in which they shall have been convicted and shall be paid to the State Treasurer through the Department of Revenue as provided by law in the case of convicts confined in the State penitentiaries but such actual expense shall be paid in the first instance by the Department of Welfare from appropriations made for such purposes Upon the completion of their work any convict transferred for work in connection with such penitentiary shall be re-transferred to the penitentiary from which they were originally transferred unless they are detained in the new penitentiary as maximum security prisoners

Section 4 The Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor is hereby authorized to enter into a lease for not more than thirty (30) years with the General State Authority to acquire the use of the Maximum Security State Penitentiary and any lands or farms connected therewith for the purpose of having the same managed and operated by the Department of Welfare In such case the management and operation of the penitentiary and the care maintenance and employment of the convicts shall be the function of the Department of Welfare Subject to and in the manner provided in The Administrative Code of 1929 and its amendments the Department of Welfare shall have power to employ and fix the compensation of a superintendent deputy superintendent chaplain guards physicians mechanics clerks stenographer and other employes as may be deemed necessary for the proper maintenance and management of the penitentiary and the safe-keeping therein of maximum security prisoners The compensation of all persons so appointed and all other expenses in connection with the care and maintenance of convicts in said penitentiary shall be paid from the appropriations made to the Department of Welfare for such purposes but the Commonwealth shall be reimbursed for such expenditures by the respective counties in which such convicts were convicted to the extent and in the manner provided by law in the case of convicts maintained in the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries

Section 5 Upon the completion of the Maximum Security State Penitentiary and after the execution of a lease of the same by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from the General State Authority the Department of Welfare from time to time transfer from the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries such convicts as by the conduct in such penitentiaries and past records require provision for maximum security in order to prevent the escape or to prevent the causing of riot and disorder in the State penitentiaries Such convicts shall be known as maximum security prisoners After the penitentiary herein provided for shall have been fully completed only maximum security prisoners shall be detained in such penitentiary The Department of Welfare shall be the sole judge of those convicts who shall be transferred to and detained in the Maximum Security State Penitentiary The Department of Welfare shall have power to re-transfer from the Maximum Security State Penitentiary to the penitentiary from which originally transferred any convict who by his or her conduct shall in the opinion of the department no longer require detention in the Maximum Security State Penitentiary Any convict so transferred or re-transferred shall serve out the unexpired term of his or her sentence in the penitentiary to which transferred or re-transferred in accordance with the laws in force with reference to the punishment of persons convicted of crime and sentenced to a State penitentiary and as though such convict had been duly committed to such penitentiary and had already served there for such time as had been served in the penitentiary from which transferred or re-transferred All such transfers and re-transfers shall be made only by and under the direction of the Department of Welfare When any such transfer or re-transfer is made all records or true and full copies thereof relating to such convicts shall be transmitted from the institution of transfer to the institution of transfer as provided by law in the case of transfers between the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries

Section 6 In the management and operation of the Maximum Security State Penitentiary the Department of Welfare shall have all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed by the laws of this Commonwealth on the Boards of Trustees of the Eastern and Western State Penitentiaries and all the laws of the Commonwealth relating to the care maintenance management safe-keeping employment pardon and parole of convicts confined in State penitentiaries shall be deemed to apply to convicts detained in such penitentiaries

Section 7 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2321, (Senate Bill No. 1121), as follows:

An Act providing for the erection construction and equipment of a new Pennsylvania Industrial School to take the place of the present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon designating the manner of acquiring or setting aside of land for the erection and construction of the new school by The General State Authority authorizing the Commonwealth to lease the new school and its grounds from The General State Authority upon its completion and the Department of Welfare to manage and operate the same providing that the cost of maintaining inmates therein be borne by the Commonwealth and the counties to the extent and in the manner provided by law in the case of inmates maintained in the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments boards commissions and officers

Whereas The present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon originally intended as a Middle State Penitentiary with its high walls and towers has all the aspects of a State Penitentiary and the addition of a medium security bloc has detracted little from its forbidding appearance and

Whereas The internal arrangement of the cell blocs with barred windows and double locked switches contradicts the idea that this institution is a school devoted to rehabilitation and

Whereas the erection of a new industrial school and the use of the present institution at Huntingdon for the detention of defective delinquents will accomplish one important step in the development of an adequate penal institution program for the Commonwealth and

Whereas It is the desire of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that The General State Authority construct such new industrial school and lease the same to the Commonwealth therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Department of Welfare with the approval of the Governor shall select for acquisition either by the Department of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth or by The General State Authority with funds of the Authority a tract of land of not less than one thousand acres well supplied with water and capable of being sewered and drained for the erection and construction thereon by The General State Authority of an institution to be known as the Pennsylvania Industrial School with a capacity of not less than twelve hundred inmates to take the place of and to serve the same purposes as the present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon The title to the lands so acquired shall be approved by the Attorney General If it shall be found that the Commonwealth owns State forest lands or other lands suitable in whole or in part for such use such lands may be designated by the Department of Welfare with the approval of the Governor and the department board or commission of the Commonwealth having possession and control of the same and used for the aforesaid purpose and any additional lands necessary may be selected and acquired as aforesaid

Section 2 Upon the acquisition of any land in the name of the Commonwealth or designation of any land of the Commonwealth as provided in section one the Department of Property and Supplies shall have authority to convey the same to The General State Authority for the purpose of having such Authority erect and construct thereon and equip the new Pennsylvania Industrial School The plans and specifications of the school whether erected on land acquired directly by the General State Authority or by conveyance to it from the Commonwealth shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Welfare and shall provide for suitable buildings and an adequate water supply system sewage treatment works heat and electric power plant or plants service lines and other necessary equipment structures and improvements The buildings shall be of modern design plain and substantial and capable of extension as the needs of the institution may require The setting and the architecture shall express the principle of rehabilitation through the greatest possible freedom of choice and expression in work education and recreation consistent with the protection of society

Section 3 The Department of Welfare may enter into an agreement with The General State Authority for the use of inmates in the present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon in improving the site of the new school the preparation of building materials the construction of new buildings and improvements pertinent thereto or to engage in farming or dairying work In the case of any such agreement the Department of Welfare shall have power to transfer from the present Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon such inmates as it may deem necessary for these purposes provided a suitable building or buildings are available for the custody of such inmates Such agreement shall require that The General State Authority shall pay to the Manufacturing Fund in the State Treasury for the labor of such inmates such wages for each inmate so employed as may be agreed upon in accordance with the laws regulating the employment of prison or inmate labor The expenses of maintaining such inmates at the site of the new school shall be borne by the respective counties from which they shall have been committed and shall be paid to the State Treasurer through the Department of Revenue as provided by law in the case of inmates maintained in the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon but such actual expense shall be paid in the first instance by the Department of Welfare from appropriations made for such purposes

Section 4 The Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor is hereby authorized to enter into a lease for not more than thirty (30) years with The General State Authority to acquire the use of the new Pennsylvania Industrial School and any lands or farms connected therewith for the purposes of having the same managed and operated by the Department of Welfare In such case the management and operation of the school and the care maintenance and employment of the inmates shall be the function of the Department of Welfare Subject to and in the manner provided in The Administrative Code of 1929 and its amendments the Department of Welfare shall have power to employ and fix the compensation of a superintendent deputy superintendent chaplain guards physicians mechanics clerks stenographers and other employes as may be deemed necessary for the proper maintenance and management of the school and the safekeeping therein of its inmates The compensation of all persons so appointed and all other expenses in connection with the care and maintenance of inmates of said school shall be paid from the appropriation made to the Department of Welfare for such purposes but the Commonwealth shall be reimbursed for such expenditures by the respective counties from which such inmates were committed to the extent and in the manner provided by law in the case of inmates maintained in Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon

Section 5 Upon the completion of the new Pennsylvania Industrial School and after the execution of a lease of the same by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from The General State Authority the Department of Welfare shall transfer under the provisions of The Administrative Code of 1929 from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon all persons who are then detained therein unless directed otherwise as provided by the Mental Health Act of July eleventh one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 998) and all books papers records documents in the possession of the said school and the board of trustees thereof Thereafter all commitments which were heretofore made by the courts of this Commonwealth to the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon shall be made to the new Pennsylvania Industrial School erected under the provisions of this act The Department of Welfare shall advise all of the courts of this Commonwealth of the date from and after which commitments shall be made to the new school

Section 6 In the management and operation of the new Pennsylvania Industrial School the Department of Welfare shall have all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed by the laws of this Commonwealth on the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon All laws of this Commonwealth now relating to the care maintenance management safe-keeping employment training and treatment pardon and parole of persons detained in the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon shall be deemed to apply to persons detained in and committed to the new Pennsylvania Industrial School

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2334, (Senate Bill No. 199), as follows:

An Act to amend section one section three as amended sections seven and thirteen and section seventeen as amended and to repeal section six of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" as amended by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions further regulating the hours of labor eliminating existing provisions permitting over time work in certain cases imposing duties on employers and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for the violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the term "establishment" when used in this act shall mean any place within this Commonwealth where work is done for compensation of any sort to whomever payable [Provided That this act shall not apply to work in private homes and farming]

The term "person" when used in this act shall be construed to include any individual partnership or other unincorporated association corporation [and municipality] Commonwealth and any political subdivision thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask whether there is anybody in the House who can answer questions in reference to this bill.

Mr. YOURISHIN. I can, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Luzerne whether he did not put some amendments into this bill yesterday.

Mr. YOURISHIN. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain those amendments?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, the amendments that I put in yesterday were just minor amendments. However, the amendments that were put in in the House Committee took out some large portion of the amendments in the Senate and inserted an amendment to take care of exemptions in certain particular industries and businesses.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, was there not an amendment that those receiving over twenty-five dollars a week should be exempt?

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Or in executive positions, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, how about the help in the hotels?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, that is regulated by the Department of Labor and Industry, with the consent of the Industrial Board.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, might I suggest that this bill be passed over for a moment to allow me to confer with the gentleman from Luzerne.

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will agree, Mr. Speaker, provided we come back to the bill.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the bill will be passed over temporarily. The Chair hears none and the bill will be passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1781, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and three of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand seven hundred twenty-one) entitled "An act providing for the service of process in civil suits on non-residents operators or non-resident owners of motor vehicles operated within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making the operation of such a motor vehicle on the public highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the equivalent of the appointment of the Secretary of Revenue of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the agent of the said non-resident upon whom civil process may be served and providing for further notice to the defendant in any such suit" as amended by providing further for the return of and fees for service

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, my recollection is that in the general appropriation bill under the Department of Highways there was a provision of five hundred thousand dollars for the Pennsylvania Scenic and Historic Commission. Am I not correct in that?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the item appropriating five hundred thousand dollars for the Pennsylvania Scenic and Historic Commission was not contained in the general appropriation bill but was contained in a separate bill that was passed by the House and Senate.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from York is correct about that. It was, however, in the estimate on the part of the Department of Revenue.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill, however, does not set up an additional commission, but, as I see from the bill, it provides for an appropriation of forty thousand dollars for a particular purpose.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thought at first it was a duplication of two different functions.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2334, Senate Bill No. 199, Printer's No. 762, on page 45 of today's calendar, bill on third reading, which was passed over at the request of Mr. Turner.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2334, (Senate Bill No. 199), entitled:

An Act to amend section one section three as amended sections seven and thirteen and section seventeen as amended and to repeal section six of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations of by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" as amended by excepting from the provisions of the act certain occupations and professions further regulating the hours of labor eliminating existing provisions permitting over time work in certain cases and the exemption for the canning industry imposing duties on employers and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and providing penalties.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that it is my duty to speak briefly in opposing this bill because of the exemptions that were wiped out in the House. As this bill passed in the Senate I believe it was a good bill. Where it applied to perishable foods I believe we cannot trust to the discretion of the Department for the exemption necessary in the handling of perishable foods. Therefore, I wish to go on record as opposing this bill.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, the present law has the same Industrial Board in it, which gives to those who handle perishable goods, an exception even beyond the fifty-four hours. I do not see why they should take any exception or raise any objection to this amendment in the bill, which gives the Department of Labor and Industry the right to extend the hours immediately. All they have to do is to ask for it. Therefore, I ask the membership of the House to vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. ALEXANDER filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "aye", having been assured by the Chairman of the House Labor Committee that the Industrial Board would regulate the hours of employment in counties such as Mifflin to take care of those employers who find it impossible to meet the provisions of the bill.

Mr. ALLEN filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting in the affirmative on this bill with the assurance from the Chairman of the Labor Committee that flexibility will be allowed in the maximum hours by the Industrial Board, so that my county and other smaller counties, particularly those in the rural areas, will be able to secure exemption where it is found advisable to grant same.

Mr. JACOB F. MATTHEWS filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "no" on this bill because I think it will work a hardship on clerks in stores, restaurants and other business people, as it would be impossible for them to operate on a forty-four hour week.

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG filed the following reason for his vote:

I voted against this bill because I believe it will work a hardship on the canning industries in the handling of perishable fruits and vegetables.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1789, entitled:

An Act limiting the term of years of any agreement contract or lease to which any city of the first class shall be a party and making certain exceptions

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all cities of the first class are hereby prohibited from entering into any agreement contract or lease if the terms thereof shall bind such cities for a period of time in excess of ten years

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall not apply to any agreement under which such cities borrow funds and provide for the repayment thereof

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2379, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the fifteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred ninety-two) entitled "An act to provide revenue by taxation" by reducing from ten mills to five mills the rate of tax upon the capital stock of companies organized and incorporated for the purpose of distilling liquors and selling the same at wholesale

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Falkenstein.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this bill it is a reduction in the taxes upon the capital stock of companies organized and incorporated for the purpose of distilling liquors. Am I correct in that?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, why should the tax be reduced from ten mills to five mills?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, because we feel that the imposition of such taxes on distillers in Pennsylvania is discriminating against them, in competition with the distillers in other states.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is not the same true in reference to manufacturers and other corporations in Pennsylvania. We have increased the taxes, there is no exemption. Why should we decrease it on distillers? If we decrease it on distillers why not decrease it in the others?

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, because they are the only manufacturing industry or the only people paying ten mills. All of the rest are paying five mills.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, probably some of the members of this House are misinformed as to this bill. May I state that there are some differences in the taxes imposed in neighboring states, and I have a memorandum here as to the taxes paid in these neighboring states by the distilling companies. I will enumerate some of them, which will show the facts and give one of the reasons why the Ways and Means Committee felt it should report this bill out favorably.

Kentucky has a tax in the nature of a capital stock tax at the rate of seventy cents per thousand dollars. Indiana has no capital stock or franchise tax whatsoever. Illinois has a tax in the nature of a capital stock tax, but this tax is far less than that imposed upon Pennsylvania distillers. I might say that even Maryland has a flat one thousand dollar fee, and the taxes imposed on distilling companies in Pennsylvania exceed those of Maryland, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, all competing states in the liquor industry. In order to be fair, therefore, to our companies in this Commonwealth, I ask the membership of this House to vote "aye".

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the argument of the gentleman from Allegheny is extremely amusing to me, when he compares taxes paid by the distillers with taxes paid by those in other states. I am wondering where he has been during all the time we have been talking about the tax bills pertaining to industries in Pennsylvania. We on this side of the House have been complaining about it for some time. The only logical argument that I can see in favor of this bill from the standpoint of the other side of the House is that other manufacturers pay a five mill capital stock tax and, therefore, there is no reason to discriminate on the capital stock tax against distillers as pertaining to all other corporations in Pennsylvania.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to talk on this bill because it is of no consequence to me. However, it is a little bit amusing to me to hear these distillers come in here and squeal about taxation. If there is any justice in the principle of taxing those who have the ability to pay, there is a great deal of merit in the present bill. I think this administration would undergo considerable criticism if while maintaining and raising taxes on all other corporations, including many of those, who as a matter of fact are having to withdraw from the State on account of difficulties here, that we should decide to lower the taxes being charged the distillers in Pennsylvania, who are undergoing one of the greatest booms in history. I think the members of the House should vote this bill down.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendment in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1417, (Senate Bill No. 197), entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1379) entitled "An act creating in counties of the third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners providing for their salaries payable by the county abolishing existing boards defining the powers and duties of such board regulating the assessment of persons property and occupations for county borough town township school and poor purposes authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors a solicitor engineers and clerks providing for their compensation payable by such counties abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessors so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities" providing for the appointment of the members of the boards for the assessment and revision of taxes by the Auditor General of the Commonwealth terminating the terms of the existing members of such boards fixing the membership of the county salary boards for certain purposes and repealing existing law providing for the appointment of such boards by the county commissioners

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies to the board of assessors in third class counties of this State. In 1933, I think it was, after a great many years of effort to get a centralized system of assessment in counties of the third class, we were able to write a bill which was at that time agreeable to all of the counties of the third class. Under that system the assessors are appointed by the county commissioners. When you take into consideration that these assessors set the standards for the school districts, the townships and boroughs as well as for the county taxes, you can understand that there is a real and logical reason why the board of assessors should be appointed by the county commissioners.

I know that in my County of Delaware a system of assessments has been set up which has been considered such a model that officials have come from other counties and other states to inspect the system and to obtain information as to its workings. It has been indeed a long and tedious task to bring about uniformity of assessments. This bill is a ripper bill; it has no other excuse for existence than the purpose of the Senator from Luzerne County, a third class county, to rip out the board of assessors in that county, and the bill provides for the appointment of the assessors by the Auditor General.

Now, if you can conceive of any sensible reason or any logical reason why the Auditor General of the Commonwealth should appoint a board in a county having to do with the assessment of real estate in that county I should like to know it. I think you would have difficulty in finding reasons. There might be reasons to elect the board; there might be reasons to have a board appointed by other means than local officials, but if you are dealing with the question of assessments and unformity of assessments, a question in which not only the taxpayers are interested, but a question in which every school board and every township and every borough is interested in the county, then there is certainly a detriment in having the assessors appointed by the Auditor General of the Commonwealth. Those assessors would not be responsible to any local authority, but would be entirely responsible to a State officer. It is a most flagrant disregard of home rule I have seen in this session. It is an inexcusable piece of legislation and it is one that I think should not have the support of the members of this House, even though you may be of the same political faith as the gentlemen who are advancing this measure, in order that they may secure control of the board of assessors, in order that they may have that additional patronage. I therefore ask that you vote "no" on this question.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not only Dr. Mundy's or Senator Mundy's pet measure but it is a bill to give protection to the taxpayers of the third class counties in that the assessors cannot be used as a political football. Prior to 1933 the assessors were appointed by the judges of the third class counties. Since then in the third class County of Luzerne the appointment of county assessors did not suit some of the political leaders of that county and they had a bill introduced which ripped the assessors out at that time and placed them in the hands of the county commissioners. The county commissioners after appointing the assessors likewise appointed sub-assessors. Abuses have arisen from the desire to favor either large taxpayers, or for fear of political reprisals.

Assessors and their employes, being responsible to County Commissioners for appointment, are likely to perform their duties with an eye to perpetuating their superiors, and hence themselves, in public office, rather than doing their full duty to the public.

Another reason why we feel the assessors should be appointed or selected by the State officials is that the State itself is interested in the assessed valuation of land in the county.

Millions in school subsidies are paid by the State annually on the basis of the valuation per teacher of property assessed in school districts for school purposes. The State is interested in having such property assessed at its fair value, to insure equal distribution of such subsidies, and, at the same time, to be sure that local taxpayers bear their fair share of taxes for school purposes.

I might say that some of the sub-assessors in some of these third class counties have been using their offices for political purposes in going to certain individuals and telling them "If you don't vote as I tell you, we are going to assess or increase the assessment on your property." Not only that but they have gone so far as to increase the assessments in the valuation of properties of voters in the third class counties where they knew they were not of the same political faith, and I know whereof I speak, because the same thing happened to yours truly and practically all of his friends, when they not only raised my assessment without any consideration as to the value of my property, but raised it immediately from $1,500 to $4,500, when right along side of me, political friends of the sub-assessors, with the same kind of property practically built the same way, their property was valued at half of the valuation placed on my property and that of my friends.

A recent decision of the Supreme Court on the valuation of coal property threatens to create a chaotic condition, and may paralize the revenues of counties and other municipalities which depend on such property as their principle source of tax revenue.

In the coal regions, I will say that fifty to seventy-five percent of the school taxes is on the assessed valuation of coal lands, especially in the townships. Funds are invested and their value may be seriously impaired. Already one school district in the coal region has advised the Teachers' Retirement Fund that the reduction in the assessed value of coal property has caused it to exceed the constitutional limit and that it will not pay its bonds for that reason.

Since corporations pay Pennsylvania capital stock tax to the State based, in part, on the value of their real estate and buildings, the assessed value of these subjects should be closely scrutinized.

Valuations set by assessors are being used to reduce other taxes collected by the State, for example, inheritance taxes and the tax on deeds, based on the value of the property transferred.

Responsibility to the State should make for greater efficiency, uniformity in determining values, and still probably result in saving to the taxpayers by eliminating political drones. A notorious example of their present inefficiency is demonstrated by the inadequate collection of the personal property tax for county purposes, a department which comes under the supervision of the county assessors.

For those reasons, members of the House, I ask your vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Luzerne stated in his opening remarks that the political powers in Luzerne County were not satisfied with the appointment of the sub-assessors by the court, and therefore had this bill passed to have the appointment by the county commissioners.

I want to say to the gentleman from Luzerne that he is entirely wrong in that deduction. I have been a member of the Commission appointed by Governor Fisher to study the question of subsidies to the schools, and one of the things that we insisted upon having written into that report was a provision for county wide assessment, because as the gentleman from Luzerne said, and he is perfectly correct, the State does have an interest in having some centralized bureau in every county that is charged with the assessment of real estate, because it forms the basis for subsidies. With 2,408, I think it was, school districts, or their assessments, it was impossible for the department to check up on them, but the State is not interested in the matter of assessments any further than to have the means to check that assessment in the county so that it can determine the basis of valuation for teachers' subsidies. Therefore the argument of the gentleman from Luzerne is a fallacious one, that the State has an interest. All the State needs is to reduce the number of bureaus to sixty-seven so that it can send the investigators into the sixty-seven counties, where it could not send them into 2,408 school districts in order to determine what the real value of real estate is. In 1933, when we passed the act that we now have, under which the appointment of the assessors is by the county commissioners, in the beginning of that session the County of Luzerne was opposed to taking that power away from the court in Luzerne County and giving it to the county commissioners, and I know it took a lot of selling to the political powers of Luzerne County to get them to agree to go along with this measure.

Now then, this is the same question that we have in connection with a good many others. If that is the situation in Luzerne County, if things are wrong in Luzerne County that is a matter for them to take up among themselves. If their set-up as to political assessments is bad, let them clean up their own county, but don't let them come down here and involve Westmoreland, Montgomery, Lackawanna and Delaware Counties, where our assessors are responsible to the local officials, and have them appointed by the State just because Luzerne County at the present time says from the Democratic standpoint at least that they are not satisfied with the manner of the assessment and that there is political favoritism. I am certain that the gentleman from Luzerne is not naive enough to come before this House and expect us to believe that if the appointment of the assessors comes from the Auditor General's office, where they are all Democrats, that the Democrats won't play politics just the same as he says the Republicans have played it in the past. If politics enter into it, politics will enter into it the same on one side as on the other.

We had an old judge down in my county, that as I said to you before, had more horse sense than anybody I ever knew. He said you can write all the election laws you want, and you can provide all the election rules and regulations that you want, but after all, if you don't have an honest election board you don't have an honest election, and the same thing is true in this instance. No matter where the appointive power is, if you do not have an honest board, you won't get an honest administration. In the first class counties, the boards of assessors are not appointed by the Auditor General, or by the Governor or by anybody else. I understand they are appointed by the Board of Revision, and the Board of Revision, now under the ripper you put through is appointed by the treasurer and the controller. I don't know how they are appointed in the second class counties, but I do know that they are not appointed by any State officials. In all other counties except third class you elect your local assessors, therefore why should there be one assessor in the case of the third class counties in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and then come to this Legislature and ask them to put it in the hands of the Auditor General. I think it is patent and clear, on its face, no matter what argument may be used for putting it in the hands of the Auditor General, the county administration in Luzerne County is Republican, the county administration in Lackawanna is Democratic and Westmoreland is Democratic, the county administration in Delaware County is Republican, and the same for Montgomery, therefore, you say "We will just switch this over to the Auditor General for the next four years. We will get Democratic boards in those counties and we will have the patronage." But just let me tell you this, you fellows have done a lot of switching around in the hope that you can control these appointments. I have never seen it fail in my recollection, that these things don't change over-night sometimes, and I can see you fellows running into a situation in your own counties sometime where you will be sorry for these ripper bills. There is no excuse for this. The local people should have control, and the only way the local people can have control is by leaving it in the hands of officials who are responsible to the local people in the counties, and there is absolutely no reason why this power should be taken away from them now, whether it be a Democratic county or a Republican county.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HABERLEN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Repeal Bills to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. CHERVENAK asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Constitutional Amendments to meet during the session of the House.

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, on page 1, bills on first reading, has Senate Bill No. 783 passed first reading?

The SPEAKER. The first reading bills are not on file.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask permission of the House to have a meeting of the Committee on State Government in Room 521 immediately.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that we are going on to the third reading calendar?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there is a bill to be considered I presume, by the gentleman from Monroe in Committee on State Government, on which I have an amendment to offer. I can't see how I can leave my desk, and I have not found any way to be two places at one time.

The SPEAKER. Can the gentleman from Monroe state the approximate time which will be required for this meeting of the committee?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I assume it will take from twenty-five to thirty minutes, possibly somewhat longer.

The SPEAKER. Will the House grant permission to the Committee on State Government to hold a meeting immediately? The Chair hears no objection, and the Committee is granted permission.

SPECIAL ORDERS OF THIRD READING RESUMED

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that we now resume the special orders on third reading and final passage.

The motion was agreed to.

PREAMBLE

Whereas Unsafe unfair unjust destructive demoralizing and uneconomic trade practices have been and are now carried on in the sale and resale of motor vehicles new and used in this Commonwealth whereby the motor vehicle industry in the Commonwealth and the safety of motor vehicles on the highways and the safety of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth using the various highways are imperiled and

Whereas Such conditions constitute a danger to the health industry safety and welfare of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth and

Whereas It is necessary to protect the well being of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth to promote the public welfare and

Whereas The motor vehicle industry is one of the paramount industries upon which the prosperity of the Commonwealth to a large extent depends and is an industry affected by a public interest and

Whereas the present acute economic conditions being in part the consequence of a severe and increased disparity between the prices allowed and paid for used motor vehicles by different dealers has broken down the orderly sale trade-in and market of used motor vehicles has tended to lower wages lengthen working hours and encourage misrepresentation and has seriously impaired the assets supporing the motor vehicle industry and places the inhabitants particularly those in the small income brackets in the Commonwealth in jeopardy both as to safety of the vehicle and as to the value of the vehicle and

Whereas Legislation is necessary to remove unsafe motor vehicles from the highways prevent fraud and prevent padding of finance charges and insurances charges.

An Act relating to motor vehicles new and used creating a Motor Vehicle Dealers' Commission establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties and creating and providing for approved motor vehicle appraisers establishing their powers and duties Regulating the sale trade-in allowance appraisals and information furnished the Commonwealth on motor vehicles new and used and establishing regulations concerning speedometers authorizing the Commission to establish periodical prices for used motor vehicles either sold or traded in establishing the appraisal value of motor vehicles new or used either for sale or used trade-in allowances providing for the licensing of motor vehicle dealers and salesmen and approved motor vehicle appraisers and the payment of fees therefor authorizing examination of the business papers and affairs of and requiring the filing of reports by licensees authorizing and empowering the Commission to hold hearings and to issue rules and orders and the issuance of subpoena by the Commission or its agents and conferring jurisdiction upon the Courts to punish contempts or to prohibit violations of orders of the Commission providing for appeals to the Courts from decisions of the Commission imposing penalties and making appropriation.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Boards for the purpose of holding a public hearing on Tuesday, June 1, 1937, at 11:00 a. m.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose that motion, and I would like to ask the Chair for the privilege of interrogating the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long.

The SPEAKER. Wil the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, is it not Mr. Long's intention to pickle this bill?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state to the membership of the House that due to numerous requests for a public hearing, addressed both to the Chairman of the Committee and to Senator McGinnis, the sponsor of the bill, the sponsor and the Chairman of the Committee on State Boards have thought it advisable to give these people a public hearing and not to pickle the bill.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if a public hearing at this late date would not be ridiculous, and if the intent of the motion is not to kill this bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, the bill has passed second reading in the House tonight. When it is reported out of the committee after a public hearing, it will be on third reading, and that will be on Tuesday, and it is possible to pass the bill finally on Tuesday.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if it is not a fact that during the Senate consideration of this bill they had a public hearing in the Senate?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, the Senate committee had a public hearing on this bill while it was under consideration in the Senate. The opponents of the bill claimed that they were not fully aware of the public hearing and did not have time to give a proper presentation of their case, but regardless of that fact, it is the prerogative of this House to give a public hearing on any bill which it deems necessary or advisable.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how many requests the gentleman has had for a public hearing in the House on this bill.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I haven't had time to count them, but within the last four hours I have received at least twenty-five requests both by telegram and letters for a public hearing.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I hate to trespass upon the time of the House, but I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if he will enumerate just who has requested him to hold a public hearing in the House.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I do not care to enumerate them all, but I have some here, and the gentleman can look at them, and they include auctioneers and used car dealers from Philadelphia and other sections of the State.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to insist upon the gentleman from Philadelphia enumerating those who have requested him, from Philadelphia particularly, to have a hearing in the House.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, these communications have been addressed to me as Chairman of the Committee, and I do not think it advisable to read them before the House at this time.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, it seems as though the gentleman from Philadelphia is refusing my request to enumerate the various people who have made requests for a public hearing simply because of the fact that it would embarrass the members of the Committee on State Boards. I would like at this time to ask those members of the Committee on State Boards present to give the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long, the Chairman of that particular Committee permission to so enumerate them.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to state to the House that since the introduction of this measure I have been contacted by a great many dealers in automobiles and I have contacted a great many others and I have found that the consensus of opinion among dealers is unanimously in favor of this bill. Therefore, I intend to vote against the recommittment of the bill and I ask the members of the House to vote against this motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BAINE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. BAINE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the question before the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is giving his reasons for opposing the motion.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say this, that I am not a member of the committee but I will be glad to oblige the gentleman with a number of telegrams which came to me this afternoon asking that something be done to stop this bill. I do not think it is a question only for the motor car dealers but that it is also a question for the public as to what they can get for their used cars. I will be glad to furnish those telegrams to the members of the committee.

Rush,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2320, (Senate Bill No. 1120), as follows:

An Act to amend section ten and section fifteen of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under oath and prior acts of Assembly" by providing further procedure for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claim and validating certain municipal tax liens heretofore filed

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennesylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section ten of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" as amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 526) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 10 Said claim shall set forth

1 The name of the municipality by which filed

2 The name of the owner of the property against which it is filed

3 A description of the property against which it is filed

4 The authority under or by virtue of which the tax was levied or the work was done

5 The time for which the tax was levied or the date on which the work was completed in front of the particular property against which the claim is led or the date of completion of the improvement where the assessment is made after completion or the date of confirmation by the court where confirmation is required done

6 If filed to the use of a contractor the date of and parties to the contract for doing said work and

7 In other than tax claims the kind and character of the work done for which the claim is filed and if the work be such as to require previous notice to the owner to do it when and how such notice was given

Said claim (must) shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the solicitor or chief executive officer of the claimant (;) except in counties having a controller in which case it shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the controller the controller and in the case of a use-plaintiff must be accompanied by an affidavit that the facts therein set forth are true to the best of his knowledge information and belief

Section 2 That section fifteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 15 Such tax municipal or other claim if filed within the period aforesaid shall remain a lien upon said properties until fully paid and satisfied Provided however That either a suggestion of non-payment and an averment of default in the form hereinafter provided be filed in cases of tax claims either before or after judgment on the scire facias and in cases of other than tax claims after judgment on the scire facias or else a writ of scire facias in the form herein provided be issued to revive the same within each period of five years following (a) the date on which said claim was filed (b) the date on which a writ of scire facias was issued thereon (c) the date on which any judgment was entered thereon (d) the date on which a previous suggestion of non-payment and default was filed thereon or (e) the date on which a judgment of revival was obtained thereon

The suggestion and averment shall be in the following form under the caption of the claim

And now ..... the claimant by ..... (his) its solicitor or controller suggests of record that the above claim is still due and owing to the claimant and avers that the owner is still in default for non-payment thereof The prothonotary is hereby directed to enter this suggestion and averment on the municipal lien or the proper docket of the claim and also to index it upon the judgment index and on the locality index of the court for the purpose of continuing the lien of the claim

Such suggestion and averment (must) shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimilie signature of the solicitor or chief executive officer of the claimant (.) except in counties having a controller in which case it shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the controller The prothonotary shall docket and index the suggestion and averments directed therein and for such services shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar to be taxed and collected as other costs in the claim The filing and indexing of such suggestion and averment within five years of filing the claim or the issuing of any writ of scire facias thereon or of any judgment thereon or of the filing of any prior suggestion and averment of default shall have the same force and effect for the purposes of continuing and preserving the lien of the claim as though a writ of scire facias had been issued or a judgment or judgment of revival had been obtained within such period Provided That no writ of levari facias shall be issued upon a claim for the purpose of exposing the property liened to sheriff's sale except after a judgment shall have been duly obtained upon the claim as provided in this section and such judgment must have been obtained within five years of the issuance of the levari facias Whenever the lien of a claim has been revived and continued by the filing and indexing of a suggestion and averment of default the claimant may at any time within five years therefrom issue a writ of scire facias thereon reciting all suggestion and averment of default filed since the filing of the claim and shall proceed thereon in the manner herein provided subject to the right of the owner to raise any defense arising since the last judgment

If a claim be not filed within the time aforesaid or if it be not prosecuted in the manner and at the time aforesaid its lien on real estate shall be wholly lost

Section 3 No municipal tax lien heretofore entered shall be invalidated discharged or set aside for want of any formality in the claim or for non-compliance with the requirements of section ten of the act to which this is an amendment if the claim whereon the lien was entered was filed in the office of the prothonotary on or before the last day of the third calendar year after that in which the tax was first payable and correctly shows the amount of the unpaid tax against the property for which the lien was filed for the year covered by the lien and all such tax liens are hereby ratified confirmed and validated

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1937. No. 67.

SENATE

THURSDAY, May 27, 1937.

The Senate met at 1 o'clock p. m.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Harvey Huffman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. GEORGE WALKER BUCKNER, LL.D., offered the following prayer:

Father of the ages everlasting, Thou art Lord of all. Thy realm is the commonwealth of races, the brotherhood of man. Teach us to cherish our kinship and its binding ties.

We are approaching that day when the living seek to honor the memory of the dead. Our paths may lead us to the massive marbles witness in the silent city of the mausoleum or sarcophagus, or to the sleeping dust beneath the mosses and the myrtles, the tangled grasses of the long forgotten spot. Yet wherever we may be, enable us to realize our own unworthiness, our unpaid debt to Thee, to our country and to our brother man. And when we return here another day, may we bring back a new consecration and a solemn resolve that our lives shall be more devoted to the cause of justice, equality and brotherhood as the only true foundation of lasting peace. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Clinton O'Shell, of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, for appointment as Alderman of the thirty-first Ward in the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, vice William Faulkner, deceased, until the first Monday of January, 1938.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

The PRESIDENT. The nomination is referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL NO 771

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 771, and move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to said bill.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments, having been printed, according to the Constitution, were twice read as follows: amend page 3, line 11, by striking out the words "not including"; amend page 3, by striking out all of lines 12 to 17 inclusive; amend page 3, line 18, by striking out the words "term 'rural area"; amend page 6, line 15, by striking out the words "or any public utility corporation other"; amend page 6, by striking out all of lines 16 to 21 inclusive; amend page 6, line 22, by striking out the words "utility company."

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask that the Senate do not concur.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I also ask that the Senate do not concur.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am going to ask the members of the Senate to vote for concurrence in these amendments. If they will remember a few weeks ago, on the floor of this Senate, I called attention to the fact that there was a joker inserted in this bill which destroyed the very purpose of it. It was put in in the form of an amendment, perpetrated on an unsuspecting rural population. I voted for the bill, hoping that the House would strike out this amendment. The House, in its wisdom—in its cunning—saw fit to remove that joker. Governor Earle recommended that it be removed; the Administration recommended that it be removed in order to give the farmers the relief that we promised them. Are we now going to refuse to go along with the farmers? Are we going to flout our pledges to the people? I hope not. Let us be men and vote for these amendments and go along with the Administration, and give the farmers that which we promised them. The Public Utilities have for a long time exploited the farmers, exploited our citizens; it is high time that we stay with the people. Again I ask the Senate to vote for these amendments.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I come from a rural community, my whole life has been spent among the rural people; practically for twenty years I have been interested in seeing the people of the rural communities get service of the kind that is provided in this Rural Electrification Bill. What the farmer and the man in the little village has wanted for years is service. Now we have a bill which provides that service. Many of the communities, in recent years, have obtained that service through lines put there by—through their own efforts and through the efforts of other sources and if that be true, and they are getting service, then I say they are satisfied. Many little lines exist out through the rural districts financed by local capital. These are furnishing service, and in those cases the farmer is satisfied. The only thing the farmer has wanted for years, and the only thing he wants today, is service. Now, if he is given that service, I repeat, he is satisfied, and I see no reason why these amendments should not be sustained.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, while it is true the farmer has asked for service, in many instances, he cannot pay for that service; what he wants is a reasonable rate, in order that he may pay for the service, and that is what he has not got most of the time; sixty per cent do not get the service and of the thirty percent that are getting it, they are getting it at exorbitant rates—that they cannot afford to pay. Again I ask that the Senate concur in these amendments.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to take the opinion of a person who has spent his whole life in a rural community, like the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, rather than that of a Senator who has spent his whole life in the City of Philadelphia, in voting on these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. What is your intention?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I want the Senate to sustain the Senate amendments and not concur in the amendments of the House—and striking out the Senate amendments.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I want to assure the Senator from Washington that we dirt farmers probably will not follow the advice of the "dirt farmer" from Philadelphia.

I also would like to inquire, Mr. President, how we should vote to sustain the position taken by the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. The question before the Senate is on concurring in House amendments; therefore, to sustain the Senate amendments the Senate will vote "No."

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, is it not true that the regulation of rates will be within the scope and power of the new Public Utility Commission?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, that is quite correct.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan, has faith in that Commission?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I have faith, but before it will be possible for them to give the people any reasonable rate it will take years—I do not know how many.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in how long a time would they be able to get it if this bill should pass with the House amendments concurred in?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, within a comparatively short time.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am willing to see the rates brought down. Therefore, I am willing to go along with the Senator from Washington County.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill, as I see it, is to give electricity to rural communities who have never had it and do not have it now. The Federal Government is paying out the taxpayers' cash for the purpose of serving electricity to farmers who do not have it, and I am advised that the fund that is available for that purpose will not cover one-tenth of the districts that have not a single light in their districts; and if the Senator from Philadelphia's position is correct, or is adopted, the taxpayers' money furnished through the Federal Government, can be put into a cooperative to help it, and that cooperative can build a line right down a road or a street where they have adequate service today; and they will naturally build there if they want to have a lot of customers and have a paying line. Now, it was not the intention of this bill at all—that this money should be taken out of the taxpayers' pockets for the purpose of putting electricity into farmers' homes where they do not take it, and where, if they used every cent of it, one-tenth of the farmers would take it; but under this proposition advanced by the Senator from Philadelphia, this cooperative could build lines where we have lines now, and theer would not be a single light added to a farmer's home.

We have a Public Utility Commission today, who will protect those where the lines run; but I say to you, to take the taxpayers' money and substitute a cooperative, to build a line along where they have lines today, under the complete domination of the Public Utility Commission, I say to you we are doing wrong.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am willing to accept information concerning the farmers and farmers' needs in districts covered by those Senators who represent the farmers; and I, by taking the position which I am now taking, have no intent to place my limited knowledge, which I have received by losing money on a farm I happen to own near Philadelphia, over that of the Senator from Washington and of the Senator from Tioga; I am concerned about establishing rural electrification for those people, whether farmers or otherwise, who want it, and what is troubling me is the practical proposition: in the amendment inserted here in the Senate, which provides that this Act shall not apply—in other words, cooperatives cannot be formed in those districts where service is being furnished by a Public Utility—if that amendment, which was inserted, had said "satisfactory" or "proper service," I would not be concerned so much about the amendments, because while I do not live in a rural district I certainly do not live in the wilderness either, and I have heard, and the Senate has heard, on the floor already, between the time of the introduction of this bill and the time as of the passage of this amendment, electrical companies have strung lines in certain districts, and will give service,—but the kind of service they will give is the whole question involved. The very fact that they have begun to string service lines only when this bill was introduced neutralizes, to my mind the good intent and make it necessary for us to see to it that they give the rural districts real service.

However, getting back to the practical proposition: if the tenor of the House is indicated by the vote on this amendment, namely, that this amendment shall stay—and if the tenor of the House is indicated by their amendment action, taking out the Senate amendment, I can see the results of our nonconcurrence—a conference committee will be appointed and the bill will probably fall; and it is because I am afraid that will happen that I propose to vote for concurrence in the House amendments; and I believe the action of the House, in taking this inadequate amendment out, should be confirmed.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, when these Senators from Philadelphia, with bleeding hearts, begin to worry about the farmers I get very suspicious; and I say this, that if we are going to allow these cooperatives to take this money and use it only where they have lines, and not compel them to spend every cent where they do not have lines, we are making a mistake; and I am glad if the companies in existence today are constructing all over Pennsylvania—that was the purpose of this Act; and if they construct a line on every road in Pennsylvania, as a result of this Act, I do not care, for that was the purpose of this Act—to get electricity where it is not now. And if we listen to these gentlemen from Philadelphia, and follow their advice, every dollar under the bill could be used to put a line along where they have a line now, and not a new light lit in Pennsylvania.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, gladly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, living so far away, in the wilds of Philadelphia, I am concerned, and want to inquire from the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, what farms are situated in Pittsburgh.

Mr. McGINNIS. Well, I want to say. Mr. President, I was born on a farm, and lived there until I was twenty-five years of age.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to say that I, too, was born on a farm, and I was not spoiled by my residence in Philadelphia nor did I lose my touch with the farmer, as the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, seems to have done in Pittsburgh.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this argument; I would like, however, to say one thing on the question that has been raised—about constructing lines and not giving adequate service. I have, since it was voted on here,—and there has been so much argument—taken this question up with one of the members of the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania, that where the lines have been constructed the Public Utility Commission has full power to compel them to give adequate service or get out of the territory.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, it seems to me that there is a lot of misunderstanding on this bill, and I trust that there is no hale of suspicion hanging over me. because I, too, like the Senator from Washington was born out on a farm, and come from a County that has farmers. It seems to me that we are slightly confused, or else intentionally evading the real issue here in this bill. We all know that there has been a Federal Rural Electrification Administration for many years now, and they have been trying to advance a national program for the purpose of extending to the rural communities the conveniences and benefits that come from the use of electricity, and the policy of the Federal Government is very definite.

Now, the arguments here advanced in opposition to the amendments of the House are that this bill permits the use of public funds to parallel the existing lines of the public utility. The gentlemen who are arguing against utility line extended into a district, and the service is available to this farmer or to this rural district, that this farmer or this rural resident must be forced into the clutches of the public utility, whereas the policy of the Federal Government is just the opposite of that—they say if there is a rural district wherein live people who, notwithstanding there is a public utility line in that district, do not avail themselves of this service because the rates are exorbitant, and because the public utility, under the regulations that we have had to date, have been exorbitant that the farmer or rural individual who has not availed himself of that service, who has no service on his property—that the services predicated upon exorbitant rates, that have been available to him for many years.

Now, I think that the difference of opinion is at that point, and I am not finding any fault nor do I accuse my colleagues who believe in the protection of these public utilities, which utilities have for many years charged these exorbitant rates, which have held these lines but these farmers and rural people have not availed themselves of it because the rates were exorbitant. They are perfectly honest, I think, in defending the investment of the public utility, but I say that we are not here primarily for that purpose, that we are here primarily to serve the people—the general welfare of the people, and I say that this bill as amended by the House is interested in the welfare of the farmer and the users of electricity; and I say that it is our public duty here that if the rural electrification as planned by the Federal Government, and is now planned by this bill as sent to this Senate by the House, takes the stand in defense of the user of electricity, the consumer,—I say that it is our public duty, for the general welfare of the people, to stand on the House amendment, because it will make electricity cheaper for those who upto this time have not had it, and who have not availed themselves of the present service of the public utilities due to the exorbitant rates charged by them.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I am not here concerned primarily with either the utilities or the farmers, my impression concerning the controversy here has to with the definition of "rural area" in the bill. The original definition was a common sense definition of "rural area." When that bill came before the Senate there was added to the definition of "rural area" a provision which, in effect, defined "rural area" as an area where public utility companies had not already dug holes, placed poles or strung lines. In my estimation that is a ridiculous and dishonest definition of "rural area."

For that reason—and that amendment having been stricken out by the House, the dishonesty and ridiculous effect of it having been removed, I shall vote to concur in the House amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the amendment?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—12

Barthold,	DiSilvestro,	Kunkel,	Ruth,
Cavalcante,	Eroe,	Mundy,	Shapiro,

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 638, as follows:

An Act to further amend section four of the act approved the eighteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 498) entitled "An act defining consolidation of schools providing for the establishment and regulation of consolidated schools and providing for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools" by making certain changes in the provisions for reimbursements by the Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the second and third paragrophs of section four of the act approved the eighteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 498) entitled "An act defining consolidation of schools providing for the establishment and regulation of consolidated schools and providing for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools" as last amended by section four of the act approved on the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 634) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4

The Commonwealth in order to encourage the establishment and maintenance of approved consolidated elementary schools or approved consolidated junior high schools or approved joint consolidated schools shall as provided in this act pay annually from the treasury to school districts and unions of school districts maintaining or transporting pupils to and from such schools an amount determined by (a) the true valuation per teacher per district as provided by law and (b) a given per centum of the sum which has been expended during the previous school year by such a school district or union of school districts for transporting pupils of said schools to and from said schools as follows

The amount paid by the Commonwealth to a school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or less shall be seventy-five (75) per centum more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) sixty (60) per centum and more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) fifty (50) per centum After the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine if the Department of Public Instruction approves the transportation as to methods and means and the contracts provided therefor the Commonwealth will pay annually to the school district furnishing such transportation according to the following schedule of reimbursement to a school district which has a true valuation per teacher of assessable property of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or less ninety per centum (90%) more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) but not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) eighty per centum (80%) more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) but not more than seventy-five thousand dollars $(75,000) seventy-five per centum (75%) more than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) but not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) seventy per centum (70%) more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) sixty-five per centum (65%) more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) but not more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) sixty per centum (60%) more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) but not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) fifty-five per centum (55%) more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) fifty per centum (50%) one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) fifty per centum (50%) Provided That in case any of said school district or union of said school districts has purchased or shall hereafter purchase and approved conveyance which is used exclusively for the transportation of school children to and from said schools said sum may include a reasonable charge for depreciation and repairs not to exceed in any year fifteen (15%) per centum of the cost of said approved school conveyance Provided That the State's share of depreciation and repairs shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) [one hundred dollars ($100)] per vehicle per year Provided further That the State's share for transportation shall not exceed one dollar ($1.00) per day per pupil for the actual number of days such pupil is transported to and from school Provided further That districts receiving reimbursement on the basis of seventy-five (75%) per centum and sixty (60%) per centum shall not receive more than four thousand dollars ($4,000) in any one school year from the State for transportation Provided further That districts receiving reimbursement on the basis of fifty (50%) per centum shall not receive more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one year from the State for transportation

After the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine the provision heretofore limiting reimbursement for transportation to a maximum of four thousand dollars ($4,000) in districts reimbursed on the basis of seventy-five per centum (75%) and sixty per centum (60%) and three thousand dollars ($3,000) in districts reimbursed on the basis of fifty per centum (50%) shall no longer apply but no district shall receive from the Commonwealth in any one year more than eight thousand dollars ($8,000) as reimbursement for transportation

The State Council of Education may for cause specified by it direct the withholding of such reimbursement in any given case permanently or until the school district has complied with the law or regulations of the State Council of Education

It shall be unlawful for any driver or owner of a vehicle transporting pupils under a contract with a school district or for any member of or board of school directors to demand request or accept any compensation for transporting pupils other than the compensation stipulated in the contract filed with and approved by the Department of Public Instruction

Section 2 Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided the provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 602, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section six, and sections eleven and eighteen as amended, of the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 762), entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto; declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," further regulating the administration of such Fund, the fixing of premiums payable by subscribers; the distribution of unexpended balances to subscribers; the collection of accounts against subscribers and providing for the giving of certified copies of the records of the Fund showing liens against subscribers and fixing fees therefor, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 664, (House Bill No. 1085), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" changing the manner of creation of townships of the second class.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I should like to call the attention of the members of the Senate to certain features of this bill. I ask them to turn to page 135, Section 1033, where it states the following: "No person shall operate a vehicle on the highways of this Commonwealth having two levels for the carriage of other vehicles." And on page 136, line 1, as follows: "No person shall operate a vehicle on the highways of this Commonwealth carrying other vehicles any part of which is carried at a height of more than one hundred and fifteen (115) inches above the ground."

I see the purpose of this bill, Mr. President, but I think it has been aimed at one certain group of people. To be more specific, the passage of this bill will entirely eliminate the carriers of automobiles and trailers. I know people in our Commonwealth who have invested upwards of ten thousand dollars in these carriers, and upon the passage of this bill they will have no way, that I can see, to get back any part of their investment. I believe that some day, possibly, we might enact legislation to take care of trucks, to take care of trailers; and, if we do, let it be equal; but today we are aiming directly at one group of people.

I have prepared an amendment to stroke out section 1033 entirely; and if it should be a safety measure, we have a few moments ago passed House Bill No. 851, wherein the Public Utilities Commission can regulate such a matter.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection and the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1360 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1984)

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1360 (House Bill No. 1984) passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I sat in with the Committee on Highways and put a great deal of time and study on this bill, and I would hate to see the Senate delay the passage of this bill because of the many very good provisions in the bill; it is a long bill, containing one hundred and thirty-nine pages; but I want to call the attention of the members of the Senate to this position which the Senator objects to, relative to the driving of these carriers on our highways, and to the fact that the Deputy Secretary of Revenue sat in at the committee hearing and he advised the committee that this whole subject will eventually be regulated by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The only thing that this provision really does at the present time is, it eliminates the car that is carried over—the driver's cab. We originally intended to remove the whole carrier, but, as the Senator has stated, we found there was such a tremendous investment in these carriers that it would be unfair to simply wipe them out of existence at one stroke, as this bill proposed; so we have allowed them the use of the highways until 1940. In the meantime we expect the Interstate Commerce Commission will cover the whole subject and will regulate it.

We believe that this bill as it is now is fair to everybody concerned—as fair as possible—and that the Senate should not delay the final passage of this bill by permitting it to be amended at this time.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I rise to support the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, and to speak in favor of the amendments.

Under the present law, Mr. President, any motor vehicles on our highways cannot be higher than one hundred seventy-four inches off the ground, and that one hundred seventy-four inches includes not only the vehicle but the load that it carries. Now, this code will reduce that total overheight from one seventy-four inches to one hundred fifty inches, which is a good thing; but that one hundred fifty inch overheight item refers only to those trucks which are used in carrying merchandise; and in a later section of this bill the one hundred fifty inch item is set aside for a particular type of truck, to wit, a carrier of other automobiles; and in that case, speaking now of a "car carrier," the figures are one hundred fifteen inches.

So that, members of the Senate, if that is the situation we have a figure of one hundred and fifty inches for the type of truck that carries merchandise and we have a figure of one hundred fifteen inches for the type of truck that carries other automobiles. Now, the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Rupp, either misunderstands this bill or he misreads it, because I certainly do not agree with him that this bill as it now reads protects carriers of other automobiles.

These amendements offered by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will put all trucks on the same basis, and why there should be this distinction between these two types of trucks, I do not understand, unless the railroads can get in to the one type of transportable merchandise, that is, the automobile, because that load cannot be refused, while the other, the merchandise truck, can be refused.

I hope I have made myself clear to the Senate. In brief, you have this situation, gentlemen: you have a motor vehicle code that should apply in a case like this to all classes of trucks; you should not have a code that sets one hundred fifty for one type and one hundred fifteen for the other kind of truck, because the only thing the bill means as is now reads is that all automobiles carriers shall go off the road, and that should not be, it should apply to all classes of trucks.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I rise to support the amendments from rather a different angle. The State of Pennsylvania has two points as far from each other as possible—the City of Erie and the City of Philadelphia. This bill as it is framed is going to mean thousands of dollars to the City of Erie. These automobiles are brought into Erie by boat and transported by these carriers all over the State of Pennsylvania, the estimate is impossible to make accurately. While it may be a reasonable safety measure, or may have something to do with the wear and tear on the highways, it seems to me that the financial loss to the City of Erie and its environment is far greater than any small gain that can be made by the regulation which is complained of. It is going to increase the revenues of the railroads, will delay shipments of automobiles, will strike out a business which has grown to rather large proportions in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania.

I think the City of Erie, and that region, would very gladly yield to any necessary exigency which would require this legislation, but so far as I have been unable to be convinced that it is necessary or that it will contribute so materially to the safety or the welfare of the State of Pennsylvania. I earnestly second the amendment as suggested by the Senator from Cambria County, Mr. Haluska.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I do not wish to prolong this discussion, but I wish to inject into it a suggestion that came to me, and I inject it for the consideration of the Senators. It is that the reason for the difference in the heights of the two types of trucks is the fact that the center of gravity in the one type is nearer the ground than in the other; and probably, before this bill is disposed of, that should be taken into consideration in arriving at our conclusions.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, to date there has been no indication of any kind to prove the figures or the statement that this type of transportation is more dangerous than any other type of commercial transportation. So far as its being a safety measure, I cannot see it, but it will do this one thing—it will throw out of employment hundreds and hundreds of mechanics, office clerks, truck drivers, gasoline station attendants and so forth. I think we have gone far enough in this Session; why eliminate this industry—if it can be termed an industry?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I just want to say this: anybody who drives an automobile on the highways of this Commonwealth appreciates the danger to the safety of the highways by the operation of these huge carriers on our narrow roads. They are the ones that are spoiling our highways for the very purpose for which the motorist pays a large tax on gasoline and for the privilege of using the roads. These roads were built for the motorists, and now we have a small group of people taking advantage of the roads, for the purpose of clogging up the highways; and if any of you Senators drive automobiles are caught behind one of these huge carriers you know you cannot pass that carrier unless you have a half mile vision. They travel anywhere from forty to fifty miles an hour, they fly all over the road, and unless you are on a three-lane highway you cannot pass them. I submit they are a great danger to the operation of motor vehicles on our highways.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, some of the Senators on the floor here seem to have the impression that the amendments placed in this bill were placed there at the instance of the railroads. So far as I know the railroads have no interest in the matter.

My interest in the matter is for the safety of the traveling public, in the first place; and, in the second place, in protecting the money they spend for their automobiles. If any man in this Senate ever bought an automobile—and I suppose all of the Senators have—if they would look at their bills they would find they are charged so much for the automobile and so much for delivery of it. That cost of delivery is whatever the freight rate would be, by railroad, from Detroit or wherever the car came from to the point of destination, whereas the dealers, regardless of the safety of the traveling public, get them transported for maybe one half or one third the regular freight rate on an automobile, and they pocket the difference.

Now, that is what is in this proposition, and I want to say to this Senate that this amendment ought to stay as it is. I understand there are some other amendments to be offered to this bill, to which I did not object; and for that reason I shall not vote for reconsideration of the bill; and when these amendments, brought by the Senator from Cambria County, are actually offered on the bill and are before us for action, I shall be against them, and I shall vote against them.

Mr. HALUSKA. I disagree, Mr. President, with the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. The F. O. B. price on automobiles——

The PRESIDENT. May I remind the Senators that the question is on the motion to reconsider the vote on this bill on second reading.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I just wanted to give the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, an answer.

The PRESIDENT. I will recognize the Senator, if he wishes.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I do not want the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to create a wrong impression here. The automobile dealers today, by these means of transportation, can purchase his cars and have them delivered to his doors, lowered and dropped at his garage. Under the old system the railway haulage, the average consumer dealer could not even unload the automobiles, they came packed four and five in a box car, and he found it very difficult to take these cars out of that box car and place them in his garage. So in every way it is a help to the automobile dealer and a help to the public at large.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the reconsideration of the vote by which this bill passed second reading.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and Mr. CAVALCANTE.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—16

Barthold,	Dent,	Heyburn,	Lanius,
Cavalcante,	Gelder,	Huffman,	Owlett,
Chapman,	Gilson,	Jacobs,	Reed,
Dando,	Haluska,	Kilgallen,	Wolfenden,

NAYS—24

Buckman,	Howell,	McGinnis,	Rupp,

Eroe,	Kunkel,	Pytko,	Sipe,
Frey,	Mallery,	Rankin,	Sones,
Homsher,	McCreesh,	Rice,	Stiefel,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, on May 21st we passed in this Senate, by a vote of forty to nothing, a Senate bill that deals with the same subject matter that is dealt with in lines 17, 18, 19 and 20 on page 65 of this bill, but the wording in the bill now before the Senate is different wording, and I ask unanimous consent that the wording there be made to conform with the wording of the bill that this Senate has already passed; and this amendment is merely a strike-out amendment, and the wording will conform with the bill that we have already passed, and which is over in the House.

Mr. PRESIDENT. I ask unanimous consent to amend Section 801E page 65, line 17 by striking out all of the lines after the word "over"; amend section 801E page 65, line 18 by striking out the following "tial".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this discussion. I am merely asking the Senate to do what they have already done in the bill passed, and if these words are stricken out there will be no necessity of the other bill's passing and being approved by the Governor. If these five words are stricken out, this section will be identical with the bill we have passed.

I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed second reading having been made on third reading and having been lost, cannot be made again.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is sustained.

MOTION FOR THE SENATE TO RESOLVE ITSELF INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that this Senate do now resolve itself into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special strike-out amendments.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there being no amendments before the Senate there can be no motion for the Senate to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Well, the Chair thinks that the amendments presented——

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there has been a motion made that we reconsider a vote, but there have been no amendments offered.

The PRESIDENT. The amendments on the desk are included in the motion of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that the Senate go into Committee of the Whole.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I suggest that the amendments be again read.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I raise the point that a bill on third reading and final passage cannot be considered by the Senate in Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will be very pleased to receive some authority for that.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it follows as a natural course that if a bill cannot be amended on third reading without unanimous consent, the rule cannot be evaded by invoking another rule. I am sure I can lay my hands on the decision substantiating that, but I think the proposition is clear. If it were not so there would be no end, and legislation could not be moved forward. Where there is objection, and the rule is that you need unanimous consent to make an amendment on third reading, that is the authority for the proposition that you cannot go into Committee of the Whole in order to avoid that rule.

Mr. President, I refer the Chair to Rule 5, dealing with motions on going into Committee of the Whole (Page 196, Pennsylvania Manuel, 1935-36), "Decisions of the Senate".)

"The Speaker decided that it was not in order to go into Committee of the Whole(the bill being on third reading) for the purpose of striking out the amendment that has been inserted on second reading."

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I also refer the Chair to rule No. 33, on page 15 of the Pennsylvania Legislative Directory for 1937, which provides for going into Committee of the Whole when a bill is on third reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to read rule 6 on page 196 of the Pennsylvania Manuel for the years 1935-1936, which is as follows:

"Mr. Thompson submitted the point of order, that the motion was not in order because it proposed to strike out on third reading an amendment which has been inserted on second reading. The President decided the point of order not well taken, as the proposed amendment included other matter, in addition to the proviso which had been inserted on second reading of the bill."

The Speaker decided it was not in order, in rule 5, to go into Committee of the Whole, the bill being on third reading, for the purpose of striking out an amendment that had been inserted on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. Of course, this is not an amendment inserted on second reading. The point of order is not sustained.

QUESTION OF LEGISLATIVE INQUIRY

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, will state his question of legislative inquiry.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, am I correct in believing that a vote in the affirmative on the motion to go into Committee of the Whole is a vote to automatically carry the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. The Senator is correct in his conclusion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, before we vote on this question I think it should be brought to the attention of the Senators that if these amendments are passed there will have to be a reflector on every car in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I think the members should know that.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and Mr. CAVALCANTE. and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Cavalcante,	Gelder.	Howell,	Owlett.
Chapman,	Gilson,	Jacobs	Wolfenden.
Dando.	Haluska.	Kilgallen,	Huffman.

Homsher,	McGinnis,	Rupp,	Stiefel,
Jaspan,	Mundy,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And said bill having been read the third time and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL NO. 197, INTRODUCED FROM HOUSE WITH AMENDMENT.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 197, and move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to said bill.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed according to the Constitution, were twice read as follows

Amend the title, line 1, page 1, by striking out the words "an Act" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "a Supplement."

Amend the title, page 1, line 2, by striking out before the word "To" the words "To amend Section 1 of."

Amend the title, page 2, line 23, by striking out after the word "boards and before the word "fix", the word "and."

Amend Section 1, page 3, by striking out all of line 13.

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 19 by inserting after the word "terms" the following:

"The boards so appointed shall have all the powers and perform all the duties vested in and imposed upon the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes in counties of the third class by the act to which this is a supplement".

Amend Section 1, page 4, by striking out all of lines 3 to 10 inclusive.

Amend page 5, line 21, by striking out after the word "section" the numeral "3" and inserting in lieu thereof, "5".

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, tell us what the bill is, and what the effect of the amendments will be?

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, the purpose of the bill is to take the appointment of the County Assessors in third class counties away from the County Commissioners and place it under the control of the Auditor General.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I understand the purport of the bill, but what is the affect of the House amendments?

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, the House amendments are that it definitely takes out of the hands of the County Commissioners the appointment of the assessors; and there is a Constitutional severance clause there, and also, in addition, it stated, previously, that one of the assessors must be of the minority party, and that was stricken out by the House.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I understand it is a one hundred per cent Democratic bill.

And the question concurring.

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1380 (House Bill No. 906), entitled:

An Act creating a State Worlds Fair Commission defining the powers and duties of said commission providing for participation in the New York Worlds Fair and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to call the Senate's attention to the fact that this is a bill appropriating $75,000 for some participation in the New York World's Fair, creating another commission. I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, whether this $75,000 is included in the Governor's budget?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, the amount was not included in the original amount submitted in the budget, but has been approved by the budget secretary, and has been taken care of in the general appropriation.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I want to call the Senate's attention to the fact that this creates a commission known as the State World's Fair Commission, to be composed of five members and they gave power to employ such assistants, clerks, and other employees, as may be deemed necessary, to fix their compensation, and I would like to ask the Senator why it is necessary to appoint a commission of a whole slue of employees, in order that we participate in a word's fair in New York.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, on this bill, as the Senator from Tioga is well aware, New York State is holding—there will be a World's Fair held in New York City. Pennsylvania is to participate in that fair. People from all over the United States and all over the world will be in attendance, I know of perhaps, no better way to advertise Pennsylvania—Pennsylvania products bureau, Pennsylvania industries, Pennsylvania scenery, and there is other things which Pennsylvania has, to sell to the public, to the millions of people who will attend that fair.

I have been informed that the other states have appropriated money to participate in that, and it seems to me that a State as large as Pennsylvania, adjacent to New York State, where the fair will be held, should certainly be represented and in a manner fitting to the great State that we have.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations will permit himself to be interrogated further?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Adams, Mr. Rice, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Adams, if it is not a fact that President, Roosevelt vetoed the appropriation sponsored by Congress for this purpose?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I have been informed that it was vetoed as a constitutional matter—that there was some constitutional question involved in the appropriations for that purpose.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it seems to me when we have well nigh 500,000 people in Pennsylvania on the relief rolls of this State, when we are taxing our industries, to the extent that they are moving out by the wholesale, as the Chairman of the special committee investigating conditions of this State has so fully explained in their last report,—I say, Mr. President, it seems to me that this State at this time, and the taxpayers of this State, cannot afford to spend $75,000 on the fair being put on by New York State, a bill that the President, of these United States has vetoed an appropriation bill for.

We create commission after commission here, in this Legislature, and appropriate Delaware $25,000, $50,000 and $75,000 for these investigations, and now comes another appropriation of $75,000, which will be pulled out of the poor, unfortunate people of this Commonwealth. I ask the Senate to vote down this appropriation.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I might state that Pennsylvania will get direct benefit from this World's Fair that is being held in New York City. There will be millions of people traveling across Pennsylvania to reach New York City to attend this Fair. The State will receive direct benefit in taxes from gasoline, from business which will be created by the public travelling to this Fair; and I request the Senate to approve the appropriation.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, is it not a fact that under other administrations it has always been a policy for Pennsylvania to participate in such activities, to appropriate money for such participation?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am sorry I cannot answer that question. I still, however, have very vividly in my mind the fair that was put on in Philadelphia some few years ago, which was a very disasterous affair, and an unsuccessful affair; and I think we have spent enough money for fairs in New York City.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett. I can appreciate that the Philadelphia Fair was unsuccessful and disasterous, but I would remind the Senator that he cannot blame that on New York nor on the Democratic Party.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, whether the Committee on Appropriations has but made any appropriation for the commission that he heads, studying the industrial conditions of Pennsylvania.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, they made one appropriation of $5,000.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, does the Senator from Westmoreland consider that adequate?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, does the Senator from Westmoreland consider that this $75,000 appropriation to New York's State Show is more important than the appropriation that he has been seeking for his committee?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not; but I do think that this is an important appropriation, because it serves to bring to the knowledge of many millions of people that never come into Pennsylvania, the value of Pennsylvania's products, and industries—which will also be of service to our tax commission.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—32

Barthold,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Reed,
Cavalcante,	Haluska,	Law,	Rice,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1283, (House Bill No. 1751), as follows:

An Act relating to suits and judgments on obligations accompanying mortgages heretofore or hereafter foreclosed changing the rule of evidence that the price paid at a sheriff sale for the mortgaged property is conclusive evidence of its value providing a procedure by which the actual value of such property when purchased by or for the holder of the mortgage may be determined and credited on the mortgage debt and providing a limitation of time within which such procedure may be invoked

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in any case where a mortgage or holder of a mortgage or the attorney of either has purchased the mortgaged premises at a sheriff sale heretofore or hereafter held and such mortgagee or mortgage holder takes title to the mortgaged premises so purchased either directly or indirectly the price bid and paid for the mortgaged property so purchased shall not in any proceeding to collect the balance of the mortgage debt brought against the mortgagor or ny person secondarily liable on or for the obligation accompanying the mortgage be deemed conclusive evidence of the value of the mortgaged property but the same shall be prima facie evidence only of such value

Section 2 In any action or proceeding on or under the obligation accompanying said mortgage to collect the balance of the mortgage debt against the mortgagor or anyone secondarily liable therefor said mortgagor or person secondarily liable shall have the right to allege and show as a matter of defense and set-off that the property purchased at the sheriff sale was fairly worth the amount of the debt secured by it at the time and place of the sale or that the amount bid and paid therefor was substantially less than its true value The burden of so providing shall be upon the mortgagor or party secondarily liable and upon such proof said mortgagor or person secondarily liable shall be entitled to have the judgment satisfied or credit entered thereon against the debt to the full value of the mortgaged property so established Provided That where judgment has been entered by confession on the bond or obligation accompanying said mortgage the defendant in said judgment shall have a right to petition the court in which the judgment is entered to open judgment and be allowed to establish the actual value of the property and to have credit for such value as aforesaid duly credited against the amount of the judgment

Section 3 Either the mortgagee mortgage holder mortgagor or any person secondarily liable on the obligation accompanying the mortgage may at any time within five years from the date of the sheriff sale make application to the court in which a judgment on the obligation accompanying the mortgage has been entered by confession or if not entered in any court having jurisdiction over the person of the mortgagee or mortgage holder and to have said court find and decree the value of the property purchased by said mortgagee or mortgage holder at the sheriff sale as of the time and place of said sale and to deduct said value from any judgment that may have been entered by confession or enter on the bond such values so established as a credit or payment on account thereof Provided however That the burden of proof of establishing said value shall be upon the mortgagor or the person secondarily liable And provided also That the issue of the value of the property sought to be established under this act shall be determined by a jury And provided further That in any case in which the right to apply for relief herein granted shall be sooner barred the application to the court may be made within two years from the effective date of this act

Section 4 This act shall not be construed to effect the title to any real or personal property sold under any judgment prior to the effective date of this act or to the commencement of any proceedings herein authorized to be begun on the part of the mortgagor

Section 5 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1426, (House Bill No. 1959), entitled:

An Act to provide for the conservation protection improvement and profitable use of agricultural land resources in the State of Pennsylvania and for cooperation with the governments and agencies of other states and of the United States pursuant to the provisions of section seven of an act of the Congress of the United States known as the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act to assent to and accept the provisions of said act to constitute and establish the Pennsylvania Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Committee and in conformity with the provisions of said act to designate and authorize said committee as the State agency of this State in conformity with such provisions to formulate submit to the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States and administer state plans to carry out the provisions of this act to define the powers and duties of said committee as such State agency to provide for the selection of its members and otherwise to provide for the administration of this act and making an appropriation

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Short Title This act may be known and cited as Pennsylvania Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Act

Section 2 Declaration of Purpose (a) It is hereby recognized and declared

(1) That the soil resources and fertility of the land of this Commonwealth and the economic use thereof the prosperity of the farming population of this Commonwealth and the navigability of the rivers and harbors of this Commonwealth and the prevention of floods in this Commonwealth are matters affected with a public interest

(2) That the welfare of this Commonwealth has been impaired and is in danger of being further impaired by destruction of its soil fertility by uneconomic use and waste of its land by exploitation and wasteful and unscientific use of its soil resources by floods and impairment of its rivers and harbors and of the navigability of its waters and water courses as a result of soil erosion and by the decrease in the purchasing power of the net income per person on farms in the Commonwealth as compared with the net income per person in the Commonwealth not on farms

(3) That said evils have been augmented and are likely to be augmented by similar conditions in other states and are so interrelated with such conditions in other states that the remedying of such conditions in this Commonwealth requires action by this Commonwealth in cooperation with the governments and agencies of other states and of the United States and requires assistance therein by the government and agencies of the United States and

(4) That the formulation and effectuation of this Commonwealth plans in conformity with the provisions of section seven of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act is calculated to remedy said conditions and will tend to advance the public welfare of this Commonwealth

(b) Therefore in order to promote the welfare of the people of this Commonwealth by aiding in the preservation and improvement of soil fertility in the promotion of the economic use and conservation of land in the diminution of exploitation and wasteful and unscientific use of soil resources in the protection of rivers and harbors against the result of soil erosion and in the re-establishment at as rapid a rate as is practicable and in the general public interest of the ratio between the purchasing power of the net income per person on farms and that of the net income per person not on farms that prevailed during the five-year period August one thousand nine hundred and nine to July one thousand nine hundred and fourteen inclusive as determined from statistics available in the United States Department of Agriculture and the maintenance of such ratio the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby assents to and accepts the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act and adopts the policy and purpose of cooperating with the governments and agencies of other states and of the United States in the accomplishment of the policy and purposes specified in section seven of said act subject however to the following limitations

(1) The powers conferred in this act shall be used to assist voluntary action calculated to effectuate such purposes

(2) Such powers shall not be used to discourage the production of supplies of foods and fibers in this Commonwealth sufficient when taken together with the production thereof in other states of the United States to maintain normal domestic human consumption as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States from the records of consumption in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty to one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine inclusive taking into consideration increased population quantities of any commodities that were forced into domestic consumption by a decline in exports of particular commodities and the quantities of substitutes available for domestic consumption within any general class of food commodities

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, for what purpose he desires to have this bill recommitted?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I am making this motion at the request of the sponsors of the bill, who want to offer some amendments.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, why not have the amendments offered on the floor?

Mr. REED. Mr. President I do not have them and one of the sponsors, who was here, said the amendments would be ready.

However, if it is more satisfactory, I will ask that the bill go over in its order.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, that would be more satisfactory.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to recommit this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the seconder of the motion agree to the withdrawal?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I understand this bill, having been passed by the House, was considered by the Senate Committee. I ask the Senate not to recommit the bill.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, if I weren't at all convinced by the arguments put up by the floor leader of the Democratic Party, I should hesitate very much to rise to my feet; but knowing as I do that he is insincere in making these objections, I insist that we vote upon the motion.

And the question recurring,

Will he Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1427, (House Bill No. 2057), entitled:

An Act to protect the public against fraud and deception regulating the business of selling liquid fuels by requiring persons engaged in the sale storage use or distribution of liquid fuels to secure a permit or permits for pumps or outlets used therein prescribing the method and manner of obtaining such permit or permits and prescribing the fees for the issuance thereof conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and prescribing penalties.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, going into the merits of this bill, this bill provides very simply, and is just another illustration of one of the departments of this Government, to make further regulations in regard to the retailing of oil and gasoline in the State of Pennsylvania. What they suggest is this: that if you want to establish an oil station, and put up a pump, you have got, first of all, to apply to the Department for permission to do that; you have got to fill out a form and after a lot of questions, and, for the privilege of answering those questions, you have got to pay the Department one dollar.

Let me tell you what they do now; in order to establish an oil station or erect a pump now in any city or borough, you first of all have got to get a permit from the city or borough to establish that pump—that is the first thing you have got to do now under our present regulations; and you have got to apply to a State Department—I think it is the Revenue Department, under the Fire Bureau or what ever name is given to it—for permission to establish the pumping station, and satisfy that department that you have complied with the fire department rules and so forth—you have got to do that now.

What this bill does is, it adds to that—for no reason at all that I can see—and have now to apply to another bureau and fill out some more forms, for which you have to pay another one dollar.

This bill affects the ordinary retailer—we have thousands of them down in my county, and the Senator from Fayette must have thousands in his county, too—

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I have two of them.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, two thousand. And I submit, Mr. President, this is a burden upon the ordinary retailer, who is now faced with so much red tape, as this is; he has, first of all, to satisfy his local authorities; then he has to satisfy the State authorities, now, before he puts up a single pump. I cannot see the reason for this new regulation—of which the ordinary citizen has to pay another $1.00 to another Department, and fill out some more forms and go through some more regulations.

The big oil companies are not interested in this bill, because they are not paying the dollar; it is the little fellow who is doing it, and it seems to me that in back of this there is something far more serious than a Department trying to control the little fellow. They are trying to control some few companies, in one section of this State, but that we do not know of. There is some reason behind this, outside of the mere provisions that are set forth in this bill, and I think that at this stage of the session, the legislature should not be called upon to pass its decision on a bill like this.

The amendments were read by the Clerk.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to say, in connection with this bill on the amendments offered, that this proposed fee here, is suggested by the Independent Gasoline Dealers of Pennsylvania as a means of financing the investigation which has been authorized by this legislature. It will be used towards the payment of the $50,000 appropriation that we made.

These men desire to have an investigation, to find out the cause of the present difficult situation in the gasoline and oil industry of Pennsylvania. To make any of the suggestive changes would destroy this money necessary for this investigation, and would disturb the function of the State of Pennsylvania. I therefore ask this Senate to defeat the proposed amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The amendments were not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill be transcribed for a third reading.

be recommitted to the Committee on State Boards.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator for what purpose he is having this bill recommitted?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, at the request of the sponsor of the bill, who desires to offer some amendments.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, why not have the amendments offered on the floor?

Mr. REED. Mr. President. I do not have them, and the sponsor said that the amendments could be read and the bill put over in order.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1146, (HOUSE BILL NO. 1055)

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, for the purpose of amendment, I call up Senate Bill No. 1146, (House Bill No. 1055), on third reading page 3, of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1146, (House Bill No. 1055), entitled:

An Act to further amend clause twenty-three of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" prohibiting the payments of appropriations to school districts failing to pay minimum salaries and increments prescribed for members of teaching and supervisory staffs.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend sec. 2, page 6, line 23, by striking out the words "thirty-seven" and inserting in lieu thereof: "thirty-eight."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like the sponsor of the amendments to tell us what the effect of those amendments will be?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, the amendments are offered on behalf of the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, who had to leave; and I understand from Senator Ruth, that those amendments are correcting printer's errors in the bill. I have no personal information regarding them, myself, other than that.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer additional amendments to this bill, as follows:

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I think we do not understand these amendments.

Mr. RUPP. Mr. President, let me explain them. These amendments were not given to me by any public utility in the State of Pennsylvania, they were given to me by the President of the Taxpayers League of the State of Pennsylvania; and the effect is—for the information of the Senator from Allegheny—that it permits the school districts to adjust their budgets so that they are in a position to take care of the finances. This bill provides hat they will be in a position to do it by 1938. It gives them a breathing spell until that time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 488 (HOUSE BILL NO. 99)

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I call up, for the purpose of amendment, Senate Bill No. 488, (House Bill No. 99), entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and 'providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" by changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where they are no dependents imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending clarifying and changing the provisions of said act.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senate vote?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I voted 'aye'.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I voted 'aye'.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move to reconsider that the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I voted 'aye'.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I voted 'aye'.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend sec. 1 (sec. 306), page 19, line 14, by inserting a light-face bracket after the word "dollars" thus:]; amend sec. 1 (sec. 306), page 19, line 14, by striking out with heavy-face brackets the following: "[]"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 420), page 63, line 20, by striking out with heavy-face bracket the following: "[";; amend sec 1 (sec. heavy-face brackets the following: amend sec. 420), page 63, line 20, by insreting a heavy-face bracket after the word "fixed" thus: [; amend sec. 1 (sec. 420), page 63, lines 26 and 27, by striking out with heavy-face brackets all of said lines; amend sec. 1 (sec. 420), page 63, line 28, by striking out with heavy-face brackets the first word in the line "and"; amend sec. 1 (sec. 503), page 81, line 24, by inserting a heavy-face bracket after the word "alone" thus:]

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I offer, as an explanation to these amendments, that we made certain amendments on the last evening the committee met, and decided upon certain amendments; I had only one copy of the amendments, and when they were inserted into the original copy of the bill, they placed—the brackets after the wrong words in most instances, and the whole meaning of the amendments was lost. Therefore, I ask you to accept the amendments as the proper amendments offered by the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL NO. 892

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, May 27, 1937.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That Senate Bill No. 892, Printer's No. 376, entitled:

An Act concerning children under six years of age with defective hearing; imposing duties on the Department of Health, the Department of Public Instruction, on parents, guardians, nurses and physicians; and placing certain costs on school districts, and making an appropriation.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, this resolution was offered at the request of the Governor's office, but due to the fact that a similar resolution has just been sent over from the House, I ask that it be withdrawn.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the resolution is withdrawn.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. SIPE, from the Committee on State Boards reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1454, (House Bill No. 1757), entitled:

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1835

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon the amendments made by the Senate to the foregoing bill.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, the purpose of this bill was to give the citizens the right to set up their own public utilities. The amendments that were inserted by the Senate said that if the Public Utilities Commission found that the service as has been provided was adequate, the municipality of the political subdivision could not set up its own public untility whatever it might be.

My colleague, from Beaver County, Mr. Caputo, thinks that this amendment has destroyed the purpose of the Act because the service may be adequate, but it may not be economical. Therefore, I ask the Senators to vote against this motion of the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, that the Senator's vote on these amendments.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to say that I believe the amendments the Senate placed in are necessary for a proper administeration of the law by the Public Utilities Commission, and it is dangerous in the extreme to permit municipalities, without the ruling of the Public Utilities Commission as to the adequacy of the present service, to go into business and competition with that service.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1297, HOUSE BILL No. 1000.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I call up at this time, from page 24 of today's calendar, Senate Bill No 1297, House Bill No. 1000, on second reading entitled:

An Act concerning game and other wild birds and wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I offer the following amendments:

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I ask the privilege of interrogating the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, on the amendments?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, what is the nature of the amendments?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the nature of the amendments is this: the amendments pertain to the hunting code; we had certain feautres in the code that were objectionable to certain Senators, and they together with the Game Commissioner, succeeded in ironing out their difficulties.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I desire to ask what sections the Senator from Westmoreland proposes to amend?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the skunk section.

The PRESIDENT. There are quite a number of amendments to the code. Is there any Senator who desires to have them read in full? If not, the Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, this is not a very sporting proposition; it was well known, without that section 101, relating to skunks—four-legged skunks. Now, this is a blanket amendment offered, and it does not give a person very much of a chance to keep in tact that section.

Now, this may seem to very trivial matter to my friends here in the Senate, but I want to say to you that we of out of Section 101, just destroys the nature of the present We proposed a bill in the House, which closes the season on skunks, and left out to petition the Game Commission for an, open season in counties where the animals grow were considered obnoxious. That bill passed the House almost unanimously, and came over here to the Senate. It was reported out of the Game Committee unanimously and was recommitted to the Committee on Forests and Waters.

Now, we want to kill this skunk, we do not want to drown him,—and the bill stayed there.

Now, when this bill came over, the House had reversed the language and opened the season of Skunksoboro over the State, and permitted those counties that wanted the season closed, to do so by petition, and I cannot understand, for the life of me why we in the rural districts must be bullied and brow-beaten by city people, who do not understand our situation, and, this blanket amendment here does not give us a fair sporting chance. I submit to my friends, in the Senate that that amendment should be a separate amendment, and should be given a fair, full time for consideration. I am willing to take the short end of the stick if the Senate says so, but I do not like this kind of a deal, and I object to the amendments.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I assure the good Senator from York that I am no fonder of skunks han he is, either the four-legged kind or any other; but I want to say, the very thing he has in mind is accomplishing. However, if I can find out which wording the Senator desires to have in the bill, maybe I can cooperate with him on the skunk question. Is that satisfactory to the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, when I interrogated the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, he did not seem very clear on the subject, and I do not believe he is very clear on it now. I insist on my position that the striking out of Section 101, just destroys the nature of the present act, and I say still that I object to the amendments.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am going to ask the Senate to vote with me on these amendments. This is a very valuable bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments made by the House?

The PRESIDENT. The ayes seems to have it.

Roll call required by Mr. Rankin.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, will you please repeat the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The question before the Senate is on concurring in the amendments.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, like many other Senators here, I do not understand this situation. About a month ago I opened up a letter which read, "Dear Senator, even a skunk has some good qualities, and that is the reason I am writing to you." And in that letter they tried to tell me, a 'City' Senator, just what this skunk problem was. I do not know yet what it is all about.

The PRESIDENT. The bill now provides that the skunks shall be included as a fur-bearing animal.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I want to vote as the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius, votes.

The PRESIDENT. That is against being included fur-bearing animals.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

A division having been called for, 19 Senators voted in the affirmative and sixteen in the negative. Whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The commission may also acquire title to lands by condemnation proceedings in the same manner as provided for the condemnation of lands for State Forests

The commission may also purchase tax delinquent lands from the commissioners of the respective counties or from the county treasurers of the respective counties as provided by law

The commission may acquire by purchase or otherwise timber minerals oil gas or other rights outstanding for or on lands for which titles have been or are being appointed

The commission may exchange timber which should be cut to improve wild-life conditions or minerals or oil or gas from lands for which title has been acquired for suitable lands having an equal or greater value than the estimated value thereof

Lands for which titles are acquired may be designated State Game Lands or State Game Farms or State Game Propagation Areas depending upon the purpose for which they are to be used Other lands for which the commission secures control or partial control may be given such designation as the commission may decide or as may be agreed to by the owner thereof

The commission may lease or acquire title to lands from which the ownership of minerals oil or gas and the right to mine and drill for or remove the same have been excepted and reserved or from which water rights or timber or other rights have been excepted or reserved provided such exceptions and reservations will not seriously interfere with the purpose for which the property is acquired

All acquisitions of lands shall be made only with the consent of a majority of the commission The president shall represent the commission in the execution of land purchase contracts In the execution of leases and other similar agreements approved by the commission the executive director may represent the commission

The commission may lease or otherwise secure rights of way on and across either publicly-owned or privately-owned lands or water or other rights which may be required to conduct its proper functions

Section 902 Title and Control The title to any lands to be acquired by purchase gift condemnation exchange or otherwise shall be taken in the name of the Commonwealth for use of the Pennsylvania Game Commission

The title records for such lands shall first be carefully searched and examined by the commission through its employes or agents and when satisfied a valid title can be secured a brief of the title shall be submitted to the Attorney General or a deputy attorney general whom he may designate for such review as he may deem necessary and if he considers said title valid he shall approve it and so notify the commission

The deed to any such lands shall be deposited with the Secretary of Internal Affairs

The entire control of all such lands shall be under the direction of the commission

Section 903 Purchase Price No land to be used as State Game Lands shall be purchased at a price exceeding thirty dollars per acre except that the commission may pay what it considers a fair and reasonable price for land with or without buildings required for administrative purposes in connection with State Game Lands or State Game Refuges

For land to be used as State Game Farms the commission may pay what it considers a fair and reasonable price consistent with farm values in the locality in which any such land may be located

For timber minerals oil gas or other rights outstanding for or on lands for which titles have been or are being acquired the commission may pay such prices as it considers fair and reasonable

Buildings for administration management or other purposes with or without land may be purchased or constructed and land may be purchased upon which to construct such buildings at prices which the commission considers fair and reasonable consistent with the purpose for which intended

The commission may expend for lands or buildings or other improvements or for leases during any year such amount as in its opinion can be allotted for such purposes

Section 904 Exchange or Sale The commission may by resolution adopted by unanimous vote at a meeting when at least a majority of the members are present and voting authorize the exchange of any lands for which title has been acquired or part thereof or buildings or other improvements and appurtenances thereto for privately-owned lands or buildings having an equal or greater value and suitable for wild-life purposes when the commission deems such exchange for the best interests of the wild-life of the Commonwealth

Such lands may also be sold to the Department of Forests and Waters of this Commonwealth or to the United States of America for National Forests or may be exchanged with such agencies for State Forests or National Forests when the best interests of the wild-life of the Commonwealth can thus be attained
